ARGUMENTS MARK CLOSE OF INQUIRY

Ballinger - Pinchot Hearing Ends in Blaze of Verbal Fireworks.

PRINCIPALS ARE DENOUNCED

Committee Will Receive Briefs From Attorneys July 11th—Closing Scenes Interesting—Brandies and Vertrees Talked.

Washington, May 28.—The Ballinger-Pinchot investigation ended today in a blaze of verbal fireworks. The oratorical efforts closed the open hearings and the attorneys who have been engaged in the case now will prepare briefs for submission to the committee which will meet July 11th to receive them.

"When I came into this case a stranger to Mr. Ballinger," exclaimed Attorney Vertrees in closing his address, "these were my instructions: 'So far as I am concerned there is no bottom to this affair," said Mr. Ballinger; as to the subordinates, it is not a matter of knowledge, but I believe those about me are honest, but whether they are or not, let this investigation proceed in every direction in which it may.' What ever your report may be I realize fully that you cannot save him from the injury that has been done, but at the same time I know the report must be in accordance with the evidence and the facts in this case and that his official career is without spot or stain."

"I am afraid Mr. Vertrees has been corrupted since he came here from the Southwest," was Attorney Pepper's parting shot in defense of Mr. Pinchot. "Unsophisticated as he was he came in contact with a spirit of suspicion and I think he scented a conspiracy where there was none. What there was, was a series of successive blows dealt by Mr. Ballinger against interests which were vital to a group of men who had dedicated their lives to the cause."

Glavis' attorney, Mr. Brandeis, had the last word. "Here was a man disgraced, condemned, not only without hearing, without seeing the hundreds and hundreds of pages of evidence which was contained by Assistant Attorney General Lawler, but without knowledge that there was a charge against him. Why, why was he sacrificed? It rests deep in the conception which actuated Mr. Ballinger and the men who stood with him, and it is the conception of a class of privilege, that men high in exalted station must be protected at all cost, but a man merely an humble servant of the government, has no rights if for the protection of Ballinger it is necessary to condemn innocent men."

The hearing room was crowded and at the conclusion of each speech a demonstration interrupted the proceedings.

Attorney Vertrees was most bitter in his denunciation of former Secretary Garfield and former Chief Forester Pinchot, who, he said, conspired to accomplish the removal of Mr. Ballinger from public life because his was an administration of "law and not of men."

He said Pinchot had not been credited with a "loftiness of purpose that he does not deserve," and insinuated that he "would scruple at nothing to carry out his purposes and plans." Mr. Pepper declared that it was a "wholly baseless charge" that Garfield's opposition to Ballinger had been inspired by a feeling of disappointment at not having been retained in the Taft cabinet. He said that if that had been so, Garfield's antagonism would not have been directed toward Ballinger.

Saying that he suspected Mr. Vertrees of caricaturing conservation when he depicted Pinchot and his friends of standing between private interests and the "people's coal", exclaiming:

"Don't let Guggie get it," Mr. Pepper added:

"The Ballinger idea of conservation seems to be: 'Do let Guggie get the coal.'"

In Mr. Brandeis' closing speech, reference was made to Vertrees' statement that Ballinger's administration was one of "law and not of men."

"Rather of lawyers and not of men," suggested Brandeis, "lawyers who have been ever ready to resort to loose construction of the law when private interests were threatened and a strict construction of it when the public's interest was involved."

Brandeis said if Ballinger as Secretary, had left to his subordinates which he said he did not believe, the handling of the Cunningham cases, he was unfaithful to his public trust. He paid high tribute to the Pinchot following and the "independent press."

"But for these publications and these men," he declared, "there would have been done in this country an act of injustice as great as that done Dreyfus in France and for very similar reasons. As suggested by Mr. Vertrees, men in exalted positions have got to be protected at all hazard and if they cannot be protected by truth then lying must be exerted for the end."

ROOSEVELT AND INSURGENTS

Ex-President Arranges Conference With Congressman Fish to Learn "Insurgent" Situation—Will Make Speeches.

Washington, May 28.—After the publication today of the fact that "a prominent Republican member of the House of Representatives" had received a letter from former President Roosevelt requesting the former to meet him in a conference as soon after the ex-President's arrival in New York on June 18th, as possible, it became known that the recipient of the letter was Representative Hamilton Fish, of New York. Mr. Fish refused, however, either to affirm or deny for purposes of publication, that he had received such a letter.

Mr. Roosevelt's letter indicates that he is desirous of learning the "insurgent" situation in the House from first hand, as soon as possible after his return to this country. It is known that there has been an interchange of letters between Mr. Fish and the ex-President since the latter's arrival in Europe. The "insurgent" is a long time personal friend of Mr. Roosevelt and for that reason has not hesitated about advising the ex-President unreservedly about the various political events which have transpired since Mr. Roosevelt's departure for Africa a year ago.

In response to Mr. Roosevelt's request Mr. Fish has made a hotel reservation in New York for June 18th.

He expressed no doubt whatever that Mr. Roosevelt would support the cause of the House Insurgents and prophesied that he would be found making a few speeches this Fall in the districts represented by Insurgents, who might be in danger of defeat.

"Whatever else may have been charged", said Mr. Fish, "Mr. Roosevelt has never been accused of ingratitude towards his friends."

It is known that Mr. Fish and Col. Roosevelt were warm personal friends as far back as the time when Mr. Fish was Speaker of the State Assembly in New York and the ex-President was a police commissioner in the city of New York. Their political and personal friendship has existed ever since. Mr. Fish has been one of the most active promoters of the insurgent movement among the Republican members of the House during the present session.

FIGHTING IN NICARAGUA.

Severe Battle With Heavy Casualties. Transport Prairie.

New Orleans, May 28.—That severe fighting with an unusually heavy casualty list on both sides marked today's events at Bluefields, is indicated in skeletonized cablegrams received here tonight by representatives of both the Madriz and Provisional governments of Nicaragua. Neither side claims victory.

Philadelphia, May 28.—Orders were received from Washington at the Philadelphia Navy Yard tonight directing that the transport Prairie sail at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning for Bluefields, Nicaragua. Hurried messages were sent to officers on shore leave to report at once and preparations for sailing were at once begun.

No marines will be carried from here on the transport, but a stop will be made at Colon, where more than 500 men will be picked up.

BLUE AND THE GRAY.

Springfield, G. A. R. Post Invites Petersburg Veterans.

Petersburg, Va., May 28.—The Grand Army of the Republic Post at Springfield, Mass., has invited A. P. Hill Camp, United Confederate Veterans to visit that post and aid in the observance of the Fourth of July.

These two organizations are on the very friendliest of terms and have frequently exchanged visits. Every member of each organization is an honorary member of the other.

SALE OF THE STATE BONDS

Bids for Only Part of the Issue—Governor and Council of State in Conference—Corporation Commission Clerk.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 28.—The second bids for $3,430,000 refunding 40-year 4 per cent. bonds to take up bonds falling due July 1, were opened by the State Treasurer at noon today in the presence of the Governor and members of the Council of State, and a large company of interested citizens in the office of the State Treasurer.

It was found that there were bids for only $1,218,500 of the issue as compared with $1,765,000 bid for on the first date for the bond sale May 18th when all bids were rejected. This time the bids ranged in batches from $1,000 to $200,000, whereas there was one $500,000 on the first effort to sell the issue. This was by the New York Life Insurance Company, and was not renewed.

The Council of State was in executive session all the afternoon considering the situation, a number of prominent bankers and other business men being with them in confidential conference one while. Announcement is made this evening that the Council accepts the bids received today but no statement is made as to what other plans they have. The bids in hand today leave $2,211,500 of the issue to be taken care of in some extraordinary way, several methods of extracting the administration from the embarrassing dilemma being suggested. One is calling the General Assembly in session to either increase the rate of interest above 4 per cent. provided, so as to effect a sale in the ordinary way or authorize some other means of tiding the State over the difficulty until the regular session in January. Another is to sell all the bonds that are now bid for or for which bids can be secured before July 1st to redeem those bonds that are presented for collection and to borrow money to take care of the rest until the regular session of the Assembly. This is believed to be the administration's policy since the bids are accepted. There is a suggestion that the State could get money on the railroad bonds the State owns as security or effect other financial arrangements that would save to the State the $25,000 or more expense of an extra session of the Legislature.

The Corporation Commission this afternoon elected A. J. Maxwell, of Dover, secretary to the Commission to succeed H. C. Brown, appointed by the Governor a Commissioner in place of the late B. F. Aycock. Mr. Maxwell is prominent politically, served several sessions as principal clerk in the State Senate and had the endorsement of all the Democratic State Senators and many others. There were 20 or more other applicants for the place. Mr. Maxwell will take up work June 1st.

DAMAGE SUIT COMPROMISED.

Seaboard Paid Lumberton Man $1,600 for Personal Injuries.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., May 28.—In the Superior Court today the case of Watts against the Seaboard, for personal injuries received in the wreck of the "Taft Special," November 9th, was compromised, the plaintiff receiving $1,600, out of which he pays his experts. Judge Allen left for his home in Goldsboro tonight.

Ol Johnson, colored, was arrested by Sheriff McNeill today for violating the fish law in this county Johnson admitted his guilt. He offered fish for sale which he caught in traps. He gave bond for his appearance, the case to be heard next week.

Policeman Alex. Currie today captured seven gallons of whiskey which was being brought in on the train from Marion. The tiger got away by appealing to leg bail, but the officer saved the booze.

LORIMER DEFENDS SELF IN SENATE

Illinois Senator Denies He Was Elected by Corrupt Methods.

TURNS ATTACK ON NEWSPAPER

Charges Tribune With Sinister Motives in Publishing Charges. Senator Accused by Legislator—Charges.

Washington, May 28.—For just two hours today Senator Lorimer stood in the Senate and discussed the charges of bribery made against him in connection with his election to the Senate. He made emphatic denial of all the allegations and sought to turn the accusation of drong-doing upon the Chicago Tribune, in which paper the charges were first printed.

The speech was devoted to a review of Chicago and Illinois politics for the past 25 years. He charged the Tribune with sinister motives in its attacks, and, saying that it had been fighting him ever since 1884, charged that it was inspired because of its failure to control his course as a public man. Mr. Lorimer gave many particulars concerning his Senatorial election saying that after persuading him to enter the race, Governor Deneen had deserted him and sought to turn against him those whose support he had formerly procured for him.

At the close of his speech Mr. Lorimer offered a resolution directing an investigation into the charges by the Committee on Privileges and Elections. Under the rules of the Senate the resolution was referred to the Committee on Contingent Expenses to consider the question of cost. In case of a favorable report from that committee, of which there is no doubt, the resolution will go to the Committee on Elections, for consideration of the merits of the matter. Upon the report of that committee the Senate's action will largely depend.

Mr. Lorimer said in part: "Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege to state the facts concerning the reasons for the most recent assault made upon me by the Chicago Tribune with the intent to blacken my character with the people of the country and to destroy me and my friends financially and politically."

He then detailed the fact of the Tribune's publication of April 1st last of a story over the signature of Chas. A. White, a member of the Illinois Legislature, in which it was alleged that he had procured his seat in the Senate through bribery and corruption.

"I have been compelled," he went on "to defer my return to the Senate owing to the fact that the story was timed and published with a deliberate purpose to destroy a new banking association in Chicago which I have been organizing with some of my friends. The assault was made to prevent the bank from opening. It utterly failed of its purpose."

Relating that it had been charged that the bribe had been paid through Hon. L. O'Neill Browne, the Democratic leader of the Illinois House of Representatives, he defended Mr. Browne as entirely above participation in such a proceeding.

He declared that Medill McCormick, of the Tribune, had threatened that the bank should never open, and also asserted that White did not write the story as had been claimed, but that it was "the work of a trained newspaper hand, skilled in the art of creating scandal out of lies, when it is thought necessary to blacken the character of one whom the newspaper cannot control. It is also plain to be seen", he went on, "that every word was passed upon by a lawyer before it was signed by that poor, low creature White, who does not hesitate to commit forgery for a few dollars, and to whom perjury is no crime, who is a part of the lowest fringes of depravity and who secures money to satisfy his instinct for debauchery, sold what title was left of his manhood and became the pliant tool of the Tribune in this timed and malicious attack."

Senator Lorimer then proceeded with unmeasured words of bitter in-

ILLINOIS SENATOR ACCEPTED BRIBE

Sensational Confession Causes Three Indictments Against Solons.

SOLD HIS VOTE FOR $2,500

Police Are Searching for State Senator John Broderick, A Democrat—Confession Followed Lorimer's Speech in Senate.

Springfield, Ill., May 28.—Bursting like a bomb within a few hours after United States Senator William A. Lorimer's speech at Washington, State Senator John Broderick, a leading Chicago Democrat was indicted on a bribery charge by the grand jury here today.

Broderick's indictment was the direct result of a confession made to the grand jury by State Senator D. W. Holslaw, of Iuka, Ill., who says Broderick paid him $2,500 to vote for Lorimer for Senator. A capais was ordered at once for Broderick and a bench warrant issued for his arrest.

The unexpected turn in the Lorimer scandal was an offshot of State's Attorney Burke's investigation of alleged graft in a Legislative furniture deal. Senator Holslaw had been indicted on a perjury charge in connection with the furniture contract and upon advice of his lawyer, when offered immunity, agreed to make a confession. Then he told the grand jury that he had received $2,500 for his vote for Lorimer; $700 as his share of a legislative "jack pot" and promise of $1,500 as his share of the State house furniture deal.

Senator Holslaw's confession regarding the furniture deal was corroborated before the grand jury by Otto Freier who, as agent for the Ford-Johnson Furniture Company, of Chicago, obtained the furniture contract.

The two confessions regarding the furniture contract resulted in two additional indictments, one a conspiracy charge.

These were: State Senator C. Pemberton, Republican, of Oakland, Ill., and Representative Joseph S. Clark, of Vandalia, Ill. As in the case of Senator Broderick, in the Lorimer alleged bribery matter capiases and bench warrants were issued immediately for Senator Pemberson and Representative Clark on the conspiracy charges in connection with the furniture contract.

Although the indictment charging conspiracy was returned against Holslaw, immediately it was nolled and immunity for Holslaw was ordered by Judge Creighton upon the recommendation of State's Attorney Burke.

When the indictments had been returned and the court orders entered in the two separate scandals the members of the grand jury adjourned until next Tuesday.

Following his appearance before the inquisitorial body Holslaw repeated his conversation to the Associated Press. He told in detail of the meeting he had with Senator John Broderick, of Chicago, in front of the St. Nicholas Hotel in this city the day before William Lorimer was elected United States Senator. He and Broderick talked for some time about other matters and then the senatorial question was brought up.

Holtslaw says that Broderick asked him if he could vote for Lorimer and he replied that it was possible for him to do so, that some of his Democratic constituents had told him that such a move would be a good thing towards disrupting the Republican party in the State. Holtslaw says that when Broderick said if he would vote for Lorimer there would be $2,500 in it for him. Holtslaw says that he then agreed to cast his vote the next day, May 26th, for Lorimer.

He said that he had never been approached on the subject before and denied that Lee O'Neill Browne or Senator Lorimer had ever brought the subject to his attention.

The bill charging conspiracy to perform felony of bribery contained three counts directed at Senator Stanton C. Pemberton, of Oakland, and D. W. Holtslaw, of Iuka, and Representative Joseph S. Clark, of Vandalia. Capiases were immediately ordered issued and their bail fixed at $5,000 each.

As soon as the indictment against Holtslaw had been placed on the records State's Attorney Burke, moved that it be nollied and this was done.

The bribery indictment against Senator John Broderick, of Chicago, was the last to be read by the court. A capias also was issued for Broderick and his bail fixed at the same figure as that of Pemberton and Clark.

Chicago, May 28.——Upon receipt of a telegram from the Chief of Police of Springfield, asking for Senator Broderick's immediate arrest, Chief of Police Schuettler tonight detailed detectives to hunt for Broderick. The detectives had not found Broderick at 10:10 o'clock.

SOUTH PROTESTS AGAINST ACTION

Augusta Organizations Condemn Tactics as to President's Trip Expenses.

TELEGRAPH SPEAKER CANNON

Indignant and Mortified at Conduct of Democratic Members—Hospitality of Southerners—Georgia Representatives Talk.

Washington, May 28.—A protest against the action of certain Democratic members of Congress in opposing the appropriation of $25,000 for the President's traveling expenses, covering the President's last Southern trip and an offer to make up the deficiency, was telegraphed to Speaker Cannon today by the Augusta, Ga., Chamber of Commerce and Cotton Exchange and Georgia-Carolina Fair Association today. The telegram announced that at a called meeting of the three organizations held today the following memorial was ordered sent to the Speaker, to be presented to the House and to President Taft:

"Augusta, the Winter home of President Taft, stands indignant and mortified at the action of certain Democratic members of Congress in defeating by technical objection the proposition to make retroactive, so as to cover all the expenses of his last Southern trip, the appropriation of $25,000 for the President's traveling expenses.

"At a joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, Cotton Exchange and Board of Trade and the Georgia-Carolina Fair Association, held this day, it was unanimously agreed that we respectively tender through you, to the government of the United States the $25,000 necessary to meet the deficiency of the President's recent transcontinental trip which did so much to cement the ties between the different sections and bring the nation and the nation's chief executive in closer touch and sympathy each with the other."

The resolution contains the signatures of the presidents of the associations named.

Representatives Hardwick and Bartlett, of Georgia, denied that the telegram in any way reflected on their action. They stated that they took no part in the House debate, only after Representative Tawney had criticised Southern hospitality and charged that President Taft had been forced to pay for his board while in Georgia. They characterized the attack upon Southern members in Congress and upon the hospitality of the South as unfair and unjust.

When President Taft today received the telegram from Augusta it gave him great pleasure and assured him that the kindly feeling for him in the South had in no way been impaired by the controversy in the House over his traveling expenses. Augusta is the principal city in the district of Representative Hardwick, one of the Congressmen who participated in the controversy.

The President could not possibly accept the offer of the patriotic Georgians. He intends to pay out of his own pocket his traveling expenses for the remainder of the fiscal year. These will amount to about $7,000 or $8,000 as the President proposes to make all the visits planned by him between now and the end of the year.

ALBANY TO NEW YORK.

About Ready for Curtiss and Hamilton Flights This Week.

Albany, N. J., May 28.—A brisk wind, varying from 20 to 30 miles an hour prevented Glenn H. Curtiss from making an attempt to fly from Albany today. The fact that tomorrow is Sunday will not prevent him from starting providing weather conditions are favorable. He plans to be on the field not later than 5 o'clock in the morning. Several of the most important flights Mr. Curtiss has made included one at Rheims, one in Italy and another in Los Angeles, were made on Sunday.

"I have no superstition about flying on that day", he said. "In fact, it has proven a rather lucky day for me."

New York, May 28.—Charles K. Hamilton, the aviator, announced tonight that he will attempt on Tuesday next, weather permitting, to fly from Governor's Island to Albany, for the New York World's $10,000 prize.

Hamilton arrived here today from the South and his aeroplane will be assembled tomorrow. He says positively he will make a start between 2 and 4 P. M., on Tuesday and will attempt to reach Albany without a stop. He is the only aviator so far who has entered against Curtiss.

HOMICIDE IN JACKSON.

Meagre Particulars Reach Asheville From Sylvia, N. C.

Asheville, N. C., May 28.—A special to the Gazette-News late this afternoon from Sylvia, Jackson county, tells of the killing there last night of John Freeman. Particulars are meagre, the dispatch simply says, "Last night between the hour of 12 and 1 o'clock while in the act of taking corn from the barn of Thurman Allen, one John Freeman was shot and instantly killed, a shot gun being used."

TALKS ON NEWSPAPER LIFE

Duties and Ideals of His Profession From Galley-Boy to Editor-in-Chief—Prominent Men Attend—Eventful Career.

New York, May 28.—Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier Journal, was the guest of the New York Press Club at a dinner in his honor tonight. To his right and left sat other newspaper men of National prominence and some others not of the craft were there as guests. Among these were Brigadier General Walter Howe, commander of the Department of the East, and Representative William Sulzer.

The cover of the menu was a re-production, reduced, of the first page of Colonel Watterson's paper, the Courier Journal. A cut of Colonel Watterson adorned the inside.

Mr. Watterson, in a speech told of the duties and ideals of the newspaper profession. He said:

"I was born next door to a print shop, and grew up in a newspaper office. First and last I have filled every newspaper function from galley boy to leader-writer. I am proud of my calling and jealous of its good name. Until I gave up all-around, all-night work, I was never so happy as toward the wee sma' hours, when, the boys around me, wires were flashing and feet were hurrying, and the presses were beginning to thunder below. Now that I no longer see the paper to press, it rejoices me to find myself still surrounded by the boys—the boys in the trenches—and to recall the old days and nights, and, in fancy to believe that there's life in the old man yet.

"Not one of you has walked these streets in search of work more wistfully, and sometimes more despairingly than I have. I remember once seeing young James Gordon Bennett through a window of the old Herald omce down about the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, and of murmuring, with John Leech's ragged urchin, looking upon a little boy in a London home, eating plum-pudding, 'wouldn't it be bully to be him." Just 52 years ago Mr. Dana, then on the Tribune, paid me five dollars for a bit of what would be called space writing now, and ten years later when we had come to be as it were professional colleagues, he was pleased to be reminded of the circumstance, and from that nour to the day of his death, was my most excellent friend and comrade.

"I beg you will not be alarmed. I am not going to weary you with the reminiscential, nor set up for a schoolmaster. Still less is it my purpose to deliver a lecture on journalism. I think I know what news is and how to prepare it equally for the tea-table and the breakfast table. Like victuals, it may be served hot and savory, or raw and unsavory, be brought on plain, or be dressed and decorated, to suit the ever varying public taste. There is in this, as in cooking, an art. A fine, ruddy murder, like a fair round of beef, may be ruined in the roasting, and a scandal, fat and juicy, blonde and frowsy wholly spoiled by a figurative excess of oil and garlic. A skilful chef can take a few scraps and fabricate a dish to delight a gourmet. So a deft reporter can put this and that together and piece a story to set the town a-talking. In both cases, however, there must be the basis of essential fact. It is given to no man to make a silk purse out of a sow's ear; to no cook to render a saute out of sawdust and boot-heels; to no reporter to turn a scoop out of a lie.

"I was engaged as general utility man upon an afternoon paper in Washington City. Each morning there was laid upon my desk the New York Evening Post and the New York Evening Express of the preceding afternoon. A part of my business was with pencil, paste and scissors to riddle the contents of those two interesting sheets. For better attraction, I adopted the form of a daily New York letter. Having no leg-work to do and fresh from my early coffee, with the Post and Express before me, knowing all the local points and people, nothing was easier than the filing of an apt column or two, with a New York date line. I fairly reveled in my artistic fraudulency. It was so disguised in the warming-over process that for a long time the stuff was regularly copied by the papers from which it had been originally taken. Those, however, were halcyon, innocent and happy days, when genius had some chance and virtue was its own reward.

"Nevertheless, I flatter myself that, barring the late hours and the locomotion, I can still hold my own with the best of you in the work of news gathering and news collating, in distinguishing what is and what is not news, even to the latest up-to-date frills and flounces from Park Row and the Tenderloin resorts of Herald Square and Forty-second street, provided they be open and above board, clean and truthful—tolerably truthful! and not furtive and ignoble.

"I draw the line at straight lying and the station house. The City Editor should never consider himself a brevet

Like wine, the Sailors improve with age, and one day's growth worked wonders, for those that risked a journey to the ball park yesterday in hopes of seeing a better exhibition than the games of Thursday and Friday, were not disappointed. The locals appear to have taken a new lease on life, and pulled off a faultless performance just to show they had it in 'em to do that same thing. down to one bingle. Try hard as they could, the Goldsboro boys could not force a man over the pan, and the final result was, Wilmington 1; Goldsboro 0.

While the umpire seemed slightly off on balls and strikes, his decisions indicated his intentions to be fair, and the mistakes were from the head and not the heart; and, it is to be regretted the actions of two of the visiting players compelled their retirement from the game.

Both pitchers pulled themselves out of deep holes at several stages without any damage being done.

Here's the details:

First Inning—Gates died second to first, Kelly strolled, Wolfe singled to left for Goldsboro's only hit of the game, Evans popped to pitcher, and Kelly was caught with designs on third. For Wilmington: Hyames opened services with a double to the sunfield, Cooper sacrificed, Tydeman out short to first, and Doak third to first.

Second—Sharpe flied to center, Crockett out second to first, Steinbach pedestrined, Daly died pitcher to first. For Wilmington: Burke whiffed, Kaiser ditto, Carroll skyed to left.

Third—Webb Job-ed for four wide ones, Gates out to third, Kelly hit to first and Webb was thrown out at second, and Kelly was nabbed attempting to annex second. For Wilmington: Kite got a constitutional, Ebbinger martyred, Hyames ambled but was immediately caught in a state of coma off first, Cooper died short to first.

Fourth—Wolfe out third to first, Evans derricked out to center, Sharpe died second to first. For Wilmington: Tydeman hit to short, who juggled; safe on first, Doak advanced him with a sacrifice, Burke hit to second, Kaiser safetied to center, Ty domiciling, Carroll hit to pitcher and on fielder's choice Burke was choked off third, Kaiser caught pilfering.

Fifth—Crockett strutted, Steinbach martyred, Daly hit to second and out at first, Crockett advancing, Webb died similarly. For Wilmington: Kite out on high fly to left, Ebbinger flew to second, Hyames clouded to left.

Sixth—Gates was ticketed, and died stealing, Kelly skied to center, Wolfe gamboled, and was caught attempting a filch. For Wilmington: Cooper out short to first, Tydeman drove out to left fence for two sacks, Doak reached first on error of short, Burke hit to infield and safe on first—nobody home, filling bases. Kaiser hit to first and Ty was forced at the marble. Carroll soared to right.

Seventh—Evans domed to center, Sharpe paraded, Crockett hit into a double, Burke to Hyames to Kaiser. For Wilmington: Kite breezed to left, Ebbinger died second to first, Hyames drove out to third.

Eighth—Steinbach hoofed, Daly, batting, was ordered from the game for sky-larking, Fulton, taking his place, atmosphering, Webb on wild pitch of third strike was thrown at first, Steinbach advancing to third. Kelly kicked on decision and was also ordered from the grounds by the umpire, who tacked five dollars on each. Gates clouded to Carroll. For Wilmington: Cooper died pitcher to first, Tydeman fouled out, Doak ditto.

Ninth—Malcom, succeeding Kelly, popped to short; Wolfe out third to first, Evans short to first.

SQUIBS.

"For this relief; much thanks!"

Wilmington One! anyway you look at it.

Our bonnets are doffed to Mr. Kaiser. Hoch! Hoch!

The inevitable goose egg, but for the other fellow that time.

It might correctly have been advertised as a "Game of Bawl."

His Umps seemed to be off on balls and strikes, going and coming.

Kite elevated a fly in the fifth almost as high as car fare to the beach.

Ty poled out a long one to left for two sacks; and Hyames also got a double.

Take in the matinee tomorrow afternoon, and follow the plays up in Cumberland.

Klutz, the new high-brow fielder, and Pug Mills, first sacker, will probably report on Friday.

"Variety—the spice of life" seems to be the Sailors' Slogan. Come on with a little more of it.

Hyames made a little ascension after a high throw of Kite's in the sixth, and tagged the runner way off.

You can't say the crew didn't work hard yesterday afternoon. They resembled a colony of ant hills on moving day.

Manager Bert caught the classiest game of any pulled off around these diggings in many moons. His base pegging was perfect.

Goldsboro seemed to have it in for the Arbiter, resulting in two of her men being expelled from the game and given a fine each.

That youngster Carroll bestirred himself like a contemporary of Saint Vitus, camping under everything threatening his garden.

There was no more comparison between yesterday's game, and those of the two days preceding, than between brick-bats and butterflies.

Control seems to be our greatest trouble in the pitching line. The men have the goods but can't locate the plate. How about a little practice work on a baby rack?

The car service from the park after the game was unsatisfactory, a great number of persons being compelled to wait for nearly half an hour waiting for accommodations to reach the city.

There was a little hissing going on in the stands which ought to be stopped. There are many other ways of expressing disgruntlement and displeasure than imitating a ground rattler.

Let's pick up a little on our hitting, boys; yesterday was good for a starter but there is considerable room for improvement yet, and no pitcher, however good, can win a game unless his team-mates bat behind him.

Mr. C. H. Beardsley, proprietor of the Red Cross Pressing and Tailoring Co., offers a $5 pair of trousers to the first player knocking a home run on the Wilmington grounds and three months membership in the club for the second home run.

There are several shades of yellow, notable among which is that of the lemon. But the brightest yellow of them all is the saffron streak in the fan who yelps because the home club has lost a few games. These ginks with the long faces and the doleful predictions are the same kind that fill the poor houses in their old age. Why? Because they are quitters. When things go against them, instead of making the best of it they give up and stop trying. They are the stuff that failures are made of. If a fan has a good digestion and a clear conscience he can stand a lot of losses at this end of the season without howling. It isn't the team that wins the games at the start that cops the pennant, but the team that gets shaken into form by mid-season.—Atlanta Georgian.

ARMY WON FROM NAVY.

Score Was 2 to 0 at Annapolis—Annual Closing Game.

Annapolis, Md., May 28.—The Army took the annual inter-service baseball game this afternoon when the Midshipmen were defeated by a score of 2 to 0. Although Navy played hard they lacked "get together" and the Army won by team work. The game was witnessed by about 5,000 persons, but was not marked by the usual enthusiasm attending the annual games between the Army and Navy. The result of the game brings the score in contests won, Army 6; Navy 3.

TEN INNINGS AT ROCKY MOUNT

Luyster and Big Chief Thorpe Sent in for Titanic Struggle Which Fully Developed—Only Score in the Tenth.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., May 28.—Mid-season baseball with men on bases nearly every inning, the pitchers tightened up today and there was no scoring until the tenth, when Bunting, for Fayetteville, hit for two bases, was sacrificed to third and scored on Dobson's squeeze, which was perfect. Luyster was pitted against Thorpe and both got off nicely. The Indian was wild at times, but he was equally as invincible in yielding hits.

WILSON'S THREE STRAIGHTS

Score Five to One at Raleigh Yesterday—Fans Are Clamoring for Reinforcements if Franchise is to Remain.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 28.—For the third game on the home diamond, Raleigh went down in defeat today, Wilson piling up five runs to Raleigh's one. It was a slow game in which the Raleigh box artist put up a passable front but received no adequate support at any point on the diamond.

Raleigh fans are clamoring for reinforcement of the team if this franchise is to remain to Raleigh's credit.

PENNSYLVANIA WON MEET.

Exciting Events on Franklin Field. Yale "Made Good."

Philadelphia, May 28.—The University of Pennsylvania won the inter-collegiate championship track and field meet on Franklin field this afternoon by the narrow margin of two points, scoring 27 1-2 points to Yale's 25 1-2. Michigan, by fine work of Craig, her sprinter, took third place from Princeton, scoring two points. Princeton made 17 points, Cornell 14, Harvard 13 1-2, Syracuse 8, Amherst 8, Brown and Dartmouth, each 3, Columbia 2 1-2, and Wesleyan, Bowdoin and New York University each one.

Yale scored three firsts, Pennsylvania two, Michigan two, Cornell two and Princeton, Harvard, Syracuse and Amherst each one. The world's record in the 220-yard dash—21 1-4 seconds—was equalled by Craig, of Michigan, and the intercollegiate pole vault record of 12 feet 3 1-4 inches held by Campbell, of Yale, was raised to 12 feet 4 3-8 inches by Nelson, of Yale. As usual, Yale excelled in the pole vault. Nelson gave a great exhibition of vaulting. After winning the event at 12 feet 4 3-8 inches, he tried for a world's record at 12 feet, 10 1-2 inches. He got over the bar, but in coming down his elbow struck the cross piece much to the dismay of the 15,000 persons that looked on.

Excepting the pole vault there were no notable performances in the field events, though Horner, of Michigan, was only one inch short of the inter collegiate record in putting the shot.

POST ENDURANCE RUN.

Cars Arrived at Richmond—Start Home Monday.

Richmond, Va., May 28.—Twenty-four cars in the Washington Post endurance run reached Richmond at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon, having left Staunton, the night control after the first day's run, at 7 o'clock. The endurance party, numbering about 85, people were met some miles out of the city by a pilot car sent out by the Times-Dispatch, and were escorted into Richmond by 25 automobiles sent out by the Richmond Automobile Club. With the escort, the Post party came into the city in regular line, and were enthusiastically greeted all along the route. They will remain over here tomorrow and start for home Monday morning.

HARROUN WON A GREAT RACE

Broke 200-Mile Auto Record and Achieved Sensational Triumph—Lynch Second in a Jackson—Several Serious Accidents.

Indianapolis, May 28.—In desperate struggles for supremacy among drivers of the most powerful American cars, records went down for all distances between five and 200 miles at the speedway today and in the grind only two men were injured.

Herbert Lytle, the driver and his Mechanician William Clifton were hurled from their car, an American, when a front tire burst as they were turning into the home stretch in the last lap of the ten mile free-for-all handicap. The car plunged into the sand at the inner edge of the track and was smashed. Lytle's left leg was broken and Clifton was severely bruised.

Harroun, driving a Marmon, achieved the most sensational long distance triumph in the history of automobile track racing in this country when he won the 200-mile race in 2:46:31, breaking the record which had been held by Chevrolet, who went the distance in 2:46:48 at Atlanta.

The performance of Lynch, in a Jackson, who was second was hardly less brilliant for he did not stop once in the long fierce fight while Harroun had to pause a few minutes at the end of the hundredth mile for gasoline.

The five mile record for cars of 451 to 600 cubic inches piston displacement was broken by Barney Oldfield in his Knox. Oldfield's time was 4:03. The old record was 4:43.

Aitken (National) took the honor of breaking the record for ten miles for cars of 301 to 450 inches displacement. His time was 8:08 against the former record of 8:17 and Harroun (Marmon) and Merz (National) who were second and third, shared in the victory for the three were bunched almost to the finish when Aitken cut ahead and was first over the wire of the electric timing machine.

Burman, (Buick) led off the 200 mile race with a leap, Harroun (Marmon) pressing almost against his rear wheels. Burman had engine trouble before the 20th mile and dropped back in Harroun's favor. From then to the finish Harroun unswervingly whirled the bowl of the speedway ahead of his competitors. His team mate, Dawson, was just behind him with the field battling for third until the seventieth mile. Then Dawson had a miraculous escape from death or injury. On the back stretch a tire burst and his car plunged to the inner sand cushion, turned completely over, landed on its wheels and crashed through a fence. Dawson did not loose his seat and when the car stopped against a heavy post, he found himself unhurt. The car, however, was a wreck.

Harroun drew within ten miles of all the closest racers after the 100 miles had been covered.

Lynch, (Jackson) A. Chevrolet, (Buick) and Aitken, (National) alternated in second place, with the rest of the field hopelessly behind. Harroun was ahead of all American records from start to finish.

JEFF BACK TO CAMP.

Accompanied by J. J. Corbett—Johnson Still Sprinting.

San Francisco, May 28.—Accompanied by J. J. Corbett and the sparring partners who appeared with him at the exhibition here last night, James J. Jeffries left this afternoon in an automobile for his training camp at Ben Lomond.

After his usual 12-miles on the road today Jack Johnson played a game of baseball. Johnson claims he is gaining speed by indulging in the sport.

Fourteen rounds of boxing formed the afternoon programme which was marked by the debut as a sparring partner of "Young Sharkey" an aspiring heavy-weight who appeared at the camp this morning.

CITY LEAGUE GAMES.

Classy Ball Played on Baraca Diamond Yesterday Afternoon.

Classy ball was put up by all four teams of the City League yesterday afternoon on the Junior Baraca diamond. The first game was between the Junior Baracas and the David G. Worth Bible Class and it was only a batting rally in the ninth inning that saved the day for the Bible Class, winning by a score of 6 to 2. Batteries: Blue and Bell for the Baracas and Taylor and Lewis for the Y. M. C. A.

The second game was between the Boys' Brigade and the Pirates and was a splendid exhibition of baseball. It took the ninth inning again to decide the contest, the game being won by the Boys' Brigade by the score of 5 to 4. Batteries: Davis and C. Burnett for the Boys' Brigade; Greelish and Thompson for the Pirates. Davis, for the Brigade team, struck out 13 men. All the pitchers did fine work. The first game was umpired by Mr. Chas. Dushan and the second by Mr. W. R. Dosher.

The Y. M. C. A. and the Boys' Brigade teams have won two games each and lost one each, standing 666 in the percentage column, and the Pirates and the Junior Baraca teams have won one each and lost two each, making them 333 in the percentage column.

Last night in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. the Junior Baraca team defeated the Junior Y. M. C. A. team at indoor baseball by the score of 17 to 14. The teams were well matched and base running proved the main features. Umpire, Ben Thees; scorer, C. Sheppard; time, one hour and five minutes.

BERNEYO WINS RACE.

Result of Exciting Race From Philadelphia to Havana.

Havana, May 28.—The ocean race for motor boats from Philadelphia to Havana in which five contestants started last Saturday afternoon has ended in a victory for the Berneyo, owned by S. W. Granbery, Brooklyn Yacht Club, which with her time allowance of three hours and 45 minutes over M. E. Brigham's Caliph beat the latter boat by two hours, 44 minutes, 18 seconds.

The Caliph arrived here this evening at 6:03:14, following by the Berneyo a trifle more than an hour behind. The Illys, owned by J. G. M. Whitaker, reached the finish line about 10:36 o'clock this morning while the Caroline did not breast Morro light until 6:38 this evening, thereby winning fourth place. The fifth contestant, the Loantaka, owned by H. S. Peters, met with trouble soon after the start and abandoned the race.

The Caroline was greatly delayed by heavy seas and high winds crossing the Gulf stream.

Many entertainments have been arranged for the yachtsmen, including a breakfast tomorrow at the Havana Yacht Club, an excursion on Monday to Matanzas, a banquet on Tuesday, a reception at the American Club on Wednesday and a ball at the Yacht club on Thursday.

NEW ORLEANS PUBLISHER.

Page M. Baker of the Times-Democrat Passed Away Yesterday.

New Orleans, May 28.—Page M. Baker, for the last 21 years publisher of the New Orleans Times-Democrat, died here late this afternoon. Mr. Baker had suffered from a complication of diseases for several years but his illness did not force him to release active management of the Times-Democrat until three months ago.

Mr. Baker was born at Pensacola, Fla., in 1840. He came to New Orleans when a young man and enlisted in the Confederate Army in this city. He served with the Washington Artillery at Antiem and in several battles in Virginia. Later he was transferred to the Confederate States Navy and served as a midshipman until the close of the war. He was identified as a reporter and in various editorial capacities with the Picayune, Delta Bulletin and other newspapers in New Orleans. In 1889 he became publisher of the Times-Democrat. He is survived by his widow, one daughter and a brother, Major Henry M. Baker, all of whom reside in New Orleans.

WEEK AT LUMBERTON, N. C.

Robeson Court Drawing to Close—Injured Persons in Taft Special Wreck—News Notes, Personal and Otherwise.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., May 28.—The May term of Robeson Superior court will expire today by limitation, though it is not expected that the case being tried this morning will be finished and will have to be continued until next term, which will convene June 20th. The case now being heard is a damage suit growing out of the wreck of the "Taft Special" last November. Mr. Watts, the plaintiff, is represented by Messrs. McLean & McLean, Col. Jno. D. Shaw and Messrs. McIntyre, Lawrence & Proctor, appearing for the Seaboard. Very few people have been attending court during the week, only those who were obliged to be present attending. The farmers have no time to fool with court now. Judge W. R. Allen, who has been on this circuit this year, makes new friends on each visit, and it is safe to say no judge ever held court here who was more popular with Robeson county people. Judge O. H. Allen will be on this circuit during the Fall and will hold criminal court here beginning July 4th.

The county papers are putting in some good common sense talking along Congressional lines. As we see it that is the right thing to do, for we don't see how Robeson can afford to do otherwise than support her candidate for Congress, and it is to be hoped when the time arrives for the convention that the county will stand as one man for its candidate, Mr. McKinnon.

His many friends are satisfied beyond a doubt that Mr. N. J. Thompson was the happiest man in Lumberton last Sunday. The cause of Mr. Thompson's rejoicing was the result of the thoughtfulness and good will of the big-hearted Capt. John W. Harper, of Wilmington, who sent Mr. Thompson a supply of diamond back terrapin for his Sunday dinner. Capt. Harper did not know, of course, that Mr. Thompson was an elder in the Presbyterian church, else he would have selected some other day for giving him the greatest treat in recent years. Mr. Thompson says there are "exceptions to all rules", and that he just could not wait until Monday to give the necessary attention to that terrapin feast, and his only regret was that Capt. Harper was not here to participate. Mr. Thompson says he will always have time to give attention to the terrapin whenever Capt. Harper sends them, regardless of the day of the week. Mr. Thompson and Capt. Harper are two of a kind—both great big open-hearted specimens of the true Southern gentleman.

The concert given here this week by Miss Marion B. Kinnie and Mr. Orme Edwards was greatly enjoyed by a fair sized audience. It is to be regretted that on account of the weather conditions, a large crowd was not present, for everyone who heard Miss Kinnie were highly pleased, many declaring her violin playing the best they ever heard. Miss Kinnie and Mr. Edwards expressed themselves as being much pleased with Lumberton and promised to try to arrange to come this way again.

While at the passenger station awaiting the arrival of the train a few mornings ago, we noticed three young men engaged in conversation, all three of them smoking the same cigarette. After lighting up, the first one took a few puffs, passed it to the second who proceeded to puff some and pass it on to the third. The coffin tack was kept busy going from one to the other until consumed. The trio were going off on a trip and were certainly starting in an economical way.

One day this week we saw a package coming from a mail car which looked like it should have traveled in an express car, but it had 36 cents worth of stamps stuck on part of it—the package was in several pieces held together by several strings, and had the appearance of being two ladies' hats mailed by a Chicago house to a postoffice on a star route from Lumberton. Those hats will be out of style before they can be put together properly, even if all the parts are there. "Experience teaches".

Two young men were here from Wilmington this week on rather an unusual mission. It seems that one of them recently placed a diamond ring on the finger of a lady friend just to let her wear it a few days. Before he saw her again she married a young man residing in this county and, of course, did not have time to return the ring. The owner of the ring, accompanied by a friend, came to Lumberton Sunday afternoon and located the couple 14 miles from town. They found the bride and groom but no ring. A little detective work, however, located the ring in a jewelry store, where it had been sold for $5.00. The ring returned to Wilmington.

Mr. James Jones, a native of Lumberton, and for several years a compositor in the Robesonian office, who left here four years ago last month, returned Sunday evening on his first visit. From the day he left here until he returned, no one heard from him of knew of his whereabouts. Mr. Jones says when he left here he went to Wilmington and from there to Norfolk, where he enlisted in the army and was sent to Fort Slocumb, where he has spent most of his time. He is now off on leave of absence, and is spending the time here with relatives.

Prof. Sentelle and family left Thursday morning for Spartanburg, S. C., where they attended the closing exercises of Converse College. A sister of Mrs. Santelle being a member of the graduating class. From that place they went to their Summer home near Waynesville, where they will spend the Summer. Prof. Santelle will return next week, however, to be present at the meeting of the graded school trustees Wednesday and also to attend to other business matters.

Mr. Walter Boggs, who has been spending several months in Lumberton, left Thursday evening for Dallas, Texas, where he will spend some time with his parents before going on the road for his Winter work. Mr. Boggs expects to join the Demorest Comedy Company in August, and will be in Lumberton with that company, when it appears here in October, during which month it is booked for a week's engagement.

Mr. John Jones, locomotive engineer on the Southern between Columbia and Charleston, is spending some time here with his family.

Many of our people have been keeping late hours during the past two weeks, all trying to see the comet which did not seem to care whether it was seen or not, judging from the poor showing it made. A good many waited up to view the moon while in eclipse Monday midnight.

The condition of Deputy Sheriff Barnes, who was shot by a negro whom he was attempting to arrest at Maxton Thursday night, is as favorable as could be expected. He rested fairly well last night.

The early Seaboard train this morning took on 55 passengers here for Maxton, 52 of which were colored people going to that place to attend the meeting of the colored Baptist Union.

Some of the older citizens of Lumberton do not take kindly to the idea of retiring Chief Floyd as the city fathers indicate their intention of doing by advertising for a chief. It has been suggested that if they really want a great big chief they make an effort to secure the services of the bully who killed Mr. Bunting in the western part of the State last year, but this climate down here wouldn't agree with him. After all, better let well enough alone.

At a meeting of the trustees of the graded school Tuesday, Miss Mary Johnson was chosen as a teacher for the next term of school to succeed Mrs. R. S. Sledge, who resigned. At a meeting to be held nex Wednesday another teacher will be selected to succeed Miss Gill, who has tendered her resignation. Miss Johnson is a daughter of Mr. Archibald Johnson, editor of Charity and Children, and is a graduate of Meredith College.

One night this week while three court visitors were strolling around, hunting some place to go, they struck the picture show and decided to "take her in", but when they learned the price of admission was 10 cents, one little fellow standing six feet up and weighing about 225, declared they were no "greenies" and did not propose to be robbed. They didn't see the show.

Frank Alford, colored, was brought over from Rowland Thursday night and placed in jail, charged with house breaking.

Mr. J. T. Barker spent part of the week in Union county where he has a drove of cattle in pasture. While away Mr. Barker purchased half a dozen fine milch cows and a lot of Duroch pigs which he expects to reach here today. Mr. Barker believes in the best of everything in the live stock line.

Among the young ladies who have returned from the different colleges this week are Misses Maggie Pitman, Lina Gough, Lillie Barker, Cammie McNeil and Flora McNeill.

The singing class from the Oxford Orphanage will be seen here Tuesday night, and will, of course, be greeted by a full house.

Miss Laurette Trout, for two or three seasons a milliner for Messrs. Caldwell & Carlyle, is spending a few days in town with friends. Miss Trout has been located at Gibsonville during the Spring, and decided to visit here before going to her home at Forest City, where she will spend the Summer.

Mr. Jno. B. Pitman spent two or three days in Norfolk this week on business.

Contractor White has arrived from Whiteville, and will begin the work at once of erecting a large number of cottages for operatives who will be employed in the new Jennings Cotton Mills. Mr. White's family will arrive Monday and will occupy a house belonging to Mr. A. W. Prevatt in the western part of town. Work will be pushed as rapidly as possible, and in a short time 25 to 30 carpenters will be engaged on the work.

After suffering over six months as the result of injuries received in the wreck of the "Taft Special" last November, when so many of our people went to see the President in Wilmington, the real trouble which caused Mr. W. J. Prevatt so much pain ever since that time has been located and it is thought he will soon be as well as ever. It was discovered this week that his hip was dislocated, which has caused most of the trouble. It was replaced and now it is expected that he will soon be able to walk without the aid of a cane. It is said that replacing was painful in the extreme, especially after being displaced so long.

Mr. Grover Page, a student of King's Business Callege in Raleigh, has been home for several days on the sick list. He is much improved, however, and expects to return to Raleigh tomorrow evening.

Mr. O. C. Norment, who was seriously ill for several days, has sufficiently recovered to take short drives during the past two days, and his numerous friends wish for him a speedy and complete recovery.

Sheriff McNeill was looking at the names on several packages of whiskey in the express office yesterday evening, but while he doesn't use the stuff, he might like to know who had some in case of snake bites. Snakes are moving about now and are said to be plentiful.

Yesterday could be called a record-breaker for runaways here. Two double and two single teams ran away during the day, doing considerable damage to vehicles to which the horses were attached as well as those with which they came in contact. Little personal injury was done, Rev. R. W. Townsend, of Raynham, whose horse took fright at an automobile, being the worst injured, having received several painful bruises.

The last issue of the Rowland Sun contains the announcement of the candidacy of Mr. W. H. Graham, who has decided to enter the race against Mr. M. G. McKenzie for County Treasurer.

It is expected that the series of meetings which have been held at the Presbyterian church during the week, will close tomorrow night. The services have been well attended and much good has been accomplished.

Monday being a legal holiday the postoffice will be closed, Sunday hours being observed. On that day there will be a meeting in Lumberton of the Robeson County Rural Carriers' Association, which will be addressed by Congressman Godwin. The banks will not observe the day, but will be open for business as usual.

Mr. Wallace Norment, who had his nose broken while playing ball a few days ago, expects to be ready for another game by the last of next week if his injuries continue to improve.

AFFAIRS AT SPRING HOPE.

An All Day Picnic—To Build Bridge Over Railroad—Baseball.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Spring Hope, May 27.—Spring Hope people went picnicing today at the old Webb mill on Tar river. The big folks went and, of course, the little folks went along. There were boating parties, shooting parties, kodaking parties, and there were courting couples, too. The presidents of the two banks were along, the two Sunday school superintendents and all the Sunday School pupils, and all Spring Hope people had a good time.

The ladies of the Methodist Church gave a series of shows yesterday afternoon on the cotton platform at the Atlantic Coast Line depot. First there was a baby show, and Lillian Baird the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baird, was voted the prize. Quite a neat sum was added to the church building fund. Then in the evening there was a measuring party, Miss Fannie Jones, being official measurer and Mrs. S. A. Marshburn, cashier. Another sum for the building fund. Again five very attractive young ladies, Misses Rotha Pope, Ruth May, Lilly Griffin, Grace Bunn, and Ida Broughton were dressed as little babies and again there was a voting contest. Miss Broughton won. More money for the church. The concluding number of the big show was the sale of sixteen young ladies (all good looking, for no other kind dwell in Spring Hope). They were sold by number the purchaser not knowing for whom he was bidding. They sold at fair prices, considering it was like buying a pig in a poke, the prices ranging from 10 cents to $5. As a side show, Major J. H. Williams started a voting contest for the ugliest man. He nominated Z. N. Culpepper and this correspondent. There were other entries notably C. S. Hales and Major Williams himself, but the newspaper man won in a walk.

Mr. S. L. Rogers, member of the Corporation Commission, was in Spring Hope this morning. The people of the town had asked the A. C. L. Railroad to build a bridge across its tracks for the convenience of the citizens and more especially the school children. The railroad folks seemed a little slow in acting and the Corporation Commission was asked to make an investigation. Supt. W. H. Newell, of the A. C. L., was also present this morning. It is thought that as a result of the visit this morning the bridge will be built this Summer, the town and railroad company sharing in the expense. The details of erecting the bridge are to be arranged at once.

The baseball fans are much interested in the games played by the Eastern Carolina League, and an arrangement has been made with the Daily Record at Rocky Mount to get the scores every afternoon. A number of the fans went to Rocky Mount yesterday afternoon to see the opening game there. Later in the Summer, Spring Hope will play some ball.

A "NUMBER SIX" IN HARNETT

Illicit Distillers Banded Together—Federal Court in Raleigh—Several Charters Granted—Mutual Life Changes Its Name.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 28.—In the trial of Grant Pearson and Robert Davis, in the Federal Court on the charge of illicit distilling in Harnett county, it was developed in the examination of witnesses that there exists in the Spout Springs section of Harnett county where their still was discovered, and extending most probably into Durham and Wake and adjoining counties, a sort of association of blockaders bound together by the severest sort of oaths to protect each other to the limit.

They pledge that in the event one is captured he shall under no circumstances divulge the names of any associates. In this case the still was found in a deep gully where a place had been dug out and carefully covered over for the still. Revehue raiders Merritt, Holland, Jordan and others made up the party. They approached the still from either direction through the gully. One negro whose identity was never discovered jumped clear out of the gully and fled. The other two men, Pearson and Davis, ran frantically back and forth in the gully being faced by the revenuers whichever way they turned. Both men were convicted. Judgment has not yet been passed on them.

Another case tried last afternoon was against George and Henry Rich, charged with illicit distilling in Durham county, near the Wake line. They were acquitted by the jury. The evidence was all circumstantial. The raiders found the blockade still so close to the Rich home that they must have known, they argued, of its existence, and in their home was found a quantity of whiskey, various vessels generally used in handling whiskey and a siphon that was still dripping with whiskey for which it had been used. The men stoutly denied that they had any connection with illicit distilling.

Sheriff F. C. Berry, of Burke county, was in the city today to deliver to the penitentiary Will West, of Burke, who is to serve five years for shooting a man.

The Reflector Co., Greenville, was chartered today with $50,000 capital authorized and $5,000 subscribed by D. J. Wichard and others for publishing daily and weekly newspapers and operating a job printing business.

An amendment to the charter of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Co., is filed with the Secretary of State changing the name by eliminating the world "Mutual," so that the new name is The North Carolina Life Insurance Co. N. J. Ross is president.

THINK OF

Mexican Mustang Liniment

AND WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU.

Relief from pain that might otherwise cause you hours of agony.

Tired out muscles eased up and made ready for another day's work.

Lameness in the back and shoulders promptly cured and stiff joints limbered up.

Burns, Scalds, Cuts and Mashes rendered painless and quickly healed.

Rheumatism, Lumbago and Sciatica robbed of their anguish and banished forever.

Ulcers, Old Sores and Open Wounds healed promptly and permanently.

The first application of Mexican Mustang Liniment subdues the pain but it continues its work until every quivering nerve is soothed and quieted.

The great penetrating power of this famous remedy enables it to do this quickly and positively.

In all cases of Sprains, Bruises or Lameness, Mexican Mustang Liniment should be rubbed in persistently.

The antiseptic qualities of this old reliable household remedy make it safe and sure.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

The MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.25 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carrier in the city or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms No. 61. Call either if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will be invariably rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith

A man with ambitions to satisfy is a smooth article. A man with shattered ambitions is fierce.

Politics goes right on making strange bedfellows. Politics even takes in the fugitives from any party.

Uncle Joe is not chairman of the rules committee any more but the committee remembers him in his absence and does whatever he wishes. Uncle Joe's wishes have the long- distance reach.

The Concord rooster which is taking care of a brood of chickens which the mother hen put off on him illustrates the final results or henpeckism. He has come down to doing woman's work, and can no longer strut around except as a moliycoddle.

The diners who were recently the guests at a dinner given by Multimillionaire Schwab in New York represented a wealth of $300,000,000. It is not stated how much of it Mr. Schwab was after when he was playing the agreeable host.

The Atlanta Journal's Washington correspondent sends out a report that Secretary Ballinger will resign at the close of the present investigation of his official conduct. If he hurries up and gets out he might spite the investigation committee.

The Star some days ago warned General Estrada, the Nicaraguan insurgent, not to be over positive in serving notice on the world that he had the army of President Madriz "completely surrounded and cut off from their provisions." The Star's press dispatches yesterday indicate that the Estrada Nine was shut out by the Madriz team in the game at Bluefields.

The argument of counsel in the Ballinger investigation at Washington has been concluded and the case is now with the investigating committee. The committee can now go to sleep on the case and wake up to the realization that it took an awfully long time to find out whether the land grabbers stood in with Secretary Ballinger or whether Secretary Ballinger stood in with the land grabbers.

The Wide World Magazine, describing the dress of a South African Kaffir on a fete day, says it consists of "an umbrella and sundry forms of headgear." This indicates some improvement since the African tour of the late Mark Twain, who was struck with the exceedingly simple dress of a Kaffir who considered himself arrayed in full dress costume when he sported a postage stamp stuck in the middle of his forehead.

The few Democrats who voted the National Republican ticket in the last election have every reason to know now that their judgment was not as good as the aggregated judgment of the millions who stuck to the Democratic party and are not responsible for an administration that millions of men in the Republican and Democratic parties now heartily condemn. Follow the judgment of the majority. Stick to the party.

In the argument before the Ballinger investigation committee on Friday, the Secretary's attorney laid contemptuous stress on the Four G's., denouncing Ballinger's accusers as the "Glavis-Garfield-Gifford-Group." Gee, Buck! Wonder if the other side will think of retorting that Ballinger is now up against the Four G's because he fell down on the Six G's. There are six Guggenheim brothers in the syndicate which got all the public land it wanted while Secretary Ballinger was willing to unload the public domain on them.

FORAGE CROPS.

The farmers of this country should quit sending their money out West for hay and other forage. They should produce their own forage crops and keep their money at home. A little enterprise and intelligent application will convince them that they can produce three times as much forage at home for the same money they spend for Western hay or other forage crops.

The farmers must learn what to grow and how to grow it. There are many crops which can be produced profitably in eastern North Carolina but some of them have not become extensively introduced, whereas, this region is capable of producing a greater variety of crops than any portion of the civilized globe. Take the forage plant vetch, for instance. A few years ago many of our farmers never heard of vetch, and if they did they little dreamed of the possibilities for this great forage crop in eastern North Carolina. They know now, for it has been demonstrated that this region and the lands and climate are specially adapted to the production of one of the finest and most luxurious of the forage crops. Vetch is also a very superior land restorer, and its value in that particular will make it doubly valuable to our farmers.

The Columbus Industrial Advocate, of Chadbourn, furnishes proof of what is said here. Chadbourn is in a fine agricultural section and one of the intelligent farmers of that neighborhood has made a demonstration from which our farmers generally can learn a valuable lesson. This is the object lesson which he furnishes, as is told in the last issue of our esteemed Chadbourn contemporary:

"The most extraordinary thing we have seen in the way of growing forage crops was a piece of vetch grown by our Farm Demonstrator, Geo. Thompson. Mr. Thompson had sown the vetch last Fall after a crop of cowpeas. The peas had followed a crop of oats and the oats were following a crop of sweet potatoes. The rotation culminated in the most remarkable growth of forage we have ever seen. The vetch had been sowed with wheat with some oats mixed in. The wheat and vetch had choaked out the oats until they made but little show, but the wheat stood in places as high as a man's head and shoulder-high all over the field. The vetch was just about as high as the wheat and could barely get its head above it enough to tell what it was. The tonnage per acre would be hard to estimate, but it is bound to be very heavy. On Tuesday of last week Mr. Hemlingway went out and photographed it. If you want something to send your friends that will give the idea that forage crops can be grown here, you could get nothing better than one of these pictures."

Evidently there will be big money in Mr. Thompson's crop. One thing about it also is that vetch furnishes a luxurious and abundant crop this early in the season. Plant vetch. Learn how if you don't know.

PICAYUNE POLITICS.

Concerning all that disgraceful row in the House on Thursday with reference to President Taft's traveling expenses, the President wrote a letter to Representative Tawney protesting against the slightest hint that put him in the attitude of criticising Southern hospitality. The President expressed himself as greatly pained over the affair and declared that he was deeply grieved that any feature of what we have observed was uselessly acrimonious and absurd discussion should place him in the false attitude of reflecting on the hospitality and hearty welcome which he received during his trip through the South.

The President takes the occurrence too seriously. It was a poor piece of political bungling played on both sides, although Mr. Tawney attempted to make the newspaper reporters the scapegoat by declaring that they distorted the colloquy between himself and some of the Southern members. The fact is some facetious Republican interjected a pert remark which stirred the hot spurs, and before the atmosphere could clear crimination and recrimination flew from men all but too ready to shoot off their mouths. The newspaper men only chronicled the fool flings as they were hotly handed out, so it was not their fault but that of the parties to a mix-up that should have been pulled off up a back alley instead of in one branch of the law-making body of a great and grave nation.

The squall was brought about over the insignificant sum of $5,000, which the President spent over and above his regular allowance while he was complying with the people's wishes to see him smile and hear him talk. It must have been peanut money, for it surely evoked a lurid display of peanut politics.

"Do Democrats like crow?" asks the Greensboro News (Republican). No, thank you, boys. You'll have to eat it all yourself. Don't care to share it with you.

Those Wake county Democrats wish now they had washed their dirty linen behind closed doors. It has been a little too spectacular for the good of the party.

A contemporary remarks that "a political party will do anything to win." In that respect a political party so very much reminds us of a man who is out for the dough. It's business.

CALLS FOR RIDICULE.

Local self-government? Why, it hits us "a gwine and er comin." Some people want local self-government when they can use it to their advantage and don't want it when it is not to their advantage. Local self-government is a thing that will work both ways—one way for the eastern part of the State and another way for the western section. Local self-government is all right in its place.

Local self-government is a hummer in some counties and a humbug in some others. It is a fine political war cry and it is the best thunder the Democratic party ever had when the conditions suited. When they do not suit, the Democrats don't work at it much, and then is when the Republican party tries to work the game. However, this ancient Democratic policy still belongs to the party, even if it should be laid on the shelf at times when it is not wanted or needed for business. The Hon. Marion Butler, anti-machine Republican, labors under an egregious mistake when he thinks that the Democrats have discarded it, but he should know that it is a Democratic hot tomale.

Col. Butler is showing signs of badly wanting and sorely needing local self-government for a Republican campaign slogan, because he thinks it can now be used to the advantage of his party in the State. However, if it were to be seriously proposed to apply it to the election of Federal offices in a Democratic State when a Republican administration is on deck at Washington, he would drop the hot-tamale like it was a hot potato. The Ex-Senator has heard that some folks are State Democrats and National Republicans, and he is now manifesting a decided impression that some folks might be National Democrats and State Republicans.

We suppose that enough has been said to show that the local self-government question is a little confusing. In fact it is a double-barrel blunderbuss to be fired in two directions and is a double back-action boomering that will butt in from all directions. People know that they can have local self-government when it will really get them something, but Col. Butler needn't think he can fool them into believing that they need it bad enough to get the Republican party into power in North Carolina.

No old-line Republican will ever be caught inconsistently standing for local self-government when he belongs to a party which doesn't even recognize State's rights so as you would notice it. If Col. Butler can catch many unthinking people with his attempt to spring the Democratic local self-government idea as a Republican issue now, he might be caught a little later in an effort to make the G. O. P. swallow State's rights.

Local self-government is a powerfully good thing when it will keep Republicans out but it will not be accepted as a plea to get Republicans in. That will be the case so long as long-headed North Carolinians know that Republicanism is the issue and not local self-government.

We are not inclined to believe that any Democratic flies will permit themselves to be caught in Butler's molasses trap.

The Republicans claim that the increased production of gold accounts for the increased cost of living. They never would have taken that ground when the campaign was on for the gold standard. They make that argument now to save themselves from responsibility for high prices, but they would not in that campaign have gone around the country telling people that prices would be increased because of the gold supply. They are even willing to put the blame on gold when gold can prove an alibi.

Says the Richmond Virginian: "Roosevelt, by election, is now an artist in addition to his other accomplishments. He ought to paint well in reds and yellows." President Taft has a job ready for the new artist, who may be of great assistance in painting black white on the political campaign canvas this Fall.

Representative Foss, of Massachusetts, denounced the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill as "deliberate bunco". Then those who got the act through Congress were the bunco steerers.

"That creature Kerby! This hireling!" Ladies, that is what Ballinger's attorney called Stenographer Kerby just because he had a secret and told it.

Says an agricultural journal: "It requires skill to run a furrow." Judging from the way some men fight shy of it, it is noticeable that it also requires courage to run a furrow.

Representative Charles R. Thomas, of the Third District, talks like a man who has been up against a tough scrimmage line in all his efforts to get to goal with the political pigskin.

President Taft is given credit for trying to do right but he gets left by insisting that some of his official family are right.

If Secretary Ballinger were to see the propriety of resigning, President Taft would be excused for turning on the light so he could see his way clear.

CURRENT COMMENT.

If you have no trouble in getting it anyway, what fault have you to find with prohibition.—Durham Herald.

We are afraid that the census report will make towns out of a lot of North Carolina cities.—Durham Herald.

Major Wm. H. Bernard, of the old Wilmington Star, is sojourning in New Fayetteville. He writes that he has not lost interest in Merry Maxton. We assure him that there are no closed gates on the side from which Maxton's old friend approaches. And let that approach be speedy and often.—Maxton Scottish Chief.

We acknowledge an invitation from the Tidewater Power Co., to attend a Special Harbor dance to be given in honor of the North Carolina Press Association at Lumina, Wrightsville Beach, Friday, June 10th. What we would do to the floor if the Highland Fling is on the programme, would be a plenty. We would show Judge McEachern who is Scotch and who ain't, sure.—Maxton Scottish Chief.

Republicans are in earnest about North Carolina. They do not hesitate to say that they expect something worth while from there in November. The nomination of Mr. S. S. McNich, of Charlotte, is part of the programme. Advantage will be taken of every local Democratic row. The insurgent movement in the West has turned the eyes of the leaders to the South."—From Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer. The statement that "the insurgent movement in the West has turned the eyes of the leaders to the South" is perhaps significant. To what extent will the Republicans gain in the South the strength they have lost and will lose in the West? Not to any great extent we feel reasonably sure. If there are any Republican leaders who appeal to the admiration of Southern voters, it is the Bristows, the Dolliverers and men of that class rather than the old line Republicans. And since the Bristows and the Dollivers are about to be read out of the Republican party, there is no encouragement for near-Republicans of their way of thinking to go into the Republican party as it is now constituted. The South cannot, we believe, be depended on to furnish much more comfort than it has already furnished for a party dominated by such men as Senator Aldrich and Speaker Cannon.—Greensbor Telegram.

According to advices from Columbia to the Spartanburg Journal, Dr. Long, of the Marine Hospital Service, has found a cure for pellagra, or is believed to have found it. This seems to be the belief of the Columbia doctors who have been working with Dr. Long, who has been investigating pellagra under instructions of the government. According to the Journal's advice "some eight cases Dr. Long has treated at the State Hospital for the Insane have been discharged as cured. One of these was a physician. Several of the patients' minds had become affected, but these are now over their mental troubles." While most of the pellagra experts are not very hopeful of permanent results, it seems to be agreed that "if Dr. Long's theory is correct his remedy is practically a specific, and that pellagra will be as certainly perceptible to permanent prompt cure as the hookworm disease is to the thymol treatment." The Journal adds that "if Dr. Long is correct in the conditions which produce pellagra it would seem that about half the population is on the road to the disease. Dr. Long himself would not talk for publication, as he wishes to submit his solution of the problem carefully worked out through further experimentation to the American Medical Association." The medical world will await further details with interest.—Charlotte Chronicle.

With the approach of Davidson College commencement a general desire will be manifested as to the status of the quarter of a million endowment It will be a pleasure to know that it is almost within the grasp of the college. The Davidson College Bulletin says that at the Beginning of May, only $30,000 remained to be raised, aside from concluding the work undertaken by the churches in Charlotte. "We understand that the major part of Charlotte's portion of the work has been done," says the Bulletin, "and no doubt the leaders in the churches there will push the rest to completion. The $30,000 remaining to be raised elsewhere means that an average of $1,000 a day must be secured during the month of May. While this looks small when compared with the amounts that Agnes Scott College and many other colleges had to raise during the last month of the time allowed for the purpose; still conditions are different, and there is no one city to fall back on in which to conduct a whirlwind campaign at the end. Success in the present undertaking depends upon a general movement all along the line, and upon the co-operation of pastors, church officers, former students and many others." May 8th and 15th were observed in all the churches in the Synod as "Davidson Rally Day," and no doubt much of the desired $30,000 was secured. It is sincerely to be hoped that this great prize now so nearly within the grasp of Davidson's hands, will, by no manner of means be snatched away.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Democratic party of Maryland goes into the Congressional campaign of 1910 with a real issue. That issue was set forth by the State Central Committee yesterday in a resolution, prepared by Senator Rayner, attacking the Republican party upon the Aldrich-Payne tariff. Resolutions were also adopted assailing the Republican record on other important public questions. The resolution dealing with the tariff was drafted and submitted to the committee by Senator Rayner, who was in the thick of the tariff fight in the Senate and has made it the subject of careful study. No one understands better than he does the iniquities of the Payne-Aldrich law or its potential force as an issue. The Democratic party will go before the people this year upon the issue of the tariff. The resolution denounces the Payne-Aldrich law as an unwarranted interference with the rights of the American people in the interest of monopoly; as a repudiation of the pledges of the Republican party by raising instead of lowering the duties and increasing the cost of living.

The other resolutions set forth the invasion of the reserved rights of the States by the Federal Government; denounce the land frauds and the Ballinger scandals. These are strong points, and they will have their effect in the campaign, but the dominant issue will be the tariff and the high cost of living, for which it is responsible. On that issue the Democrats should sweep Maryland. They have not for many years had such an opportunity. The tide is running strongly in their favor. Almost every market basket has a vote in it for them.—Baltimore Sun.

CONGRESSMAN PATTERSON.

Gives Enthusiastic Endorsement to His Fellow Countryman.

In the page of endorsements of Maj. A. J. McKinnon for Congress, printed in last Sunday's Star, through an inadvertance, a very handsome testimonial by ex-Congressman Patterson, of Maxton, was omitted. Mr. Patterson's card is as follows:

Maxton, N. C., May 10, '10.

Mr. Editor:—I wish to add my endorsement to the candidacy of A. J. McKinnon for Congress. In doing so I am guided, not only by my feeling for a townsman and the pride I would necessarily have in any Robeson county man but also from a strong conviction that he is the most suitable man now being offered before the people of the Sixth District.

I have known him all of my life; his life has been clean, his conduct manly, his record spotless, his success wonderful and his Democracy unquestioned.

In supporting him I do so with the conviction that if nominated and elected he will give to the public the same conscientious, faithful and untiring service that he has manifested in his private affairs and in the interest of the community in which he lives.

MAY TERM SUPERIOR COURT

Will Convene Tomorrow Morning With Judge Chas. M. Cooke, of Louisburg, Presiding—For Civil Causes Only.

The regular two weeks' May term of New Hanover county Superior court for the trial of civil matters will convene tomorrow morning with Judge Charles M. Cooke, of Louisburg, presiding. The bar of the county met some days ago and arranged a calendar for the term and a large number of important cases have been set for trial. However, it is hardly probable that many of them will be reached.

The following are the cases arranged on the calendar for Monday: Smith & Gilchrist against D. K. Futch; Arthur Cobb for defendant and A. J. Marshall for plaintiff. C. S. Riley & Co. against W. T. Sears & Co., Herbert McClammy for plaintiff and J. D. Bellamy for defendant; Sloan & Sweeney against Etta Hart, et al., Meares & Ruark for defendant and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan for plaintiff; Susan M. Gregg, administratrix, against City of Wilmington, et al., J. D. Bellamy & Son and Rountree & Carr for defendant; J. A. Burriss against City of Wilmington, J. D. Bellamy & Son and Joseph W. Little for defendant and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and Bellamy & Bellamy for plaintiff; Murchison National Bank against Dunn Oil Mill, ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and Rountree & Carr for defendant and J. C. Clifford, Kellum & Loughlin and J. D. Bellamy & Son for the plaintiff.

The jurors drawn for the first week are: O. G. Coleman, J. C. Walton, M. F. Sellers, S. T. Pender, L. A. Cavil, W. M. Godwin, L. L. Whitney; J. C. Vereen, H. K. Holden, L. D. Bradshaw, W. L. Moore, R. C. Fergus, M. Marshburn, O. E. Todd, J. L. Lennon, T. G. Landen, E. S. Bannerman and W. H. Shew.

CHANNEL AROUND CAPE POINT.

Petition of Cape Fear Harbor and Capt. Brown's Reply.

In the last edition of the Master, Mate and Pilot, appears a reference to the petition of the Cape Fear Harbor, No. 81, to the War Department and the reply of Capt. Earl I. Brown, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., in regard to the channel around Cape Point, near Smith's Island, which Wilmington marine interests are making efforts to have surveyed and buoyed.

Capt. Brown thinks it impracticable giving as his reason that the channel is of a shifting and changeable nature and says that the survey would be useless. He further states that as the depth of water in the channel is variable, although its general position remains the same, such work could not be made practicable at any reasonable cost.

The Cape Fear Harbor in its petition contends that the channel has been used for years by tug boats and fishing steamers, and saves a distance of about 40 miles required to go around Frying Pan Shoals. It further states that the channel seldom changes and has a depth of from 11 to 12 feet at low water. With high water, rise of four feet, it states that a vessel could come through with safety if the slough was surveyed and buoyed out to mark the channel.

The matter will be taken up again at the next meeting of Cape Fear Harbor No. 81. Masters, Mates and Pilots and will be discussed with a purpose of making further efforts to have the slough surveyed.

MAJ. McKINNON HERE.

Robeson's Candidate for Congressional Honors on Business Trip.

Among the visitors to the city yesterday was Maj. A. J. McKinnon, of Maxton, Robeson county's candidate for Congressional honors. Maj. McKinnon was down on one of his periodical business trips, having large interests not only in his own county, but all through this section of Eastern Carolina. Maj. McKinnon, or "Sandy" McKinnon, as his friends affectionately like to call him, is conducting a clean, open, campaign for the honor to which he aspires and makes it plain in visiting other counties which have "favorite sons", that he is encroaching upon no other man's preserves. Of course, he is open to second choice in any of the counties which may later find it advisable to throw their strength elsewhere, but there are no gum-shoe methods about his dealing with the constituents of another candidate and this has made him many friends wherever he has gone. Maj. McKinnon is a fine type of the militant Democracy of the district and Robeson does herself credit in presenting to the district a man of the calibre of "Sandy" McKinnon.

Want Better Train Service.

Red Springs Citizen: "Another citizen's delegation, Dr. C. G. Vardell, Sapt. J. G. RESTORES PLEASING PLUMPNESS

Samose Sold Under J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. "No Cure No Pay" Plan.

There are a good many people in Wilmington who ardently wish they could find some way of getting fat and plump. While not ill, yet they are so thin and scrawny that their friends think they cannot be well. In nine cases out of ten this condition can be readily overcome by using the combination of flesh-forming foods known as Samose.

Before the discovery of Samose, people who were thin, weak and run down were advised to take some nauseous preparation, but now with this flesh-forming food in palatable form nothing at all disagreeable is necessary to gain weight.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. has the agency for this preparation and sells it with the promise that if it does not do all that is claimed for it in making people gain in weight and in health, the money will be refunded.

HANDSOME MEMORIAL WINDOW

The Latest Gift to St. Paul's Church, That From Mr. H. L. Vollers, Will be Set Apart to Service of God Today.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church has been wonderfully enriched in appearance during the past year by memorial windows presented to the congregation. Today the latest gift to the congregation will be set apart to the service of God. It is the gift of Mr. H. L. Vollers and is inscribed thus: "In loving memory to Father and Mother, Hanke and Anna Elizabeth Vollers. Soli Deo Gloria."

Beginning with Hoffman's "Christ in Gethsemane" the windows of the church follow a definite scheme. Plockhurst's "Good Shepherd" fills the baptistry, while the large transept windows on the east and west sides are filled with Mille's "Nativity" and Naack's "Ressurrection". The windows on the west, or Sixth street side, will doubtless be filled in the course of time by scenes from the ministry of Jesus, while the windows on the east side will depict scenes following the Resurrection.

The window of interest today is according to Hoffmann's famous painting, "The Twelve-Year-Old Christ in the Temple Among the Doctors". It is a fine exhibition of the wonders of modern skill and artistic ability. Like the other windows, it is of opalescent glass throughout, and the color scheme is in harmony with the soft, pleasing tones of the interior. Beautiful Gothic decorative work encloses the picture-part of the window and sets it out in bold relief.

Apart from the window itself the thought of remembering Mr. and Mrs. Hanke Vollers is very precious to the congregation, for the deceased were very closely identified with the beginning of St. Paul's and did much to organize and to strengthen the work of the congregation. St. Paul's before it was remodelled, was built according to a plan drawn by Mr. Hanke Vollers and the same gentleman was the secretary of the congregation for years. His records kept with much care and written most beautifully are in reality a history of the congregation.

BOARD OF AUDIT AND FINANCE.

Special Meeting Monday Night to Consider Budget—Tax Rate.

It is expected that the Board of Audit and Finance will meet Monday night in called session to consider the budget and tax ordinance for the next fiscal year recently passed upon by the Board of Aldermen. The Board of Audit and Finance, at its last meeting recommended to the Board of Aldermen, after careful consideration, that the tax rate for the ensuing year be reduced from $1.40 to $1.30 on the $100 valuation of property. The finance committee of the Board of Aldermen recommended that the rate be not changed and the recommendation was adopted by the aldermanic body. It is pointed out by one in close touch with the affairs of the city that a careful estimate of the city's revenue would indicate that while the budget for the ensuing year will probably exceed the income based on a $1.30 rate, it is a question for serious consideration whether it is the proper thing to levy only such tax as is absolutely necessary and gradually deminish the present reserve fund, instead of holding idle money in the treasury. It is probable that the city could maintain its present rate of expenditures for at least two years on a $1.30 rate and many think that it is not necessary to look any further forward than that at this time. Should the Board of Audit and Finance decline to concur with the Aldermen in fixing the rate at $1.40 the matter would then go back later to the board for further action.

BOND INCREASED TO $1,000.

James Johnson, Colored, Bound Over to Superior Court.

James Johnson, colored, who entered an apartment at The Carolina Friday at noon and stole a valuable gold watch, which was later recovered, was given preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock before Justice Bornemann, and was bound over to the July term of Superior Court. The bond was increased from $100 to $1,000 in default of which the negro went to jail.

Camping Outfit Burned.

Messrs. "Jack" Cowell, Henry Lietgen and their colored steward, returned yesterday morning from a fishing expedition of a few days on Town Creek. Although members of the party decline to talk for publication, their friends tell an interesting story of the loss of their camp outfit by fire night before last. Everything that they had was burned up, including sleeping arrangements and the catch of the two days they were out. Whether the loss in the latter instance was great, their friends decline to estimate.

MR. J. L. LENNON INJURED

Fell Distance of 16 Feet—Fell When Scaffold on Which he Was at Work Gave Way—Taken to Hospital—No Bones Broken.

Many friends of Mr. J. L. Lennon, acid maker for the Almont factory of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, will regret to learn of a serious though not necessarily fatal, accident which befel him about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon while making some repairs to a "lead" chamber at the plant. The scaffold upon which Mr. Lennon, who weighs probably more than 200 pounds, gave way, precipitating him to the floor, a distance of about 16 feet.

The accident occurred after the plant had closed for the day and Superintendent Crump and other employes, excepting one or two hands who staid around the plant practically all the time, had left the factory. Those in the building at the time rushed to Mr. Lennon's assistance and after ministering to him the best they could notified the office in this city. Superintendent Crump was then on his way to the city on the steamer Lilly. Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy was called over the telephone and when the steamer arrived the physician was at the boat, ready to return to Almont to attend Mr. Lennon, who was brought here immediately and taken to the James Walker Memorial Hospital. After a thorough examination it was stated that no bones were broken, but Mr. Lennon is badly bruised on the right side of his body and the right wrist is dislocated. It was stated that the physician was unable to determine last night whether or not Mr. Lennon received internal injuries. At best he will be confined to his bed for several weeks.

Mr. Lennon, who came about eight years ago with his family from Columbus county, lives at 715 North Third street, and has been one of the best and most competent men connected with the company and held in the highest esteem by all. He is a deacon in Brooklyn Baptist Church and is one of its most prominent and active members.

His many friends sincerely trust that his injuries will not prove as serious as they now appear and that he will be out again in a short time.

WHOLESALE GROCERS.

Mr. F. E. Hashagan, of Wilmington Elected Vice President.

Mr. F. E. Hashagen, of the F. E. Hashagen Co., wholesale grocers, has returned from Chattanooga, Tenn., and Louisville, Ky., where he attended the annual meetings of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association and the National Wholesale Grocers' Association, respectively. The Southern Association was re-organized under a non-profit bearing charter of Tennessee and this will make it a stronger rival of the National body. The new plan of organization will enable the association work to go on without involving individual members in responsibility. Thirteen States are embraced in the association with over 1,200 members. Mr. F. E. Hashagen was honored by the association by election to the office of second vice president. The other officers elected are: Prsident, J. H. McLaurin, Jacksonville, Fla.; first vice president, L. M. Hooper, Selma, Ala.; treasurer, C. W. Bartleson, Jacksonville, Fla. Mr. R. A. Morrow, of Monroe, N. C., was elected as a member of the advisory board. The next meeting of the association will be held in Charlotte and it is probable that Wilmington will make a bid for the 1912 meeting. After leaving Chattanooga Mr. Hashagen went to Louisville, Ky., where he took a prominent part in sessions of the National Association.

BIG BAND BENEFIT.

Minstrel Performance at Academy of Music Tomorrow Night.

A minstrel performance will be given in the Academy of Music tomorrow night for the benefit of the band recently organized under the direction of Mr. Chas. W. Hollowbush. Forty of the most talented young men of the city will take part and the entertainment promises to be the biggest, brightest and best of the kind yet given by local talent. The first part is entitled "The Court of the Red Hussars," and costumes have been received especially for the performance. There are 30 vocalists, ten funny end men and an orchestra of ten men. The songs are new and the jokes up to date. The general admission is 50 cents with 25 cents additional for reserved seats. The performers should be greeted by a packed house. The attendance will show in a large measure how bad the people of Wilmington want a band.

Mr. B. F. Rathjen Here.

Mr. B. F. Rathjen, who has been on a visit to his parents, ex-Alderman and Mrs. Martin Rathjen, of this city, for the past week and who is now connected with the Hotel Rockingham, of Reidsville, N. C., returned yesterday morning, accompanied by his mother, who will be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Norman, who are proprietors of the hotel for a week or longer. Mr. Rathjen, his friends will be delighted to know, is succeeding well in his new home and is well pleased with his new home and surroundings in one of the best towns in North Carolina. Mr. Rathjen hoped to have his father with him also, for a visit to Reidsville, but Mr. Rathjen found it impossible to be away from home just now.

Boys' Brigade Excursion.

The annual excursion of the Boys' Brigade will be run to Carolina Beach on the 7th of June, and an interesting day has been planned. The outing this year will be made especially interesting for all who go and the steamer Wilmington will make three trips to the Beach at 9 A. M., 2:30 and 7:45 P. M. The public is invited and a number of entertaining features are being arranged by the Brigade.

Don't forget to make a deposit in the Wilmington Savings and Trust Co. Money deposited between now and June 2nd will draw a full quarter's interest on September 1st. — ma 28-5t

CLOSING OF CITY SCHOOLS

Full Programme for All the Schools Announced Yesterday Morning by Superintendent J. J. Blair.

An event of great local interest this week is the closing of the city schools for the present year and the latter part of the week promises to be one of much activity for the pupils, teachers, patrons and friends of the institutions, for both white and colored. The programme of exercises for all the schools was announced yesterday morning by Mr. John J. Blair, the superintendent. The following is the way exercises are given on the programme:

Peabody School—Wednesday, June 1st, 9:30 to 12 o'clock, Parents' visitation day and exhibition of work; Thursday, June 2nd, 11 A. M., closing exercises and presenting of certificates.

Williston—Wednesday, June 1st, 10 to 12 o'clock, Primary class exercises; Parents' visitation and exhibition of work; Wednesday, 8 P. M., closing exercises and presenting of certificates.

Hemenway—Wednesday, June 1st, 9 A. M., reading of honor roll; Thursday, June 2nd, 9 to 12 o'clock, parents' visitation day and exhibition of work; Friday, June 3rd, 9 A. M., Class Day Exercises and presenting certificates of promotion to the High School.

Union—Tuesday, May 31st, 9 A. M., Reading honor roll; Thursday, June 2nd, 9 to 12 o'clock, parents' visitation day and exhibition of work; Friday, June 3rd, 11 A. M., Class Day Exercises and presenting certificates of promotion to the High School.

High School—Thursday, June 2nd, 5:30 P. M., Class Day Exercises on High School Campus; Friday, June 3rd, 8:30 P. M., Graduating exercises, class of 1910, Academy of Music. Address by Hon. T. W. Bickett. Presentation of diplomas and Amy Morris Bradley Scholarship medal.

MR. L. B. ROGERS HONORED.

Elected Director of Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association.

Mr. L. B. Rogers returned to the city yesterday after an absence of about two weeks. Mr. Rogers first attended a meeting in New Orleans of the National Credit Men's Association, and went from there to Louisville, Ky., where he attended the annual meeting of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association. Mr. Rogers is president of the Wilmington Credit Men's Association formed a few weeks ago and at the New Orleans convention he gained many points that will be of value to the local association. For years he has been prominent in the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association and at the recent meeting was elected a director for North Carolina.

INCREASE IN DIVIDENDS.

Checks Mailed to Stockholders of Two Prosperous Banks.

Checks were mailed yesterday to stockholders of the Southern National Bank and the Atlantic Trust & Banking Company, of which institutions Mr. Chas. N. Evans is president, covering the amount of the semi-annual dividends. At a meeting a few days ago the directors of the Southern National declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent. Heretofore the semi-annual dividend has been 4 per cent. Heretofore the Atlantic Trust & Banking Co., paid a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent. with a special dividend of 5 per cent., making a total dividend for the year of 11 per cent. The directors at a recent meeting declared a 6 per cent. semi-annual dividend.

COMING TO WILMINGTON.

Durham Baptist Sunday School Will Run Excursion Here.

One of the first Sunday School excursions of the season to Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach will be the Second Baptist Church, of Durham, on the 14th of June.

The Durham Sun of the 28th says: "The Second Baptist Sunday School will run their annual excursion this year to Wilmington, N. C., and the time is Tuesday, June 14th. This place and date was definitely decided at a meeting held a few days ago. The Sunday school runs an excursion every year and it is an important event with the members. The rate and other particulars have not yet been arranged."

Sailor Forced Aboard Vessel.

G. Olsen, a sailor, who recently completed a term on the county roads for taking part in a disturbance creat at the Champion Compress by attaches of the revenue cutter Seminole, signed Friday with the steamer Brantingham. He made his escape from the vessel yesterday morning and was arrested by Patrolman Applebury and taken to police headquarters, where he was detained for some time. He was later escorted to the vessel by Captain Bob Green, and after arriving at the wharf he vowed that he would not go aboard. Captain Green had to use his club, after which the unruly one went aboard without further opposition.

Two Trips to Southport.

Beginning her regular Summer Sunday schedule today, the steamer Wilmington will make two trips to Southport, stopping at Carolina Beach, going and coming. The Star was in error yesterday in stating that the steamer would make only one trip to Southport. The boat leaves the city at 9:15 A. M. and at 2:30 P. M., returning to the city on the last trip at 7 o'clock. Fare for either round trip is only 25 cents, and a large crowd will take in the trip.

With Cotton for Bremen.

The British steamer Brantingham, Capt. Eastwood, sailed yesterday for Bremen, Germany, with cargo of 8,965 bales of cotton, valued at $675,000. This is probably the last steamer for cotton from this port during the Summer. The vessel and cargo are by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son.

Deposits made with the Wilmington Savings and Trust Company between now and June 2nd will draw a full quarter's interest on September 1st. ma 28-5t.

STATE NURSES' ASSOCIATION.

Eighth Annual Meeting Will be Held in Asheville in June.

The eighth annual meeting of the North Carolina Nurses' State Association will be held at Battery Park Hotel, Asheville, N. C., Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, June 8th, 9th and 10th. It is expected a number of local graduate nurses will attend the meeting. The association met at Wrightsville Beach last Summer and was largely attended by nurses from all parts of the State. Ample accommodations may be had at Battery Park Hotel and special rates are offered to the nurses. Rooms should be engaged early if possible. Nurses may write to either Battery Park or Swannanoa Hotel for rates. All graduate nurses who are interested are invited to attend the meeting. Miss Constance E. Pfohl, of Winston-Salem, is president and Miss Mary Sheetz, of Winston-Salem, is secretary of the association.

INTEREST IN VITICULTURE.

Growing of Grapes in Eastern Carolina Being Made Interesting Study.

That the United States Department of Agriculture is making a comprehensive and exhaustive study of the possibilities of grape growing in Eastern Carolina is attested by the arrival in the city yesterday of Mr. C. T. Dearing, viticulturist of the Department, who has been to Willard, N. C., where the United States in connection with the State Department has a test farm of some 20 acres being used experimentally in improving the growing of the scuppernong or muscadine variety of grape. Mr. Dearing says there are millions of acres of land in this State well adapted to this culture and he has reasons to expect much from the tests in breeding, etc., at the Willard farm. While in the city Mr. Dearing was a guest of Mr. Isadore Bear, the well known manufacturer of native wines in Wilmington.

STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY.

Arrangements Being Made for Meeting at Wrightsville Beach in June.

The various committees of the New Hanover County Medical Society are busy making arrangements for the 57th annual meeting of the North Carolina Medical Society which will be held at Wrightsville Beach June 21st, 22nd and 23rd, and announcement of the features of the entertainment will be made within a few days. It is expected that the meeting will be largely attended. Dr. E. J. Wood, of this city, is president and will preside over the sessions of the society. The other officers are: Vice president, Dr. J. Q. Myers, Charlotte; second vice president, Dr. L. D. Wharton, of Smithfield; secretary, Dr. D. A. Stanton, of High Point; treasurer, Dr. H. D. Walker. The programme which has been arranged provides for a large number of papers of interest to the medical men.

Mill Installs New Machinery.

Mr. David H. Hazlette, who has been with the Jacksonville Lumber Company, at Jacksonville, Onslow county, came to Wilmington yesterday and will leave today for Fayetteville, where he will install a band saw mill for the Russell Lumber Company. The Company will replace its former plant with new machinery and the mill will be one of the most modern of its kind. It will have a cutting capacity of 25,000 feet of lumber a day. Mr. Hazlette, who was lately a resident of Wilmington, has many friends here. He will remain at Fayetteville for some time.

Free Sample Digests What Stomach Couldn't

When a person finds himself suffering from chronic indigestion, there is just one of two things to do: Discontinue the use of food almost entirely or obtain something that will digest the food for you until your stomach muscles are in working order again.

It is possible to obtain a remedy that will digest food even when the stomach can't, and we can obtain the word of many reputable people to prove it. Since indigestion is usually complicated with constipation and liver trouble it is necessary to get a remedy that has laxative as well as digestive properties, and which at the same time contains ingredients that will tone and strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles. Such a remedy, according to the testimony of people for a quarter of a century, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, as it comes in both sizes. But if you are one who has never used this grand remedy, and you would like to make a test of it before buying of your druggist, then send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and he will gladly send you a free sample bottle for trial. In this way thousands of people have been brought to use it.

You cannot obtain a better or more reliable remedy for general family use as it is very curative in constipation of the most stubborn kind, in indigestion, liver trouble, sour stomach, sick headache and other troubles caused by disorders of the stomach, liver or bowels. Thousands of families like that of Mr. Frank Connor of 108 State street, Madison, Wis., and Mrs. Virginia Cuningham of Weir, Miss., no longer use the ordinary "dyspepsia cures" for indigestion, nor cathartic pills or salts for constipation, but they get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is truer and more genuine, milder and more pleasant, and yet thoroughly effective. Try it and see the good results you will obtain.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R.525 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH.

(An Ode)
(From the Boston Transcript.)

England, bend low 'bove thine exalted dead;
A mighty messenger of Peace has passed
Thy royal guarded gates, and through them led,
With his unsandaled feet, thy kingly king—
He went forth with the panoply of spring
Blazoning around him, not to martial sound
Of bugle or of drum, but wrapt in hush profound,
In the magnificence of death laid down
Sceptre and crown
For a new dwelling in a new domain,
In a diviner realm to reign.
What gifts hadst thou, O England to compare,
No measured country his to share,
But the illimitable sweeps afar,
Reached star by star,
Where the Eternals are:—
O England, bid thy nightingales sing low,
Sing low, sing low, thy king asleep,
And bid the winds that o'er hawthorn blow
No more the harps of spring to wake
But into requiems of silence go,
Vast as eternal woe,
Vaster than those that slay thine air and thy whole kingdom shake.

Nation made desolate,
Thy lamentations fill the air,
But what of her, drowned in supreme despair,
Thy Queen?
How shalt thou even dare
To seek to gauge the gulf of thy regret
While she, with bleeding pangs unguessed,
Sits sword to hilt plunged in her breast?
Lend her thy iron strength on which to lean,
Pay to the king who ruled so well thy debt.
Weep not O England, for thyself, but for thy Queen, thy Queen.

England bend low; thy King sleeps well
With all life's honors and perplexments done,
He sleeps, as in a spell;
So let him sleep who has outsoared the sun;
So let him sleep in his transcendant rest,
Who has met, breast to breast,
The Everlasting One;
And wearing His insignia, why
Ah why for him put sackcloth on?
He plucked the flower of immortality
And went forth with the panoply of spring
Blazoning around him, yea, went forth, and won
A rank that only death could bring
Sublimer than of king—and so—sleeps well.
O England, lift again thy mighty head,
Be comforted—
The king sleeps well, sleeps well—why weep?
Let the king sleep.

REV. C. F. WHITLOCK RETURNS.

Successful Revival Meeting Just Closed at Southport.

Rev. C. F. Whitlock, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist Church, has returned from Southport, where he assisted in a revival at the Southport Baptist Church. There were about 25 professions of faith and 15 accessions to the church during the series of meetings. Rev. J. O. Fulbright is the pastor and is doing a fine work. He is very popular with his congregation and the people of Southport generally.

Mr. Whitlock will now be in his pulpit regularly at Brooklyn Baptist Church. He will give to his people at this morning's service some of the best things of the Southern Baptist Convention, held recently in Baltimore, and tonight he will preach on "God's Calls of Love". Good singing and special music will be a feature of these services.

The first Sunday in June Mr. Whitlock will begin two series of special sermons, one of these being on the principles held by Baptists. These sermons will be preached at 11 o'clock Sunday mornings. They will be inoffensive, but will enable all who hear them to know for what Baptists stand. The evening sermons will be addressed especially to young men and will be of interest to all young people. The first of these will be upon the topic, "The Young Man and Home"; the second, "The Young Man Wandering From Home"; the third, "The Young Man Overcome by Sin"; the fourth, "The Young Man Coming to Himself"; the fifth, "The Young Man Returning Home"; the sixth, "His Reception and Reward at Home". All these will be based on the parable of the Prodigal Son and will be presented in an interesting, new and practical way. Young men are especially invited to hear them.

Closing Exercises of School.

Friday afternoon at No. 409 North Fourth street the closing exercises of Miss Nellie Pickard's Kindergarten were held and the very interesting programme rendered showed that they had very careful training and painstaking preparation. A number of visitors were present and greatly enjoyed the exercises, following which the little folks were delightfully entertained by their teacher.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The boys of the city over 14 years old are cordially invited to attend the meeting for boys at the Y. M. C. A. at 10 o'clock this morning. The address will be delivered by Mr. Gilbert H. Foard.

—"The Wayside Shrine", is the subject of the feature picture of the bill at the Bijou tomorrow. It is a French costume story of deep heart interest and is pictured amidst outdoor scenes of marvelous beauty.

—There was nothing doing in the Recorder's court yesterday. Two sailors, John C. Gardner and John Woodruff, arrested Friday night for an affray, were not present, having sailed during the morning, and their bonds of $10 each were declared forfeited.

"WINDOWPHANIE."

Wilmington People May Obtain Transparent Art Glass Decorations.

Mr. T. E. West arrived in the city yesterday and may be found at the store of Platt & Haar, on North Front street, where he will take pleasure in explaining to the people of Wilmingtin a proposition that will interest them. Mr. West is a representative of the company that manufactures "Windowphanie," a preparation that enables him to transform the ordinary window light to a modern transparent art glass decoration, which shuts out any undesirable view, and unlike curtains, admits the light in pleasant hues. On the second floor of the Platt & Haar store may be found a large assortment of designs, to suit any taste, and Mr. West will take pleasure in showing them to any who may call. The work has to be seen to be appreciated. This work has been done in Europe for 40 years or more and is old in the North, but it is just being introduced in the South.

ANNUAL EXCURSION MONDAY.

Steamer Wilmington Will Make Three Trips to Carolina Beach.

Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association, No. 71, will conduct its annual excursion to Carolina Beach tomorrow and the indications are that the steamer Wilmington will be crowded on each of the three trips. The first boat leaves Market street wharf at 9:30 A. M., the second at 2:30 P. M. and the third at 7:30 P. M. Returning the last boat will leave the beach pier at 10:30 P. M. The committee in charge is composed of Messrs. J. W. Frederick, J. J. Bell and S. C. Bunn. The fare for the round trip will be only 25 cents. A royal good time is promised to all.

MR. J. F. WHITAKER BEREAVED.

His Brother, Mr. W. B. Whitaker, Passes Away in Georgia.

The numerous friends of Mr. J. Fletcher Whitaker, of this city, will sympathize with him over the death of his brother, Mr. W. B. Whitaker, who died at Elberton, Ga., on Thursday evening, May 26th. The deceased was a native of Enfield, N. C., and was a son of Dr. B. F. Whitaker. He leaves a wife and one child and three brothers and sisters. He was 40 years old and for many years has been a traveling salesman for the Parke Davis Company, of Detroit, Mich. His North Carolina relatives and friends are deeply grieved at his untimely death.

STUART RECEIVS TRUNKS.

Released by Custom Officials—Makes a Statement.

New York, May 28.—Henry C. Stuart, of Elk Garden, Va., nephew of Gen. "Jeb" Stuart, the Confederate leader and a candidate for Congress on the Democratic ticket today received his trunks which were seized yesterday on the arrival of the Stuart family from Europe on the Mauretania. Mr. Stuart paid $1,490 to get the trunks, that amount of duty having been levied on goods not contained in his declaration of dutiable objects, which were assessed by the appraisers at $3,010. The goods consisted of gowns, a seal skin sack, belts of dress goods and a miscellaneous collection of goods of foreign manufacture.

Mrs. Stuart has been abroad for two years with her daughter, maid and a governess. Mr. Stuart went to Paris in March to bring them back. That he failed to declare dutiable goods was due to the fact that he was not aware of a recent ruling of the Treasury Department. Before he left Paris, Mr. Stuart obtained from the American consulate a copy of the ruling issued by the Treasury Department governing the admission of personal possessions of the traveler. It stated that persons who had been abroad for two years might declare themselves nonresidents and would not be obliged to pay duty on their belongings. He was in ignorance of the fact that the ruling had been superceded by one made last March by Secretary McVeagh, which abolishes the two year limit.

"I had no notice of any change in the ruling until I reached New York," said Mr. Stuart. "When I was informed that Mrs. Stuart's property was dutiable it was impossible on the spur of the moment to make out an itemized declaration of goods purchased during the two years and I requested that they should be appraised. We have had no disagreement with the custom officials and in fact some of the higher officers have stated to me that the literature of the department for circulation has not been kept abreast of the ruling."

Mr. Stuart said he would start for Richmond as soon as Mrs. Stuart, who has been ill for more than a year, had recovered sufficiently from the fatigue of the voyage, probably early next week.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON MARKET.

New Orleans, May 28.—The cotton market this week showed a net loss of 21 to 34 points on the old crop months and a net loss of 17 to 19 points on the new crops. Bears were more aggressive than the bulls and with the aid of favorable weather in the cotton country they were able to sway the market their way, after a rather strong opening, based on too much rain.

The high prices of the week were made on Monday when the more active months were 6 to 15 points higher than last week's closing.

The lowest prices were made on Friday when the old crops were 49 to 56 points under last week's closing and the new crops were 25 to 28 under. On Saturday there was a small recovery on the forecast of rain in the southwest, and unfavorable crop reports.

The bears were helped in the campaign by considerable liquidation from the long side especially in July and August. This selling was induced by rumors that the big western interests in cotton had abandoned their positions in July. Weakness in the wheat market was pointed to as confirming this story. The week closed with as much uncertainty as ever expressed over the situation in the summer months.

Business was curtailed to some extent by the nearness of the bureau reports on acreage and conditions. These reports will be dated May 25 and will be issued June 2. Not a few traders were disposed to shorten their lines of the week and because of these reports. At no time did belief in the bullishness or bearishness of these reports crystalize sufficiently to sway prices much either way.

The visible supply of American cotton fell below the 2,000,000 bales mark being put by Hester at 1,965,000 bales, but the bullishness of these figures was lost sight of in rather small spinners takings.

In the spot market prices lost one-sixteenth, middling closing at 14 15-16 against 15 cents last week and 11 cents this week last year. Sales on the spot amounted to 1,865 bales against 2,725 last week and 3,150 this week last year; sales to arrive totaled 1,650 bales against 1,473 last week and 2,075 this week last year.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, May 28.—American wash fabrics were reduced to 5 1-2 cents from 6 cents during the day to take effect at once. Columbia prints remain unchanged at 5 1-4 cents. The market was quiet for the day owing to the very general closing of the wholesale houses for the holiday. Linens are quiet and steady, burlaps dull.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, May 28.—The lowest prices of the season were made in wheat today. Seemingly, the cereal most of the time did not have a single friend in the pit. A little group of tail enders gave up the fight for the May option and sold out in driblets all the way down to 90, a drop of 6 1-4 points from last night's figures. Because of poor buying support, new crop futures finished off 5-8 to 1 1-8 to 1 1-4. Corn closed 1-2 to 1 7-8 off and oats 1 to 1 5-8. Last quotations for provisions were unchanged to 27 1-2 lower.

HENRY CLEWS & CO.

Review of The Stock Market and General Financial Situation.

New York, May 27.—Efforts to lift the stock market have thus far met with only occasional success, and arguments in favor of higher prices fail to enlist the desired attention of buyers. Whether this is because of a suspicion that the big men have been encouraging a rise for the purpose of ridding themselves of surplus stocks, or else making a market for pending new issues; or whether it is due to otther and as yet unrecognized tendencies remains to be seen. Compared with the high prices of last year, good stocks certainly look cheap, and yet there are some unpleasant features developing, the outcome of which must be awaited with patience. Possibly the power to absorb stocks has been temporarily impaired by recent heavy issues, or else investors may be holding back for better terms. In the latter attitude they are meeting with no little encouragement. Philadelphia could not place a loan at 4 per cent., but might have succeeded at 4 1-4 per cent., the Pennsylvania Railroad having no difficulty in disposing of a considerable issue on a 4 1-2 per cent. basis. Chicago has just been obliged to pay 4 1-2 per cent for a new loan. At last the unprecedented demands upon capital are beginning to have their effect. There are signs of a temporary exhaustion of buying power, and those who have money to invest are naturally demanding better returns. The delay in announcing the issue of bonds abroad has also exerted a discouraging effect; it now being several weeks since rumors were current that Europe was about to buy $200,000,000 while little more than $100,000,000 have only thus far been taken. European buyers also appear to be insisting upon better terms. Needless to say such conditions in the investment market are not favorable to higher prices for stocks.

The monetary situation is also problematical, the present ease being largely superficial. Interior banks have been contracting their loans when possible and sending funds to New York, the result being an ample supply here of call money. Bankers are wisely keeping their funds well in hand. The Western situation is attracting much attention, because of the considerable over-expansion of loans by Western institutions, frequently on collateral of questioned stability. There has been a great land boom all through the West, in which State and National banks and other financial institutions have had much to do in financing. While there has been an unquestioned and healthy rise in land values, still excess has broken out in many places, and there is danger of reaction. With so large an amount of funds locked up in such operations, the Western banks will be less able to take care of the crops next fall than usual. This means firm rates for money when the crop movement begins, and New York may be called upon for assistance to a larger extent than for several years. Little aid can be obtained from the Treasury in event of a pinch; for Government funds are at a low ebb, and the borrowing capacity of the Treasury is also crippled, while there is no prospect of any thorough currency legislation during the present session of Congress. The monetary movement therefore is one which will require close watching and skillful piloting during the next two or three months.

Our railroad situation is also not without its embarrassing features. Gross earnings, it is true, exhibit handsome increases, but net returns do not show corresponding gains, and in many cases they are showing actual losses. The latter may become still more apparent when the recent advances in wages begin to show their effect. The railroads had hoped to recoup themselves by an advance in rates. To a limited extent they have succeeded; but all further efforts to advance rates are sure to meet with very strenuous opposition on the part of shippers; and in the present hostile attitude of public opinion, the chances of the railroads being able to compensate themselves for recent increased outlays is not at all brilliant. The fate of the Taft Railroad bill is also a matter of much importance. That measure is now in very drastic form, and though it cannot pass in its present shape the uncertainty is discouraging to the large financial interests, and Europe, it must be remembered, is much influenced by the attitude of Congress towards the railroads.

General business is quiet; some lines, particularly in the textile branches, being extremely dull. A slightly better tone is observable in the metal industries, and more activity is being shown in the iron trade, although the Steel Corporation is only running at about 70 per cent. of its full capacity. Crops are making fair progress, the weather in the past few weeks having been more favorable. As stated in previous advices, good crops are more vital to a continuance of good business than any other single factor, and this year it is especially important that the country have a good harvest. Our foreign trade continues to show a deficiency in exports, but the recent downward tendency of commodities in general should tend to restrain imports and stimulate exports, thus restoring the much desired equilibrium in our foreign trade. The decline in wheat is an especially favorable incident. Fortunately, Europe is in a much easier financial position than expected, lessening the probabilities of a further drain upon our gold supply, which would be very unwelcome under existing circumstances. The favorable features in the market are these: Satisfactory crop progress, easy money until crop requirements begin, and approaching adjournment of Congress. It may be that the market leaders will be able to utilize these conditions as a basis for forcing a higher market. Upon all good rallies, however, we should advise profit taking until intrinsic conditions improve.

QUICKSAND.

How It Is Formed and Its Grewsome Characteristics.

To most persons the word "quicksand" gives a sensation of horror similar to that produced by the thought of a snake, and many sensational accounts have given to quicksand almost human attributes. No ordinary observer would be able to distinguish dry quicksand from any other sand, and the average person would be unable to restore it to its "quick" properties even if he tried. If water is mixed with the quicksand the mass does not become mobile, and if the water is drained off the sand will be found firmly packed.

Quicksand is comparatively very light, weighing about ninety-four pounds to the cubic foot, while other forms of sand run as high as 171 pounds. Quicksand when examined under the microscope will be found to have rounded corners, like river sand, as distinguished from "sharp" sand. It is quicksand that is used in hourglasses and egg glasses, partly because of its fineness and partly because it does not eventually cloud the glass by scratching, as would the sharp sand. It is to its lightness that quicksand owes its deadly qualities, and a demonstration of how it becomes "quick" may be given by placing a quantity in a bucket and adding water by pressure through a hole in the bottom, allowing the water to overflow very slowly when it has worked up through the sand. The upward current will be found to loosen the sand and to raise the surface very slightly, separating and lubricating the particles so that they are easily displaced.

The bucket now contains genuine quicksand. The sand, owing to the support it receives from the water, has its weight, or supporting power, reduced proportionately, weighing in the water but thirty-two and a half pounds as against ninety-four pounds when dry. Bulk for bulk, the mixture is nearly twice the weight of a man, but is too mobile to give support and too thick to swim in. In its natural state, presenting an apparently firm surface, resembling simply damp sand, it is the most deadly man trap conceivable.

Quicksand requires in all cases an upward current which is not quick or strong enough to break through in the form of a spring. Ordinarily water flowing over quicksand will not make it dangerous. It may be formed in tidal rivers and on the shores of tidal seas by the rising tide saturating a porous stratum of ground below high water mark, and when the tide falls a return current is established through the porous (sandy) ground with a sufficient velocity to loosen the sand and make it "quick."

A permanent quicksand is found where a slow current of fresh water finds its way to the surface of the sand bed either in the bottom of a stream or elsewhere. Quicksands that are encountered during the sinking of walls and foundations are due to the influx of water when the work gets below "spring level" or the level of the water in the ground at that particular spot. The sand, being deprived of the lateral support of the water in the excavation, is pushed in from behind by the water currents flowing from all sides.

One of the most peculiar and grewsome characteristics of quicksand is that it will soon engulf any object cast upon its surface, no matter how light that object may be, even a perfectly dry stick.—Harper's Weekly.

How He Helped the Blind.

"Please help a blind man," said a fellow with green goggles as he held a tin cup toward the line of people issuing from the Union depot. "I always help the blind," said one of two young men who were passing, and he stopped and took out a five dollar bill. "Can you get a quarter out of this?" "I guess so," said the blind man, fishing out a handful of change and counting out $4.75. "Well, John," said the benevolent young man's companion as they walked on, "you're a bigger fool than I took you to be." "Am I?" said John. "Yes, you are. That fellow's no more blind than I am. How could he tell that was a five dollar bill?" "Blamed if I know," said John innocently, "but he must be mighty near sighted not to see that it was a counterfeit."—Chicago News.

Settled the Difficulty.

An insurance agent had vainly tried to persuade a man to insure his valuables against burglary. "A safe's all very well," he admitted, "but look at the constant trouble of locking up and unlocking to see if your things are all right."

"I've got over that difficulty," declared the weary listener.

"Indeed!" said the agent incredulously. "How?"

"I've had a window put in the safe," growled the other.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Clothing Sale

I have decided to sell my stock of clothing at great reduced prices. We handle several noted brands that are sold to men and boys, and among them we sell Adler's Rochester Clothing for men, we will sell the $27.50 value in new up-to-date goods for men for $17.50. The $20.00 value for $14.00 and other styles in proportion. The Adler Rochester Bros. suits are the height of perfection in style, fit and material. They wear and look well twice as long as an ordinary suit. These suit never swag or wrinkle in the front or break in any way. I am selling this grade of clothing at this price more to introduce them than anything else.

We have on hand about 100 men's all wool cashimer suits, the prices of these suits have been greatly reduced. We are selling our $9.00 suits for $4.98, Men's Fancy Worsted $10.00 suits for $6.38 and other suits in proportion to these.

A Special Sale on Men's Pants. We are selling our $1.50 pants for 86 cents special. Our $2.00 pants for $1.08. In Men's pants we sell quite a large variety, and we have as nice assortment as you can find anywhere and prices below competition.

We are selling boys' suits as low as 58 cents. A real nice Wash suit for 68 cents each. A nice high grade worsted Suit for $2.56.

UNDERWEAR

Men's and Boys' nansook underwear for 23 cents each. A fine line of men's silk finish balbriggan underwear made of lisle thread $1.00 quality at 50 cents each, just half price. Ladies' undervests full sizes 5 cents each. In our Big Clothing Store we have made up our mind to cut the prices and unload the goods in season, as it is now in the Spring of the year when the people are buying clothing and I want to move mine.

Remember This

We are offering you seasonable clothing at out of the season prices. Come and see the goods and judge for yourselves whether they are rich values and great bargains. To buy the clothing at half price is a big saving to you, to sell at that price means a big loss to me. I make this offer to help you out as well as myself. Come to Gaylord's Clothing Sale as we have everything in the Clothing Department.

CARRIERS AND ROADS.

Big Rally Planned Monday at Rocky Mount—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, May 28.—On Monday at the Falls grove, beyond the river, at North Rocky Mount, the Rural Letter Carriers will hold their annual meeting, which will this year be in the form of a good roads rally for the two counties of Nash and Edgecombe. A number of persons prominent in both the local and State good roads movement will be in attendance and there is every indication of the success of the affair and the taking of another step forward in the work of securing this, one of the greatest evidences of a prosperous community.

The exercises start at 10 A. M. and will conclude in time for dinner. A barbecue will be given by the local letter carriers and no stone will be left unturned by them for the success of the meeting. The programme includes the following:

Address of Welcome, by Hon. T. T. Thorne, mayor of Rocky Mount.

Response, by Hon. L. V. Bassett, State Senator from Edgecombe.

"The advantage of the rural free delivery as it applies to the uplift of the rural communities." by Hon. F. A. Hampton, editor of Twin County Echo, Rocky Mount.

Good Roads address, by Mr. M. W. Lincke, editor of Nashville Graphic.

"Road building and how roads might be improved," by Joseph Hyde Pratt, State Geologist.

In addition to the above there will be several local speakers while the Rocky Mount Cornet Band, of 20 pieces will play for the occasion.

After some little uneasiness by her parents in Savannah and relations here, and a wiring for a major part of yesterday, it was late yesterday afternoon learned that Miss Helen Hocaday, of Savannah, Ga., who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Carrie Barrett, for the past two weeks, and who left on Wednesday night supposedly for Savannah, was married on Thursday in Charleston, S. C., to Mr. J. H. Barrett, a hotel man of New York City. The couple are now at the Dresden Hotel in New York, this being the hotel firm with which Mr. Barrett is allied.

The news of the marriage came as an entire surprise to relatives and friends here, and Miss Hocaday had just concluded a two weeks visit to this city during which time many social functions had been tendered in her favor. Upon the failure of her arrival in Savannah, Ga., on Thursday afternoon her parents became uneasy, and after learning that she had left this city the wiring began, and she was finally located in New York City yesterday afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. J. B. Hocaday, general manager of the Southern Express Co. The groom is a Southern boy who has attained success in the metropolis.

V. P. I. BOARD NAMED

Appointed By Governor Mann—As to Barringer.

Richmond, Va., May 28.—The governor today appointed to succeed retiring members of Board of Visitors of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Major Micajah Woods, of Charlottesville; col. A. M. Bowman, of Salem, and B. F. Kirkpatrick, of Lynchburg. The only present members to be reappointed is Peyton F. St. Clair, of Gues county.

In view of the recent investigation of President Barringer, of the institute, and the rulings of the board on that occasion, the probable attitude of the new members toward Dr. Barringer is a matter of much interest. The three retiring visitors all voted to sustain Dr. Barringer, as did Mr. St. Clair. It is stated that Col. Bowman is the only new appointee who has seriously criticised the president's official actions.

vective and epithet in an attack upon Medill McCormick personally.

Senator Lorimer went with increasing vehemence to assert that the Chicago paper "lied and knew it lied" in charging that money was used to purchase his election.

He declared that by subserviency he could at any time have made his peace with the newspaper.

Senator Lorimer declared that "all of the power of the city, county, State and Federal administrations, under the leadership of Senator Hopkins, Governor Deneen and Mayor Busse, assembled into a misfit organization combined to destroy the organization controlled by Lorimer, with intent to give control to the Tribune. He asserted that the Governor personally advised in the preparation of the White story in the Tribune. He went on to say:

"The Governor joined this campaign of slander because he saw an opportunity to throw dust in the eyes of the people, used the conspiracy to defeat those who stood for Federal co-operation in expending the $20,000,000 and secure control of the next Legislature."

Concluding, Mr. Lorimer asserted that The Tribune had dogged him all these years because it had not been able to lash him into subjection.

"The purpose of these charges", he declared, "was to disgrace and destroy my friends and myself, whom they cannot control and come into absolute control of the Republican party in Illinois and secure themselves in continued plundering of the public treasury."

Governor Deneen's Statement.

Springfield, Ill., May 28.—Governor Deneen today issued a statement in reference to the speech in the United States Senate in which he was attacked by Senator Lorimer.

"While the reports of Senator Lorimer's speech obtained by me today have been meagre, I understand he charges that I have entered into a conspiracy with the Chicago Tribune to have published the confession of Representative White.

"This charge is without any foundation of fact. The facts are as follows:

"About midnight of the day before the story was published, a reporter of the Chicago Tribune met me at the Union League Club and informed me that he had been waiting two hours to see me; that the editor of The Tribune was exceedingly anxious to interview me about a matter of great importance and that they would have to go to press within a few minutes. Accordingly I went to The Tribune office nearby.

"A statement was there made to me of Mr. White's confession and an interview was requested. A brief interview was given by me in which I stated in substance that a full examination should be made of the assertions contained in the confession. I expressed no opinion regarding the truth of the charges.

"Mr. White's confession was in type and was on the press when I arrived at The Tribune office. This was the first intimation I received that Mr. White had confessed or was in any way implicated in charges of bribery.

"While I am surprised at the character of the statements made by Senator Lorimer, I am at a loss to know what possible relation they bear now to the charge under investigation—that his election to the United States Senate was procured by means of bribery."

WATTERSON SPOKE AT PRESS DINNER

Chief of Police, the reporter a semi-professional detective. The newspaper, with the law, should assume the accused innocent until proven guilty; should be the friend, not the enemy, of the general public; the defender, not the invader, of private life and the assailant of personal character.

"The newspaper is not a commodity to be sold over the counter like dry goods and groceries. It should be, as it were, a keeper of the public conscience, its rating professional, like the ministry and the law, not commercial, like the department store and the bucket shop. Its workers should be gentlemen, not eavesdroppers and scavengers, developing a spy system peculiarly their own, nor caring for the popular respect and esteem.

"I know that it is the fashion to call such sentiments old timey just as it is the custom to call old men courtly who are not actually vulgar and slovenly. Self-respect can never grow obsolete and self-respect is the bed-rock of the public respect. There will be shyster journalists as there are shyster lawyers, unworthy newspaper men as there are unworthy clergymen. But, in each calling, the rule is bound to be otherwise, and they who seek the imprint of the higher, instead of the lower brand, will be sure to find it. In short, my dear young friends, I stand for the manhood, for the gentlemanhood, of our guild, a profession and not a trade, and I believe that, in the long run, the owners of newspaper properties will learn that integrity and cleanliness pay the best dividends and that good faith and good humor are positive assets.

"I hope there is no one of you here tonight who will not be one day a managing editor, at least, a city editor, and whenever any one of you finds himself in a position of authority, let him carry these few precepts in his mind and in his heart; to print nothing of a man which he would not say to his face; to print nothing of a man in malice; to look well and think twice before consigning a suspect to the ruin of printer's ink; to respect the old and defend the weak; and lastly, at work and at play, day-time and night-time, to be good to the girls and square with the boys, for hath it not been written 'of such is the Kingdom of Heaven?"

You dont believe all the fish stories you hear; "the one that got away" is always the big one; but it is seldom as big a "whopper" as the story he tells about it.

You don't believe all the clothes stories you hear, either; some of them are like the fisherman's tale; there's no way to prove it. Now, we've got a good clothes story to tell you; it's about and we've got the goods to prove what we say about them. Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes are better than any description of them; they're all-wool, which means a lot more than those words convey. They're correct in every detail of style and tailoring; they give a man a correct fit, and make him look and feel well-dressed.

That's why we sell them; and that's why you ought to buy them.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT COLORADO SPRINGS, COL.

Illustrating the tendency of many cities to adopt in whole or in part the Galveston, or "commission" form of government, Dr. Horace E. Flack, in today's installment of the series of articles being reprinted by courtesy of the Baltimore News, discusses the new charter of Colorado Springs, the latest adherent to the Galveston plan.

Colorado Springs.

(By Horace E. Flack.)

Colorado Springs has one of the most recent charters, the present charter having been framed by the Charter Convention, elected January 19th, 1909, and ratified by the people May 11th. Several innovations have been introduced, but in general it may be said that the Colorado Springs charter is quite similar to that of Berkeley. In fact, it would seem that the Charter Convention had at hand the results of the labors of the Board of Freeholders of Berkeley. There was evidently little objection in Colorado Springs to the change, for the vote was 3,000 to 300 in favor of it, and the "Galveston idea" had gained a new adherent.

Has Home Rule.

According to the Charter Convention, the charter provides that the legislative, executive and judicial powers of the city shall 'extend to all matters of local and municipal government and preserves every valuable feature of the laws of the State, introducing only such new methods or machinery as were deemed advisable and necessary in the assumption of home rule. Colorado, like California, confers upon her municipalities the very important power of framing and adopting their own charters. The powers of the city are vested in the elective officers of the city—the Mayor and four Councilmen—except as they are reserved to the people by the initiative and referendum features of the charter. The Mayor and Councilmen are elected at large for a term of four years, two of the Councilmen being elected every two years. The executive and administrative powers are distributed among these five departments:

Department of Water and Waterworks.
Department of Finance.
Department of Public Safety.
Department of Public Works and Property.
Department of Public Health and Sanitation.

Mayor's Wide Powers.

The Mayor is the Commissioner of Water and Waterworks, the Council designating by majority vote one of its number to be commissioner of each of the other departments. The Mayor is the chief executive officer of the city, and, upon recommendation of the commissioner of the appropriate department, appoints the heads of such department and all the employes in the service of the city. He is also allowed to remove or suspend any officer or employe when, in his judgment, the public interest demands. In case of removal, if the officer or employe so removed requests, the Mayor shall file with the Clerk a written statement of the reasons for removal. The Council, by affirmative vote of four members, may also remove any officer or employe. The Mayor also prepares the annual budget, and the Council may reduce or omit any item, but cannot increase any item. The Mayor is given more power than is found in most charters.

Employes' Debts.

The charter provides that the failure of any officer or employe to pay any indebtedness contracted while in the service of the city shall be deemed sufficient ground for removal. The Mayor is ex-officio member of each board or commission created or authorized by the charter or by any ordinance. He is also given the power to veto any or every item contained in ordinances making appropriations, but such veto shall extend only to the items vetoed, and those which he approves shall become effective. No doubt this provision is expected to expedite business and prevent logrolling in appropriation ordinances. His veto can be overcome only by the votes of four members of the Council, which means that every member of the Council besides himself must vote to pass the ordinance over his veto. It is also provided that no officer or employe, other than policemen or firemen on duty, shall directly or indirectly accept any frank, free ticket or other service from any public utility corporation.

The Council is required to provide a system of uniform accounting. If the Council fail to make the tax levy in any year, the rate last fixed shall be the rate for the ensuing year. The debt limit of the city is fixed at 3 per cent., but indebtedness for water, light or public utilities, or works from which a revenue is derived, is not to be included in determining the debt limit.

Regulates Public Utilities.

The lights of the city are carefully guarded in the matter of public franchises and utilities. The charter retains in the people the right to control public utilities and requires that provision shall be made in every franchise hereafter granted permitting the city to purchase at a physical valuation such utility whenever the people deem it best so to do and vote in favor thereof. It is also expressly provided that all disputes arising on account of any ambiguity shall be construed in favor of the city. No franchise can be granted for a longer period than 25 years, nor can one be renewed before one year prior to its expiration. Furthermore, it is provided that no franchise shall be exclusive and that no public utility shall issue securities in excess of an amount fixed by the Council or without its consent.

In addition to the above safeguards the Council is practically constituted a public utilities commission, for it gives power to regulate the rates, fares and charges of all public utility corporations, including the right to require uniform, convenient and adequate service. Of course, the people can secure such regulation through the initiative and referendum in case the Council fails to do so. A unique but no doubt valuable feature is that requiring all public utility corporations to submit not later than 60 days after the first day of January an annual report showing in detail the amount of authorized capital stock and bonded indebtedness and the amount of each issued and outstanding, an itemized statement of receipts and expenditures, the amount paid in dividends and as interest, the names and the salary paid each officer and the amount paid as wages, a full description and the property and franchises and the book value of each franchise.

A complete, non-partisan system for the election of municipal officers has been provided, the framers evidently being of opinion that the party label was not necessary to secure efficient government. All nominations are to be made by petition, but the person so nominated must file his acceptance within five days from the filing of the petition of nomination. In his acceptance he must make affidavit to the fact that he has not become a candidate as the nominee or representative of or because of any promised support from any political party or committee. There shall be no political or other designation on the ballot to indicate the source of candidacy or support of any candidate. A similar provision to that in the Berkeley charter in reference to a second election in case no one receives a majority in the first is to be found in this charter. There is also included a very strict provision in regard to corrupt practices.

The initiative, referendum and recall provisions are almost identical with those of the Berkeley charter and seem to mark an advance in the way of direct legislation. These provisions, together with that creating a Civil Service Commission, no doubt account for the almost unanimous vote which the charter received. Municipal administration should be rendered more prompt and more effective under the new charter, for a concentration of power tends to expedite business. Concentration of power also secures the location of responsibility, and this is regarded by students in general as one of the essential features of any efficient form of government.

GOOD GOVERNMENT PAYS.

Memphis Illustrates Merit of National Municipal League Campaign.

Memphis, Tenn., May 28.—One of the arguments advanced by the National Municipal League for the selection of right-minded public officers is that "it pays", and in proof thereof is the administration recently closed of James H. Malone, Mayor of Memphis. Some of the things accomplished during his administration were:

Sixty miles of streets permanently paved; the construction of certain subways and the passage of ordinances for the construction of others, to eliminate railroad grade crossings; the development of the greatest park system in the South; the expansion of the artesian water system, now worth twice as much as the city paid for it; the extension of the city limits; the doubling of the fund for school purposes; the improvement of the health department until Memphis now ranks third among the cities of the United States in point of health; radical reforms in the methods and results of the city court, and the increase in the revenue, the improvement in the keeping the accounts of the city in the collecting of revenue.

While all of these things have been accomplished, the tax rate actually was lowered during Mayor Malone's term from as high as $2.88 in the prior administration to $1.76 in 1909. When he entered office, the city's current debt was $200,000; when he retired, the city was doing business upon a cash basis and had no unpaid accounts. Memphis increased its property valuations from $66,000,000 to $84,000,000, with a great increase in population.

CATTLE QUARANTINE.

Recent Conviction for Violation in Federal Court at Asheville.

Washington, D. C., May 28.—In order to prevent the spread of the disease known as Southern splenetic, or Texas fever of cattle, and to further the work of eradicating the ticks which convey this disease, the United States Department of Agriculture maintains a strict quarantine on the infected region and endeavors to enforce this quarantine by court prosecutions when necessary. In a recent case in the United States court for the Western District of North Carolina, at Asheville, one W. W. Anderson entered a plea of guilty to a charge of violating the law and regulations, and a fine of $100 and costs was imposed by the court. The offense consisted in driving on foot certain cattle from Fannin county, Ga., through Polk county, Tenn., which two counties were under quarantine, into Cherokee county, N. C., which county was outside the quarantined area.

INTERNATIONAL AUTO TOURS

Over 60,000 Miles of Routes Mapped Out in America, Touring Club Now Invades Europe—Orphans' Day.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

New York, May 28.—Having mapped out over 60,000 miles of automobile routes which are constantly in use by tourists in the United States and Canada, the Touring Club of America is about to inaugurate a campaign of route making for motor tours in Europe. An itinerary of 5,000 miles which may be increased to 8,000 has been laid out which will begin at Liverpool about June 8th going through the most picturesque and historic country of England and Scotland, then across the channel to France and continuing through Holland, Belgium, Western Germany and Switzerland.

As the result of this long tour during which more than 100 individual tours averaging 100 miles or under will be prepared from actual odometer measurements, the foreign department of the Touring Club of America will be broadened and firmly established.

The club already has representatives in all the leading foreign countries and cities, but by inaugurating its live map system Americans planning an automobile trip abroad will be enabled to secure before sailing, route directions for any tour desired.

Thos. W. Wilby, manager of the foreign department of the Touring Club of America, sailed yesterday for Europe on the Carmania and next Wednesday Joseph W. Jones, a director of the Touring Club, and the inventor of the live map system, will sail on the Mauretania accompanied by his wife. They will take their car with them and the route making expedition will start from Liverpool immediately after Mr. Jones' arrival.

The first run will be to London by way of Chester, Litchfield and Covington. The entire country around London will then be toured including a trip on the old stage coach road to Brighton, thence along the south coast of Lands End, then through the King Arthur country and the Lorna Doone section, taking in the River Wye and Tintern Abbey, then branching off through North and Central Wales.

The trip will then continue northward through Scotland going through the Thomas Carlyle country and the entire section rendered interesting by "Bobby" Burns and the Edinburgh district. While on the return trip through England particular attention will be given to the historical Pilgrim Fathers' country including Scrooby and Bawtry.

During the trip the entire Shakespeare country, including Oxford and Cambridge, will be thoroughly covered, while from London an interesting tour will be made over the route to Canterbury made memorable by Chaucer and his pilgrims.

At Folkestone the car will be shipped to Boulogne from which point tours will be made to Paris, thence branching off through the most popular sections of Europe.

In view of the wide-spread interest which this route making expedition of Europe has aroused among prominent motorists and members of the Touring Club of America, a testimonial luncheon was tendered to Mr. Jones and Mr. Wilby last Thursday at Delmonico's by the representatives of the leading automobile organizations in New York City, among those present being Percy S. Jones, Carl H. Page, George L. Holmes, W. B. Lasher, Alfred Reeves, Logan Waller Page, of Washington, D. C., Col. P. R. Hawkins, T. A. Matthews, A. L. Westgard, Frederick H. Elliott, Thos. S. Barrett, C. F. Dieckmann, R. H. Montgomery, F. Du Casse, F. H. MacFarlin, John H. Gerrie, W. P. Callaghan, Frank Finney and H. Hottinger.

An invitation has been extended by Secretary Elliott of the Touring Club, to the members residing in Greater New York asking them to participate in and loan their cars for the sixth annual automobile "Orphans' Day" outing on Thursday, June 2nd. The orphans from the various charitable institutions in New York and Westchester counties will be taken to Coney Island where a luncheon will be served to the children. The touring Club of America is endeavoring to do everything in its power toward making this occasion an enjoyable one for the several hundred children for whom this annual automobile outing is one of the red letter days of their lives.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS WILMINGTON THIS WEEK

Wilmington will have the rare pleasure and privilege this week of entertaining an army of representative traveling men who penetrate every nook and corner of North and South Carolina and portions of other States exposing for sale every article known to the wholesale dealers. The occasion is the annual meeting of the Grand Council of the Carolinas, United Commercial Travelers, that great and growing fraternity of the genial "knights of the grip", which meets in this city Friday and Saturday. The traveling men, many of whom will be accompanied by members of their families and friends, will begin to arrive as early as Thursday and every incoming train until Friday evening is expected to be crowded with members of the organization.

Everything is in readiness for the big meeting and Cape Fear Council, No. 374, which will be the host of the gathering, is only awaiting the arrival of the travelers. The local committees have made elaborate preparations for the meeting and everything points strongly to the greatest convention this organization has ever known. The people generally of Wilmington have joined the committees in arranging for the entertainment of the visitors and the people generally will join in giving their guests a big, hearty and sincere welcome to Wilmington and the beaches. The city will simply be in the hands of the travelers for those two days and as many additional days as they may be persuaded to spend in Wilmington with side trips to the pleasure resorts. The visitors will be greeted by the true far-famed Cape Fear hospitality, which is only another way of saying that when the sessions of the Council are over and the visitors are ready to depart they will declare with all the emphasis they can command that truly the meeitng was the grandest and greatest ever held by the organization.

The municipality has appropriated $500 and more than $1,000 has been raised by private subscription for advertising purposes and for the entertainment of the visitors. Realizing the importance of the meeting from the standpoint of an advertisement for Wilmington the city came forward with the amount asked for by the committee and appreciating the value of the traveling men as commerce builders the business men gave an amount sufficient to give the visitors such an entertainment as they have never known before on a similar occasion.

The souvenir programme for the convention has just been issued and will be widely circulated. It contains 16 pages, and in addition to the full details of the features of the convention is replete with cuts and interesting information regarding the importance of Wilmington in the commercial world. The cover is attractively finished in blue and gold and bears the inscription, "Grand Council of the Carolinas, Wilmington, N. C., June 3rd and 4th, 1910." together with the crescent and grip emblem of the order. Each visitor to the convention will be given a copy of the programme and copies will be sent to eevry Council in the United States and Canada, 476 in number.

The First Day.

As stated above, the visitors will begin to arrive in great numbers as early as Thursday and by Friday morning several hundred are expected to be here. The opening session, to which the general public is invited, will be held in the Academy of Music, and will convene at 9:30 o'clock. Following an overture by Kneisel's Orchestra, which will furnish the music, prayer will be offered by Rev. W. E. Cox, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, after which the address of welcome in behalf of the city of Wilmington and Cape Fear Council will be delivered by Herbert McClammy, Esq., city attorney, who is an able and pleasing speaker, and upon this occasion he is expected to be at his best. The response will be made by Mr. C. H. Jones, of Columbia, S. C. The public meeting will then adjourn and the delegates to the Grand Council will go to the hall of Cape Fear Council, in the Murchison National Bank building, where, at 10:30 a'clock, the first business session will be held. Another business session will be held at 3 P. M. and if the business is not finished at this meeting a third will be held at 8:30 P. M. There will be in the city a large number of traveling men who are not delegates to the Grand Council and if they are not interested in the regular business sessions they may enjoy themselves during the afternoon and evening by attending the baseball game and moving picture shows, free of charge, admission being by badge. During the baseball game in the afternoon music will be furnished at League Park by the Metzers' Band from Charleston, S. C., and the Charlotte Drum Corps.

Saturday will be a busy day but will be given over entirely to entertainment of the visitors. The events of the day begin with a street parade. At 9:30 o'clock the Councillors will assemble at Council Hall, Front and Chesnut streets, where the procession will form. The uniform to be worn in the parade is white duck trousers, blue or black sack coat, regulation cap of the order, official badge, and umbrella in colors of the order—blue, white and gold. The Parade Committee of the Grand Council has requested that every person in the parade wear the uniform as stated above and local members are earnestly requested to provide themselves with the white duck trousers. The visitors will have their white duck trousers and it is hoped that local members will do as well in carrying out the request of the Grand Council committee, otherwise they may look odd in the grand procession. The procession will traverse the principal streets of the city, the exact route to be announced later. There wil be three bands in the parade, as follows: Metzers' Band of Charleston, S. C.; The Charlotte Drum Corps and the Reservation Band from Fort Caswell, making a grand total of 75 pieces. Heading the procession will be a platoon of mounted police, immediately following will be the Charlotte Drum Corps of 30 pieces, then the Grand Council officers in automobiles. The Charleston band will be placed about midway the parade and just preceding members of the local council, who will bring up the rear, will be the band from Fort Caswell. After traversing the principal streets of the city, the travelers, members of their families and friends, will go to the foot of Market street, where at 11 A. M. they will board the steamer Wilmington for a trip down the historic Cape Fear river. At 1:30 P. M. the party will disembark and be taken through one of the modern forts on the Atlantic coast, Fort Caswell. Luncheon will be served on the boat at 3:30 P. M. and at 5:30 P. M. the steamer will arrive in Wilmington on the return trip. Suburban cars will be in waiting to convey the party to Wrightsville Beach, where they will have dinner A'la family style at the Seashore Hotel at 7:45 P. M.

Saturday evening the visitors will be guests of the Tidewater Power Company at an elaborate dance at Lumina, North Carolina's pleasure palace, which will be attractively and appropriately decorated. This will conclude a day full of events that will doubtless prove a great pleasure to the visitors. Many will return to the city late Saturday night, but a majority will probably spend Sunday at the beach.

The jobbers of Wilmington who travel men, whether they are members of the organization or not, are urged to allow their salesmen to come in for the Grand Council meeting, as they will be expected to aid members of the Council in making this meeting a grand success in every way. It is believed that the jobbers will readily assent to the request.

The officers of the Grand Council are: Grand Senior Councilor, O. Williams; Grand Junior Councilor, J. M. Burns; Grand Past Councilor, H. E. Gillam; Grand Secretary, E. B. Littlefield; Grand Treasurer, J. G. Shannonhouse; Grand Conductor, E. Van Schaack; Grand Page, J. H. Sempken; Grand Sentinel, David Ray, the latter of Wilmington. THE CONGRESSIONAL SITUATION.

Views of a Correspondent.

Once upon a time there was a Greek Philosopher named Diogonese, who on one occasion was seen at mid day on the streets of Athens with a lighted lamp peering in men's faces and when asked what he was doing, replied. "I am looking for an honest man." What a sad thing it is that this old Greek can not recross the river Styx and see our Bladen county aspirant for Congress. It would be entirely unnecessary for him (Diogonese) to make his inspection at mid day; he could even extinguish his lamp and continue his search at midnight, and on a dark foggy night, for he would at once discover the embodiment of honesty and all other attributes of perfection sticking out so plainly that he could knock them off with a board. The most surprising thing to me is that we people of Bladen should allow our "Glorious Son" to aspire to so small an office as that of Congressman. Now your correspondent might consent to his Honorable name being mentioned, or even being placed before the next National Convention for President, though we would be more favorably impressed if that honor should be allowed to fall to the lot of some lesser mortal. If we could only see him elected, or by some divine right made the Czar of all the Russians! I suggest the Czar of Russia because our noble countryman would have a much better chance as Czar to show to the world of what stuff he is made. He would have no "Senate" or "House of Lords" to trouble or embarrass him in any way.

Now fellow citizens, allow me to suggest that we let that little cuss, Godwin, keep this job for it just about fits him, (Godwin) and all hands appoint a time and place to hold a Camp Meeting and ask the Lord to so arrange things in this little "Terrestrial Ball" that our man from Bladen county gets something suitable for his size and talents, and not to allow him or us, as his friends, to sacrifice him by sending him to Congress.

Then there is another thought which comes ino my thick cranium, viz., Why should we put a luminary in the Halls of Congress whose brilliancy and eloquence would cause "Washington," "Clay," "Calhoun," "Webster," and a host of other honored dead to wrythe in their graves, for their fame would be as a snow flake in June. Let's don't do that, but if by making him Czar we cause all the Czars from "Peter the Great" down to gnash their teeth, we care not. Yours very Truly,

J. D. DeVANE.

BARBERS AND ONIONS

Washington State Federation Objects to Action of Nebraska Town.

Spokane, Washn., May 28.—Thomas Ivey, secretary-trearurer of the Washington State Federation of Barbers and member of the Washington Board of Barber Examiners, located in Spokane, is firmly opposed to the action of the city council of Waterloo, Neb., in barring barbers from eating onions and other things. He says the barbers have called the turn on such action by city council in this State by rules governing those who follow the trade in that a barber of offensive habits cannot obtain a license in Washington. Other craftsmen declare there should be a national statute, making it unlawful for a man to ask for a hair-cut, shave or face massage if his breath is tainted with the scent of onions, tobacco or liquor. If that is not feasible they add, there ought to be an exchange of breathlets before the work of shaving or hair-cutting begins. It is probable that a resolution embodying the foregoing will be submitted to the meeting of the federation early in July.

OAK RIDGE FINALS.

Fifty-Eighth Annual Commencement Concluded During Past Week.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Oak Ridge, N. C., May 21.—The 58th annual commencement of Oak Ridge Institute began on Thursday morning, May 19th, with a sermon before the graduating classes by Rev. Henry A. Brown, of Winston-Salem. His subject was "Christ the Man. The minister sustained his past enviable reputation as a pulpit orator of much power and earnestness and his discourse was much appreciated by the large congregation that had gathered to hear him.

At 4:30 P. M. the Class of 1910 held its class exercises in the chapel. This was most enjoyable, consisting of eloquent and witty speeches which entertained for an hour quite a large audience of relatives and friends of the class, as well as many visitors. President W. H. Davis presided and the following members of the closs took part in the programme: Historian, A. A. Farmer, Wilson; statistician, G. W. Bray, Florida; orator, H. A. Glaus, Ahoskie; poet, R. L. Taylor, Mt. Airy; prophet, B. A. Cottingham, South Carolina; Last Will and Testament, F. T. Foard, Jr., Hickory. The gift of the class to Oak Ridge Institute was a handsome bust of Gen. Robert E. Lee. This was presented by W. B. Young, Jr., Wilson, in a few appropriate remarks. It was accepted on the part of the faculty by Prof. T. E. Whitaker, who sustained his former reputation as an orator.

At 8:30 P. M. the annual debate between the Literary Societies took place. The subject for discussion was the Postal Savings Bank Bill, which was discussed by W. A. Tayloe, Bertie county, and W. H. Davis, Wilson, in the affirmative, and J. Glenn Robertson, Greensboro, and D. H. Carlton, Wilkes county, in the negative. Seldom has a debate been heard in any North Carolina school of equal eloquence and power. The audience paid this tribute to the debate almost without exception. Many eminent gentlemen were present many of whom said it was the best debate they had ever heard. Although the audience seemed partial to the affirmative, the judges rendered their decision in favor of the negative. D. H. Carlton, of Wilkes, was awarded the medal. The judges were T. J. Gold, High Point, J. P. Stearn and Judge N. L. Eure, of Greensboro.

On Friday the 20th, at 10:30 A. M., the graduating exercises of the Class of 1910 were celebrated. Six orations for the Brook's Medal for Oratory, given by Mr. R. H. Brooks, of Greensboro, for the best orator, were delivered by the following young men, representatives of their respective societies:

Civilizations That Have Gone as Bearing on Present Tendencies: R. B. Abernathy, Jr., Charlotte, N. C.

The South in the Twentieth Century: E. B. Smith, Marines.

The Forces That Make American Citizenship: N. L. Foy, Scotts Hill, N. C.

Eternal Vigilance the Price of Honest Government: H. A. Glaus, Ahoskie.

The Awakening South: Grover Lowrey, Oak Ridge, N. C.

The Call to the Farm: Frank Sabiston, Jacksonville, N. C.

These orations were of a very high order and showed profound thought and careful training, and greatly pleased the large audience that had assembled to hear them. The medal for the best oration was awarded to Grover Lowrey, of Oak Ridge, though it was difficult to tell which one of the men made the best speech.

At 12:30 P. M. Dr. Edwin M. Poteat, president of Furman University, Greenville, S. C., delivered one of the most charming and interesting addresses that has ever been heard from this rostrum, on which has stood many of the most eminent men in the State in past years. His subject was "The Rights of Youth."

At 2:30 P. M. a most eloquent and earnest and forceful address was delivered by Rev. A. G. Dixon, of High Point, N. C., member of the Class of '95. His subject was the "Country's Need," and in the speaker's opinion our country's greatest need is men. It was an address which the members of the class and others who heard it cannot easily forget. Diplomas were granted to the following men in the classical department: Grady D. Askew, Harrellsville; Grady L. Anthony, Stokesdale; D. Hill Carlton, Boomer; Willie H. Davis, Wilson; I. Lacy Dulap, Causy; N. Leslie Foy, Scotts Hill; Fred T. Foard, Jr., Hickory; Charles M. Griffith, Jr., Thomasville; Harvey Clayton; Willie L. Jones, Madison; Jas. T. Jeffreys, Goldsboro; Willie W. Linville, Forsyth county; Daniel A. McCormick, Robeson county; J. Glenn Roberson, Greensboro; Troy Williams, Stokesdale; William P. Whitaker, Jr., Durham; Willie B. Young, Jr., Wilson. The highest honors of this class were awarded the following men: W. B. Young, Jr., D. H. Carlton, N. L. Foy, H. A. Glaus, W. P. Whitaker, Jr.

Diplomas were also granted to the following men of the scientific class: Geo. W. Bray, Florida; Burriss A. Cottingham, Dillon, S. C.; Wiley B. Edwards, Wilson; Eugene Smith, Mt. Airy; Archie A. Farmer, Wilson; Willie M. Frost, Mocksville; B. Frank Hester, Granville county; J. Benjamin Montgomery, Wilmington; J. Hugh Ward, Edgecombe county.

The following men of the bookkeeping department: Jas. A. Carlton, Boomer; Willie W. Cooke, Franklinton; Clyde E. Hornaday, Burlington; Frank C. Moore, Reidsville, N. C.; Frank B. Nunn, Chapel Hill; Talmage W. and Paul V. Neese, Lexington; Peter C. Penn, Mt. Airy; J. Earl Reese, Otis Stanton, Willie W. Thompson, South Carolina; W. Arthur Tayloe, Aulander.

To the following men of the shorthand department: Jas. L. Cockerham, Surry county; Hubert H. Knight, Wilson county; Willie W. Linville, Belews Creek; Clarence M. Millner, Spray; Talmage W. and Paul V. Neese, Lexington; Ysmael M. Rodriguez, Cuba; Lee Prather Stack, Monroe; Otis Stanton and Willie Thompson, South Carolina; Henry C. Shannon, Goldsboro.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. W. R. Loudermilk, pastor of one of the local churches. This ended brilliantly and successfully another successful year at Oak Ridge Institute. There were a great many people present from Greensboro, High Point, Danville, Reidsville, Winston-Salem, and various other points to attend commencement festivities. All of these expressed themselves as very greatly pleased at the hospitality extended and that the evidences of solid prosperity everywhere, in and around the school.

PROF. GREENE SPEAKER.

Addressed Mechanical Society at Greensboro Colored A. & M.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., May 25.—The principal feature of the day's events of the 11th annual commencement of A. & M. College for the colored race, was the annual address tonight at the anniversary of the Mechanical Society, by Prof. John H. Greene, B. S., principal Williston graded school, in Wilmington.

His subject was "The Negro Mechanic." In part, he said: "The negro lost his strong hold on the mechanical fields not because of prejudice nor politics; not because of lack of money; not because he mistook freedom from slavery, to mean freedom from labor; but I do want to assure you that no man or race can control any field of labor, nor hold a foremost place in this civilization of keen and intense competition unless his mind has been trained. And thus it is that the negro mechanic lost his place because he was ignorant. But this was no fault of his for prior to 1865 he was not permitted to read or white. What he knew about mechanics he learned mainly through observation and experience."

In a grateful spirit, he exclaimed: "Our good friends of the North and South saw our pitiable condition and gave of their means to educate the negro. The thought has often occurred to me, had these good friends thought of our condition and founded our education upon our sphere in Southern civilization, had they trained our mechanics, farmers, cooks and washer women from a scientific standpoint, how to improve upon their respective vocations today and for ages to come, our skill and labor would be the bone and sinew of this mighty nation and the so-called race problem never would have existed."

With much force he said: "We rejoice in the birth of Gen. Armstrong, who was the first to do effective work in the right direction and who established Hampton Institute. We rejoice in the fact that many of the States have established State colleges among which is our own A. & M., where the negro youth is taught along industrial lines. A great many of us do not like to hear of so much industrial training for the negro. The speaker wishes that changes might be made, and yet the only means he sees of a change is to apply the old rule, 'work from the known to the unknown.' Let us then accept the conditions as they are; let them form our basis or starting point and through our training, skill and industry change these same conditions into the idols of our dreams."

Newbro's Herpicide Delights the Ladies

Because they know from experience that the intelligent use of Herpicide means much to their personal appearance. It saves and beautifies the hair and in the vast majority of cases, adds greatly to its abundance.

The presence of the dandruff germ in the scalp destroys the gloss and beauty of the hair, ever before the resulting disease becomes firmly established.

Each day that the use of Newbro's Herpicide is put off, makes the repair that much more difficult.

Save your hair while you have hair to save.

The Intelligent use of Herpicide proves its actual worth.

"I am delighted with Herpicide. I have never used a remedy that gives such marvelous results. The effect on my son's head is magical and he had a very persistent case of dandruff."
(Signed) MRS. J. L. MOORE, Paulding, Ohio.

"I must tell you that your remedy for the hair is working like a charm and I am very much pleased with it. The itching has stopped and new hair is growing. I shall recommend it to all my friends."
(Signed) MRS. I. KINNEY, New Haven, Conn.

"I can say from experience that Newbro's Herpicide is the most wonderful hair growers and dandruff eradicator that was ever made. I have used it for some time and can truthfully say that I am greatly pleased with it. I cheerfully recommend it as a splendid preparation."
(Signed) MRS. DR. BEST, Cottage Grove, Oregon.

"It gives me great pleasure to add my commendation of Newbro's Herpicide. A member of our family has used your remedy with very satisfactory results."
(Signed) MISS A. E. CARUTHERS, Tampa, Fla.

"Newbro's Herpicide is certainly the best remedy for dandruff and itching scalp I ever used. I have told several persons about your preparation and will tell everyone I have an opportunity to. I can not praise Herpicide enough for what it has done for me."
(Signed:) MRS. A. PFAENDER, Shimer, Texas.

The most cultured and refined people in every community use Newbro's Herpicide. Try it today.

"Bottled at the Spring."

Lincoln Lithia Inn open to guests May 15th to October 1st. Literature upon request.

Its Use in Kidney and Bladder Troubles, as a Table Water, Etc.

DR. S. WESTRAY BATTLE, of Asheville, N. C., Surgeon U. S. Navy, retired, Member N. C. Medical Society, N. C. Board of Health, American Public Health Association, American Medical Association, etc., says:

"I cannot even now begin to tell you of the merits of the Lincoln Lithia Water, I cannot speak in too high praise of the water. With a fair share of experience in the use of the mineral waters of this country and of Europe, Lincoln Lithia Water is easily the most acceptable of its class within the range of my knowledge. In appropriate cases, I firmly believe, without any sort of reservation, that its exhibition will be followed by marked benefit. I have ordered it largely, and its effects have been most gratifying. Aside from its specific effects in kidney and bladder difficulties and gastric disorders, it is in every way a most desirable table water, delightfully palatable and safe. I cheerfully endorse it, and shall continue to do so as long as the spring furnishes the potable fluid that now comes to us from Lincolnton. I only wish we had such water here where thousands come from all parts of the earth seeking health and recreation."

In Chronic Rheumatic Complaints, Vesical and Urethral Irritation.

B. D. EVANS, M. D., Medical Director of the New Jersey State Hospital, Morris Plains, N. J.: "LINCOLN LITHIA WATER has been used quite extensively in this hospital during the last twelve months. The MOST HAPPY results have followed its use in CHRONIC RHEUMATIC COMPLAINTS, and in VESICAL and URETHRAL IRRITATION where there was frequent and painful urination with HYPERACIDITY of the Urine. In the latter class of cases its action has been prompt in giving relief.

The various standard Lithia Waters have been used in this hospital, but I place LINCOLN LITHIA WATER Second to none of them."

MAY MUSIC FESTIVAL

MRS. HORACE R. DOWELL, Soprano.

Judging from the advance sale of tickets, the Academy of Music will be filled both Wednesday and Thursday evening of this week with one of the largest and most fashionable audiences of the year to listen to the attractive programmes which will be presented by the Choral Society of Wilmington in its first annual Music Festival.

Not only has the sale been large in the city, but reservations have been made by persons living at a distance who have been attracted by the advance notices of the class of music that will be offered by the superb Festival Orchestra on the evening of June 1st, and from the standpoint of the artistic, it bids fair to rival the efforts of some of the larger orchestras touring the country this season.

Mr. John F. Kneisel, the well known local musician, who will direct the orchestra, has arranged a most attractive programme from some of the master minds of music—Puccini, Massenet, MacDowell and others—which in itself is a guarantee of the excellence of the first evening's entertainment. The soloist of the evening will be Mrs. Horace R. Dowell, of Raleigh, and Wilmington music-lovers have a rare treat in store for them, for Mrs. Dowell takes rank as one of the finest singers of the South and her selections for the evening have been made with rare taste. Mrs. Dowell has been given highly complimentary notices in the various places in the State where she has appeared and the Choral Society is to be congratulated upon being able to secure her services at this time.

The feature of second evening's programme will be the first annual appearance of the Choral Society in Sir Frederick Cowen's tuneful "Rose Maiden", which should be styled operatic rather than a cantata so rich and expressive is the music. There is a delightful love story running all through it, and the solo parts have been placed in the hands of such talented singers as Mrs. Dowell, soprano; Mrs. J. D. Edwards, contralto; Mr. J. B. Fenley, tenor; Mr. Harry R. Bates, baritone, which assures the audience of a musical delight. The chorus is composed of about 70 well known and talented local vocalists who have held frequent rehearsals during the past six weeks under the direction of Mr. E. H. Munson, and it can safely be said that it will be the best trained chorus that has ever appeared before a Wilmington audience.

The orchestra will be composed of 16 pieces and each of the musicians is a skilled and competent artist. The following will compose the orchestra: Mr. Felix Muetze, of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, 'cello soloist; Sig. Angelo Traficant, harpist; Mr. Frank Schirch, cornetist; Mr. John Goell, trombone; Constans Piton, viola; Mr. Frank Peiffer, drummer; Mr. Wm. N. Pierce, first horn; Mr. Mark C. Leach, second horn; Messrs. Raphael Groff, Romeo Girard and Eugene Cronzet, first violins; Theo. Ruger, bass; Antonio Punaro, flute; C. A. Morse, oboe; B. H. Rinefer, clarinet.

The box office for reservations of seats will be open at the Crystal Palace Monday morning, May 30th, at 7 o'clock and remain open until 3 P. M. for those who hold advance tickets. The box sheet for the general public will open at Messrs. Geo. R. French & Sons store Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. The prices will be $1 for reserved seats and 75 cents general admission.

Those of the chorus and others who hold advance tickets are asked to go to the Crystal Palace between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock Monday so the tickets not disposed of can be returned together with the cash for those sold in order that proper credit may be given. It is hoped that this request will be complied with in order that the business affairs may be adjusted without delay.

Check Your Fat

Hold it where it is, or take off some. You can do either without disturbing your meals or your ease or your digestive organs. You can do it without physical risk, mental effort or danger of a wrinkle. "Sounds well, but these are words only," you say. True, but there is a nation full of indorsers of these words, so your protest, while natural, is feeble. Prove it. Write to the Marmola Co, 696 Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich., inclosing 75 cents, or, better still, take that amount over to your druggist and get one of the extra large cases of Marmola Prescription Tablets. You will find it generously filled. Take one after meals and at bedtime, and within thirty days you should be losing a pound of fat a day, without disturbance, as we said, of either your meals, habits or organs. Fact is, these statements are not to be denied, for the tablets are an exact duplicate of the famous fat-reducing Marmola Prescription: One-half ounce Marmola, 1-2 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and 3 1-2 ounces Peppermint Water, which any druggist will tell you is the World's Fair medal winner in its class.

S.S.S.

CURES SKIN DISEASES

In this article we want to explain to you the cause of skin diseases, and also offer suggestions, founded on reason and experience, which will enable you to cure yourself if you are afflicted with any of the various forms of this trouble.

The skin receives its necessary nourishment from the blood. Every pore is kept open and every gland kept healthy by continually feeding on the nutritious properties which are distributed throughout the system by a pure, rich blood supply. As long as this normal condition exists the cuticle will be soft, smooth, and free from eruptions; when however the circulation is contaminated with humors and impurities its supply of nutritive properties is diminished, and it becomes a sharp, acrid fluid which diseases instead of preserves the natural health and texture of the skin.

Lying just beneath the outer covering or tissue-skin is a sensitive membranous flesh which surrounds and protects the tiny veins, pores and glands. It is here the impurities of the blood are deposited, and the acrid matter causes irritation and inflammation which splits or breaks the thin, tissue-like cuticle, and the result is outwardly manifested in Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, or some other disfiguring or annoying eruptive disease.

It can readily be seen that since Skin Diseases are the result of bad blood, there can be but one way to cure them—purify the blood. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., are not able to do so, because they do not reach the blood. Such treatment is of no value except for its ability to temporarily relieve itching and assist in keeping the skin clean.

S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing all humors from the blood. S. S. S. cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies its rich, nutritious corpuscles, and adds to its purity in every way. Then the skin, instead of being irritated and inflamed by sour impurities, is nourished, soothed and softened by this cooling, healthy stream of blood. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and therein lies its ability to cure skin diseases. The trouble cannot remain when the cause has been removed, and S. S. S. will certainly remove the cause. It cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, pimples, boils,, blackheads, etc., and all eruptions of the skin. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

For six years I was severely troubled with a bad skin disease, located principally on the shins. The trouble would appear in the form of small yellow blisters, characterized by very severe itching, etc. I tried sarsaparillas, so-called blood purifiers, salves, ointments, lotions and treatment under a physician, but nothing did me any good. Becoming discouraged I left off all this treatment, and just about this time I saw S. S. S. advertised. One day I decided to give this medicine a trial, and after using it for a short while I began to improve. Of course I continued S. S. S. and it cured me completely. Quite a while has elapsed since I was cured and there has never been the slightest indication of the return of the trouble.
G. C. RECK.

I had a bad case of Eczema, it being especially severe on my right hand. I was hardly able to use my hand in my work. I tried a great many things in an effort to get relief, but was unable to do so until I read of S. S. S. and determined to give it a trial. I used several bottles of this remedy and it cured the trouble entirely. S. S. S. put my blood in fine condition and left my skin soft and smooth. Though this was some time ago there has been no return of the trouble. CHAS. J. WOLF, JR.
904 S. Second St., St. Louis, Mo.

For four years I suffered severely with Weeping Eczema, located chiefly on the hands, both inside and out, and extended as far up as the wrists. I was under treatment most all the time, but could get no relief. One or two of my physicians said it was as bad a case of Eczema as they ever saw. I lost my finger nails once or twice as a result of the disease, and the itching, burning and pain I experienced I cannot express to you in words. I kept my hands bandaged all the while, but with only little relief. As I said, becoming discouraged, I gave up all treatment I was taking, and seeing S. S. S. advertised began it as a last resort. A few bottles convinced me that it was doing me good and I continued it, and in a short while I was entirely cured.

PREMIUM SCUPPERNONG

"THE DISTINCTIVELY SUPERIOR WINE"

¶ To the person who appreciates the flavor and bouquet in wine, this special brand appeals—its discovery by those to whom, for the first time it is offered, is a grateful revelation.

¶ The grape from which it is made is peculiarly a local product and imitators both in this country and abroad have utterly failed to produce its equal.

¶ Every sip suggests the richly mellow flavor of the freshly picked grape—its fragrance is charming. Its delicacy is its crowning appeal.

¶ An initial order will prove convincing. We will prepay the express charges anywhere East of the Mississippi—on a case containing 12 bottles (5s) for $7.00. Order direct from the makers, and save four profits.

¶ Remit by P. O. or Express Money Order or Draft. Booklet containing Price List and many helpful hints on selecting and serving wine, sent on request.

¶ All of our products guaranteed under National Pure Food Laws.

FAVORS PURE MILK BILL

Dr. Russell Bellamy Will Urge Passage of a Law, Similar to the One Recently Adopted by New York General Assembly.

Dr. Russell Bellamy, of this city, a resident of New York City for near y 20 years, whose work on typhoid fever is well known, will ask his uncle, Senator George H. Bellamy, to introduce a copy of the pure milk bill just signed by the Governor of New York at the next session of the North Carolina Legislature. He further suggests that Boards of Aldermen in the meantime enact similar milk purification restriction ordinances.

The New-York State of May 12th, under the head of Agricultural Legislation, had the following regarding the enactment of pure milk bills, which had the approval of the Governor:

Chap. 207, the Platt bill changing "full cream to "whole milk" in the legal definition of cheese not made from skimmed milk, and changing "full cream" to "whole milk" in the State cheese brand. (This is because a Pennsylvania court has held that no cheese is "full cream" unless it is made entirely of cream.)

Chap. 216, the Boshart bill amending sec. 31 of the agricultural law to make it read as follows—new matter in italics, old matter now canceled in brackets: "No person shall keep cows, for the production of milk for market or for sale or exchange, or for manufacturing the milk or cream from the same into any article of food, in a crowded or unhealthy condition 'or in unhealthy or unsanitary surroundings, and no person shall keep such cows of the product therefrom in such condition or surroundings or in such places as shall cause or tend to cause the produce from such cows to be in an unclean, unhealthy or diseased condition, if the produce from such cows is to be sold, offered or exposed for sale upon the markets for consumption or to be manufactured into any food product, nor shall such cows or the produce therefrom be handled or cared for by any person suffering with or affected by an infectious or contagious disease,' (or feed) 'nor shall any such cows be fed' (on distillery waste or) on any substance 'that is' in (the) 'a' state of putrefaction or fermentation, or upon any food that is (unhealthy) 'unhealthful' or that produces or 'may produce' impure (unhealthy) 'unhealthful,' riseased or unwholesome construed to prohibit the feeding of milk. But this section shall not be culture is hereby empowered to give such instruction and impart such inensilage. The commissioner of agriformation as in his judgment may be deemed best to produce a full observance of the provisions of this section.'"

Dr. Bellamy is also very much interested in a bill passed by the New York Legislature forbidding the sale of a lame or incurably sick horse. He served 12 years in Squadron A. "The President's Own," and is a great lover of horse flesh. Dr. Bellamy served as a staff captain and was honorably discharged by Governor Chas. E. Hughes. Dr. Bellamy is decidedly of the opinion that there is much work in Wilmington, as well as in other towns of the State, for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, many lame and worn out animals being kept on the go all day and some times far into the night.

PROMOTION THAT PAYS.

Denver Chamber of Commerce a Live Wire in All Affairs.

Denver, Colo., May 28.—With the view of creating intense interest in the building up of Denver on a substantial basis and for the purpose of concentrating efforts along this line, the Denver Chamber of Commerce has adopted the plan of appointing special committees to represent each line of trade and industry. Each committee exerts its best energies in the interest of the line of business it represents and some excellent results have been obtained. Every two weeks a general meeting of all committees is held, and the general business situation is reviewed.

The Agricultural committee has adopted a novel plan of interesting the boys and girls of the State in gardening. Acting in conjunction with the State Agricultural college, the committee will offer awards for the best garden products raised by the young people of the State.

The Fire Prevention committee has taken up the work of learning the best methods of preventing fires in Denver. With this end in view the chairman of this committee has been sent on a tour of investigation to inquire into the methods in vogue in the larger cities of the East. Although Denver has one of the most efficient fire departments in the country, the Chamber of Commerce wants Denver to be the best protected city in the country.

The Good Roads committee is cooperating with the county commissioners of the various counties and with the State Highway commission to obtain better highways into Denver and through the mountains. Several automobile boulevards are being constructed through the mountains near Denver.

For the purpose of informing the school children of Denver about the industries of the city and State, the Educational committee will cause a series of lectures to be delivered by leading business men under this general head. Subjects will be assigned to the lecturers by the committee. It is hoped in this way to disseminate industrial knowledge among the pupils of the public schools to the extent that "even a school child" can inform a stranger on subjects of importance pertaining to the industrial resources of the city and State. It is intended also to have the pupils visit the factories of Denver so that they may become familiar with the goods manufactured in Denver. The children will be taken to the factories in parties on different days.

BINGHAM SCHOOL, MEBANE.

Review of Recent Commencement and Some of the Good Things.

(Special Star Correspondence.

Bingham School, Mebane, N. C., May 25.—The Bingham School commencement began last Sunday with the address before the Y. M. C. A. by Mr. G. C. Huntington, of Charlotte, which was exceedingly helpful and interesting. He urged the cadets never to be satisfied with inferior attainments, but continually to press forward for greater excellence. During his visit, initial steps for the organization of a Y. M. C. A. at Mebane were taken. The Young Men's Christian Association has existed at Bingham for many years. Great and multiplied temptations are besetting young men in our time as never before and the Young Men's Christian Association is one of the most practical and successful methods of applied Christianity in modern times. It is to be earnestly hoped that a large and flourishing association will soon be formed in every town in our State.

The Honorable Jeter C. Pritchard, judge of the United States Court for the Fourth Circuit, delivered one of the most practical and wisest addresses that has been heard at Bingham for many years. He was urged to come again next year and promised to do so. Judge Pritchard is one of the ablest, best and brainiest men in our Nation today and it is to be regretted that he cannot give his entire time to indoctrinate the people with his sound and sane views on morality and good citizenship. He could do vastly more good in this way than on the bench. What an inspiration is the life of such a man, who from being a poor barefooted mountain boy has by integrity, industry and application climbed to some of the highest positions in the gift of the Nation.

At the annual contest for the orator's and declaimer's medals Mr. Joseph C. Long, son of Mr. Long, of Graham, delivered a splendid oration on the subject of Anglo-Saxon Supremacy, winning the medal. Mr. Walter N. Killough, of Arkansas, who with Mr. Long represented the Polemic Society, captured the judges and audience with a masterly declamation called "Jim's Defense." Jim was an old Southern darkey, who, during the war "foraged" with his master. After the war, the master became judge, Jim continued to "forage" and was tried for "stealing." Jim could not see the difference and made a great defense, being acquitted. Mr. William T. Ralph and Mr. Eugene Holmes, who appeared for the Kalisthenic Society as declaimer and orator, also delighted the audience and a good many of the good people were so kind as to say that in all their lives they had never attended a more delightful entertainment. Mr. Thomas L. Morrow, president, delivered a most interesting welcome address. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Bingham School Military Band composed of Cadets assisted by Capt. Maugans and under the leadership of Capt. Chas. R. Campbell, director of music. The declaimer's medal was delivered by Rev. Dr. Long and the orator's medal by Rev. Geo. W. Holmes; both gentlemen speaking most acceptably to the audience.

CLEAN SPORTS LEAGUE.

Organization for the Carolinas Organganized at Charleston, S. C.

The Clean Sports League of the Carolinas has been carefully organized and elaborate arrangements have been made to put into operation an effective working machinery. This organization will have no legislative or administrative power per se but will direct its efforts along educational lines. The headquarters are in the Y. M. C. A. Building, Charleston.

It has been organized to popularize athletic sports and to improve the standard of athletic activities, so as to harmonize them with the high purpose of education and good citizenship. "Sport for sport's sake" is its motto.

In 1909 one hundred and nineteen professional players of the National League were suspended for rowdyism and other offences. Undoubtedly many offences were overlooked. Similarly in amateur ranks there is a continual violation of rules and principles which reflect upon our boast of being true sportsmen. Amateurs too often do things they hope will not come to light. Frequently spectators and rooters are unjust and their actions not always in accord with what is known to be right. The Clean Sports League of the Carolinas is an educational organization composed of the leading colleges and Y. M. C. A'S. in the Carolinas.

It is endorsed by the:

1. Southern Inter-Collegiate Association.
2. Athletic League of North America.
3. South Carolina Inter-Collegiate Association.
4. Carolina Federation of Y. M. C. A'S.
5. Charleston Amateur Athletic Association.

The following adopted code of ethics is simple—fair to the individual, to the large as well as to the small colleges, schools or other organizations. It appeals to the manhood in man, and all lovers of clean sport are asked to support it.

Clean Sport Principles.

1. Both the home team and the home town should treat the visiting team as a guest.
2. Both players and spectators should recognize good plays of the visiting team by suitable cheering.
3. Players should play fair and be good losers.
4. The umpire and the referee have difficult tasks to perform. Spectators should accord them their moral support. The players should extend them hearty thanks as they leave the field.
5. Condemn all use of profane language on the field.

Lists will be circulated in every town in the Carolinas, and every man and every boy big enough to swing a bat is requested to add his signature, with the understanding that an honest effort will be made to live up to these principles. Such action will add greatly to the pleasure and dignity of athletic activities in the Carolinas.

Doctors Agree

that much of the illness of children can be traced directly to unsanitary refrigerators, and many cases of typhoid fever can also be traced to an ill smelling, foul, zinc-lined ice box.

A good refrigerater is the best "health insurance" you can have, as it safeguards the health of your family and keeps your food clean, fresh and pure.

McCray Refrigerators

are endorsed by physicians, hygienists, and sanitary experts, and are not only better than ordinary refrigerators, but are much more economical as they require only one-half as much ice as an ordinary refrigerator. They are so perfectly insulated that they are as nearly as possible cold and heat proof, and therefore have an active circulation of absolutely dry, cold, pure air with the minimum amount of ice.

Let Us Tell You Why

McCray Refrigerators are superior. Come in and see them for yourself, and let us give you the names of some of the people who are using McCray Refrigerators. Then call some of them up on the 'phone and ask them if they are satisfied with the McCray. Don't take our word—ask someone who is actually using a McCray.

THE UPLIFT OF THE STUDENT

The Spirit of the Young Men's Christian Association of the University of North Carolina—An Appreciation.

The Young Men's Christian Association of the University of North Carolina, true to its purpose and spirit, is not an isolated part of the University's manifold life but is a related and contributing part that strengthens the life of the whole. The Y. M. C. A. believes in the Honor System as it steadily evolves out of a strong sentiment and grows into a system more effective and more vitally related to the student consciousness. It believes in the publications as they reflect the opinions on the campus and give expression to student life, simple and democratic. It believes in the Di and the Phi Societies, those two mighty pillars of the University structure, training camps of great men and generous contributors to the life of the State. The Y. M. C. A. believes in the athletics of the University as gradually adjusting herself to the observance of a high athletic standard. She comes to her own in South Atlantic athletics.

The Y. M. C. A. believes in the students of the University, their physical well-being, their social instinct, and their inborn religious life. On such a belief in young men it was founded and its growth has been one extending miracles all the way from the time when Sir George William gathered a few young men about him in the city of London in 1844 down to the present time, as it reaches into every quarter of the globe embracing in the scope of its work the young men of the city, the army, the navy, the railroad, the factory, and the college.

In all of these fields in its work the Y. M. C. A. stands for the development of the body, the mind, and the soul. In the cities and elsewhere the Y. M. C. A. develops the body in the gymnasium and the mind in the class room. In the college, however, the college gymnasium and the college classroom supplant these parts of the Association's work and the Association of this University, while endorsing a full, rounded development, is making its particular appeal to the highest self. It appeals to what after all are three of the dominant things in life; social instinct, desire for social service, and innate religious nature.

The Y. M. C. A. appeals in the first place to the social instinct. Its building, as a center of college activities, is the social center of the campus. Its game and reading rooms and its hall as a gathering place form comfortable places for haphazard student meetings. The religious classes give the opportunity for that social interchange of self that comes in no other way. The general social receptions give a chance to the whole student body to meet together over a glass of lemonade or a barrel of apples. A social organization, it is a democratic social organization. It believes in the universal brotherhood of man and the blueness of all blood. Under its influence, the man from the West, as strong and rugged as those mountains among which he was reared, and the man from the East, as polished and finished as the drawing room he graces; the man of the professional school and the man of the academic school; the Senior and the Freshman; the feeble and athletic; the "good egg" and the "gind"; the frat and the non-frat.; all meet together on a common ground and in a common cause. The Y. M. C. A. is thus a force for the harmonization of those varied elements that make up the complex University social life.

Besides being thus a force for college unity the Y. M. C. A. has other definite purposes of service and makes a further appeal to the desire for social usefulness. A social organization, it has opportunity for social service. In fact the very existence of the Y. M. C. A. like the existence of any social organization with a moral purpose, is of incalculable good. In the hurry of every day student life the students often take the Y. M. C. A. for granted and it is glad that it is so. They all, irrespective of membership, have the advantages of its rooms for conference, study and club metings; they have the privileges and receive the benefits of its religious meetings, and it is well. It is just that sort of service that the Y. M. C. A. believes in, the service that without fuss and furore really serves.

However indifferent a student may be to many of the activities of such an organization it is incumbent upon him in the name of good citizenship, to support an organization which in its incidental life has interwoven itself so intimately into his every-day social existence. The best part of an organization's life as the best part of a good man's life, are "those little unremembered acts of kindness and of love." The Y. M. C. A. stands as an outlet for those little, unremembered acts, as an outlet for unselfish social service. The work for new students, the information bureau, book exchange, student hand book and college directory, are all contributions of the Y. M. C. A. to student life. The Bible classes with an enrollment of 380 and the mission classes with an enrollment of 310 have quickened an interest in Bible study and Missionary activity that has contributed to the higher tone of campus life. The fact that an alumnus, Eugene E. Barnett, is to be largely supported by the students on the foreign field has brought the University into more vital relation with the volunteer movement and has reacted with increasing power upon University life. The neighborhood Sunday School work carried on by 20 students who walk miles every Sunday afternoon into the rural districts affords an opportunity for genuine service and diminishes the truth of the saying that the University of North Carolina is a mighty lighthouse that casts its clear light far across the borders of the State and Nation while its base is in darkness and ignorance.

For any service to be genuine and worth while it must spring out of the inner, spiritual essence; it should have a religious basis. The Y. M. C. A. makes its third appeal to this spiritual self. The Association as has been said, appeals to the social instinct which finds expression in the universal brotherhood of man dedicated to service. And now finally it believes that such a brotherhood of man should be based upon the fatherhood of God. True religion, it believes, is not only rightly relating oneself to his fellow man and feeling genuinely a brother to every man, but it is also rightly relating oneself to God and feeling deeply the dignity of a son of God. It believes that life must be at once socialized and spiritualized. Christ has given the only example of the perfect social and spiritual life. He has been the sympathetic brother to a man and the strong Son of God. It is the Christ-life after all that the Y. M. C. A. is trying to bring before the students of the University.

It is well at this formative period in the students' lives, when the plastic mind takes on its life mould and when the growing character takes its life trend, that such a life as His should have a part in that mind, making and in that character building. At this period when views of life by reason of study of the science and philosophy undergo revolutionary changes, when some of the old religious views conflict with reason, the world seems turned upside down, and all things seem out of joint, it is well at this period to have an organized religious force at work in the student's life straightening out these intellectual tangles and to hear above this tumult of mind, and soul, a voice, clear and strong saying: "Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." In the strength of that vice, however, far adrift he may be, amid the eddying currents of a cold intellectualism, his heart becomes steadied, his faith anchors, and he knows that the world processes move on in their divine and scientific plan, that there is nothing out of joint, that he is still related in this world programme to his fellowman as brother and to his God as Father. Such is the spirit of the Young Men's Christian Association of this University. F. P. G.

THE SPIDER AND THE FLY.

No doubt you've heard the story of the spider and the fly,
It's as ancient as the classics of an age that's long gone by.
But there's "a rift within the lute" or it, a tremor in the song—
For many, many years, my friend,
we've listened to it wrong.

A sad old spider sat one day without his parlor door.
He was cogitating deeply because his trade was poor,
There was "nothing doing" inside,
that's why he sat without,
His creditors would soon close in, and the sheriff "close him out."

And while he sat there musing and figuring many a scheme,
This poor old spider fell asleep and,
sleeping had a dream—
Methought he saw a gaudy fly come driving down the street,
Two dragon flies her fiery steeds, a beetle on the seat—

A "tiger" wasp for footman; she wore a caterpillar boa,
And at the Spider's very door the beetle uttered "whoa!"
The footman sprang to the carriage door, the Spider hastened too,
He recognized the coat of arms, it was Miss Bottle Blue,—

The richest, proudest scion of a rich and ancient race,
'You were on the road to fortune if she "patronized" your place.
So bowing low in courtesy and with an humble eye,
"Won't you walk into my parlor?"
said the Spider to Miss Fly.

"Why Jeemes," Miss Fly protested, as she glanced out in surprise,
"Why have you stopped at Spider's place—he doesn't advertise."
"Drive on at once, to Silkworm's—his place is clean and bright,
I was reading in the Mulbery leaf, his latest 'Ad.' last night."

'Twas an awful jolt to Spider—he woke up with a start,
If he hadn't he'd have surely died of stoppage of the heart.
Says he, "I may have been asleep and seen a vision from the skies,
But now that I'm awake at last, ye gods! I'll advertise."

And that is why, on every side, since that so tragic day,
You'll find a Spider line-o-type from a Web press in your way.
Say, he's overlooking nothing now, on papers, walls and books,
He puts a line—he hangs a sign—he's after them "with hooks!"

N. Y. LEGISLATURE.

Governor Hughes Calls Special Session for Early June.

Albany, N. Y., May 27.—Believing that there should be further opportunity for considering the Cobb compromise direct nominations bill, which was defeated in the Assembly last night after hours of weary filibuster, Gov. Hughes today called an extraordinary session of the Legislature to meet on June 20th at 8:30 P. M. The legislators had listened to farewell addresses, cleared out their desks, packed their grips and said good-bye when the news of their recall flashed through the capitol. Copies of the Governor's official proclamation were at once served upon the clerks of the two Houses, and loitering legislators remarked significantly that Theodore Roosevelt would be home about that time.

This is the third time that Governor Hughes has called the Legislature back after it had adjourned. The Governor takes the position that the Legislature has failed to pass a measure providing for proper primary reform and for that reason feels that it is his duty to re-convene the Legislature.

Lion Fondles a Child.

In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the hand that a child thrust into his cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through Colds, Croup, and Whooping Cough. They slay thousands that Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. "A few doses cured our baby of a very bad case of croup," writes Mrs. George B. Davis, of Flat Rock, N. C., "We always give it to him when he takes cold. It's a wonderful medicine for babies." Best for Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe. 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Robert R Bellamy.

RIVERS AND HARBORS BILL

Petty Projects May Endanger Whole Measure—Endorsement of Engineers Absolutely Essential—The Conference.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., May 28.—The River and Harbor bill is still in conference and with little or no prospect of an early agreement because eight or ten Senate amendments are out of line with the Act of 1902, which requires a favorable report from the Board of Army Engineers. The projects in controversy have either been adversely reported upon or not reported at all.

Among the eight or ten Senate amendments which are proving stumbling block for the conferees of the Senate and House, the ones that stand out most strongly are the Beaumont and Orange improvements of the Neches and Sabine rivers; Lake Contrary on the Missouri river near St. Joseph; the proposed lock and dam No. 7, on the Green river in Kentucky and the Harbor of Arcadia in Michigan. Such items Chairman Alexander and his colleagues on the part of the House absolutely refused to accept.

The Act of 1902 provides that after Congress has ordered the survey of a project, the local or district engineer reports upon the advisability, adequacy, cost and commercial importance of the improvement. This report is then referred to the Division Engineer who approves or modifies it in accordance with his judgment. From the division engineer the report goes to the Board of Review of Engineers and finally it reaches the Chief of Engineers. At each stage of the proceedings the local interests can be heard, for or against the contemplated improvement, so that the Chief of Engineers' report is similar to a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, every question having been several times considered by nine or more engineers.

It is this decision of the Chief of Engineers, that the Rivers and Harbors committee and the House of Representatives accept as binding. If it is favorable to the project and the immediate improvement of other projects in the same locality are not as important, an appropriation is made either to begin or to finish the project most favorably recommended by the Army Board. If the Engineers report is unfavorable, the Rivers and Harbors committee refuses to have anything to do with the project. So, too, if the project has not been reported upon by the engineers.

All the items in controversy in the present bill are opposed by the House conferees for the reason that the engineers have either reported adversly or not reported upon at all. Meanwhile, the local interests which have been turned down by the United States Engineers, have persuaded Senators to insist upon the controverted projects regardless of the engineers' report. The House conferees resent such disregard of sane methods and prefer that the bill should fail rather than yield to local interests which insist that Congress appropriate millions of dollars for improving undeserving and wasteful projects.

WANTS HER LETTER PUBLISHED

For Benefit of Women who Suffer from Female Ills

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. My pains all left me, I grew stronger, and within three months I was a perfectly well woman.

"I want this letter made public to show the benefit women may derive from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. JOHN G. MOLDAN, 2115 Second St., North, Minneapolis, Minn.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials like the above prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made exclusively from roots and herbs.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She will treat your letter as strictly confidential. For 20 years she has been helping sick women in this way, free of charge. Don't hesitate—write at once.

The fare is so small that no one need miss it—only $1.50 for the round trip.

It will be a hard matter to find a better trip, especially when the cost is considered. ma 27-9t.

We Treat You 30 Days FREE

Blood Poison can never be cured with mercury or potash. You might as well know this first as last. Medical authorities say so. The most these drugs can do is to drive the blood poison back into the system and smother it for several years. Then when you think you are cured, pitiful mercury symptoms will break out, and you find that your bones have been rotting all the while. Your teeth will begin to loosen and your tissues, glands, brain and vital organs will show the terrible destructive power of the mercury and potash. Locomotor Ataxia, Paralysis, Imbecility and Premature Death are then almost inevitable. Any medical authority will corroborate these statements. The remarkable vegetable Obbac Treatment does not drive in the but drives it out. It positively contains no mineral poisons whatever, so that once cured by the Obbac Treatment you never run the terrible risk of having your bones soften, your nerves collapse, your teeth fall out, your kidneys degenerate or your brain weaken. The Obbac Treatment is a marvel, producing remarkable changes in only 30 days. This is why we offer to any blood poison victim living, no matter how bad a case, a

NINTH TRACT: Beginning in the western line of Sixth street at a point one hundred and twenty feet (120 ft.) southwardly from the southwestern intersection of Sixth and Howard streets, and runs thence westwardly and parallel with Howard street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) to the eastern line of Brown street, thence southwardly along the eastern line of Brown street thirty feet (30 ft), thence eastwardly and parallel with Howard street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) to the western line of Sixth street, and thence along the western line of Sixth street northwardly thirty feet (30 ft) to the beginning, the same being part of Lots two and three in Block 348.

TENTH TRACT: Beginning at a point in the western line of Sixth street sixty feet (60 ft.) northwardly from the northwest intersection of Taylor and Sixth streets, and runs thence northwardly along the western line of Sixth street sixty feet (60 ft), thence westwardly and parallel with Taylor street seventy-five feet (75 ft), thence southwardly and parallel with the western line of Sixth street sixty feet (60 ft), thence eastwardly and parallel with Taylor street seventy-five feet (75 ft) to the beginning, the same being part of Lots four and five in Block 348.

ELEVENTH TRACT: Beginning at the southeastern intersection of Howard and Sixth streets, and runs thence along the eastern line of Sixth street southwardly fifty-seven feet (57 ft) thence eastwardly and parallel with the southern line of Howard street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) to the western line of Love street, thence along the western line of Love street northwardly fifty-seven feet (57 ft) to the southern line of Howard street, and thence westwardly along the southern line of Howard street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) to the beginning, the same being part of Lot one in Block 349.

TWELFTH TRACT: Beginning at a point in the eastern line of Sixth street sixty feet northwardly from the northeastern intersection of Taylor and Sixth streets, and runs thence northwardly along the eastern line of Sixth street sixty feet (60 ft), thence eastwardly and parallel with Taylor street seventy-five feet (75 ft), thence southwardly and parallel with the eastern line of Sixth street sixty feet (60 ft) and thence westwardly parallel with Taylor street, seventy-five feet (75 ft) to the beginning, the same being part of Lots four and five in Block 349.

THIRTEENTH TRACT: Beginning in the eastern line of Love street thirty feet (30 ft) northwardly from the northeastern intersection of Taylor and Love streets, and runs thence along the eastern line of Love street northwardly ninety feet (90 ft.), thence eastwardly and parallel with Taylor street seventy-five feet (75 ft) thence southwardly and parallel with the eastern line of Love street ninety feet (90 ft), and thence westwardly and parallel with Taylor street seventy-five feet (75 ft) to the beginning, th same being part of Lots four and five in Block 349.

FOURTEENTH TRACT: Beginning at a point in the eastern line of Seventh street sixty feet (60 ft) southwardly from the southeastern intersection of Howard and Seventh streets, and runs thence southwardly along the eastern line of Seventh street thirty feet (60 ft.), thence eastwardly and parallel with Howard street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) to the western line of McRee street, thence along the western line of McRee street northwardly thirty feet (60 ft), thence westwardly and parallel with Howard street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) to the beginning, the same being parts of Lots one, two and three in Block 350.

FIFTEENTH TRACT: Beginning at a point in the western line of Eighth street thirty feet (30 ft) southwardly from the southwestern intersection of Eighth and Howard streets, and run thence southwardly along the western line of Eighth street thirty feet (30 ft), thence westwardly and parallel with Howard street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft), to the eastern line of McRee street, thence northwardly along the eastern line of McRee street thirty feet (30 ft), thence eastwardly and parallel with Howard street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) to the beginning, the same being part of Lot one in Block 350.

SIXTEENTH TRACT: Beginning at the northwestern intersection of McRee and Taylor streets, and runs thence northwardly along the western line of McRee street sixty feet (60 ft), thence westwardly and parallel with Taylor street seventy-five feet (75 ft), thence southwardly and parallel with the western line of McRee street sixty feet (60 ft) to the northern line of Taylor street eastwardly seventy-five feet (75 ft) to the beginning, the same being part of Lot five in Block 350.

SEVENTEENTH TRACT: Beginning at the southwestern intersection of Howard and Ninth streets, and runs thence westwardly along the southern line of Howard street three hundred and thirty feet (330 ft) to the eastern line of Eighth street, thence along the eastern line of Eighth street southwardly sixty-six feet (66 ft), thence eastwardly and parallel with Howard street seventy-five feet (75 ft), thence southwardly and parallel with the eastern line of Eighth street thirty feet (30 ft), thence westwardly and parallel with the southern line of Howard street seventy-five feet (75 fet) to the eastern line of Eighth street, thence southwardly along the eastern line of Eighth street one hundred and twenty-nine feet (129 ft), thence eastwardly and parallel with Taylor street seventy-five feet (75 ft), thence southwardly and parallel with the eastern line of Eighth street thirty feet (30 ft), thence eastwardly and parallel with the northern line of Taylor street seventy-five feet (75 ft) to the western line of Brooklyn street, thence northwardly along the western line of Brooklyn street thirty feet (30 ft), thence eastwardly and parallel with Taylor street seventy-five feet (75 ft) to the eastern line of Brooklyn street at a point ninety feet (90 ft) northwardly from the northern line of Taylor street, thence eastwardly and parallel with Taylor street seventy-five feet (75 ft) thence southwardly and parallel with the eastern line of Brooklyn street thirty feet (30 ft), thence eastwardly and parallel with Howard street sixty feet (60 ft) thence southwardly and parallel with the eastern line of Brown street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) to the southern line of Howard street, thence eastwardly along the southern line of Howard street ninety feet (90 ft) to the beginning, the same being part of Lots three, four and five in Block 350.

EIGHTEENTH TRACT: Beginning in the eastern line of Ninth street thirty-three feet (33 ft) southwardly from the southeastern intersection of Howard and Ninth streets, and runs thence southwardly along the eastern line of Ninth street one hundred and sixty-two feet (162 ft), thence eastwardly and parallel with Howard street one hundred and fifty-seven feet (157 ft) more or less, to the Hilton line, thence northeastwardly along the Hilton line two hundred and one feet and five inches (201 ft. 5 in.), more or less, to the southern line of Howard street, thence westwardly along Howard street to a point one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) east of Ninth street, thence southwardly and parallel with Ninth street thirty-three feet (33 ft), thence westwardly and parallel with Howard street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) to the beginning, the same being part of Lots one, two and three in Block 352.

NINETEENTH TRACT: Beginning at the northwestern intersection of Fifth and Howard streets, and runs thence northwardly along Fifth street about thirty-two feet (32 ft), more or less, to the line of the right of way of the Carolina Central Railroad Company, thence southwardly along the line of the said right of way about sixty-five feet (65 ft) more or less, to where the line of the said right of way intersects with the northern line of Howard street, thence eastwardly along the northern line of Howard street fifty-nine feet (59 ft.) more or less, to the beginning, the same being part of Lot five in Block 358.

TWENTIETH TRACT: Beginning at the southeastern intersection of Smith and Fifth streets, and runs thence southwardly along the eastern line of Fifth street one hundred and one feet (101 ft), more or less, to the right of way of the Carolina Central Railroad, thence northeastwardly along the line of the said right of way one hundred and seventy-one feet (171 ft), more or less, to where the line of the said right of way intersects with the southern line of Smith street, thence westwardly along the southern line of Smith street one hundred and eighty feet (180 ft), more or less, to the beginning, the same being part of Lots one and two in Block 359.

TWENTY-FIRST TRACT: Beginning at the northwestern intersection of Howard and Sixth streets, and runs thence northwardly along the western line of Sixth street two hundred and forty-five feet (245 ft), more or less, to the line of the right of way of the Carolina Central Railroad, thence southwestwardly along the line of the said right of way to the eastern line of Fifth street, thence southwardly along the eastern line of Fifth street fifty-two feet (52 ft), more or less, to a point which is thirty feet (30 ft) north of the northeastern intersection of Howard and Fifth streets, thence eastwardly and parallel with Howard street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) to the western line of Brown street, thence northwardly along the western line of Brown street thirty feet (30 ft), thence westwardly and parallel with Howard street seventy-five feet (75 ft), thence northeastwardly to the eastern line of Brown street at a point one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) north of the northeastern intersection of Brown and Howard streets, thence eastwardly and parallel with Howard street sixty feet (60 ft) thence southwardly and parallel with the eastern line of Brown street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft) to the southern line of Howard street, thence eastwardly along the southern line of Howard street ninety feet (90 ft) to the beginning, the same being part of Lots three, four and five in Block 350.

TWENTY-SECOND TRACT: Beginning at the northeastern intersection of Howard and Sixth streets, and runs thence northwardly along the eastern line of Sixth street two hundred and fifty-eight feet (258 ft) and five inches (5 in), more or less, to the line of the right of way of the Railroad Company, thence northeastwardly along the line of the said right of way three hundred and thirty feet (330 ft), more or less, to the western line of Seventh street, thence southwardly along the western line of Seventh street two hundred and sixty-one feet and five inches (261 ft. 5 in), more or less, to a point thirty feet (30 ft) north of the northwestern intersection of Seventh and Howard streets, thence westwardly and parallel with the northern line of Howard street seventy-five feet (75 ft), thence southwardly and parallel with the western line of Seventh street thirty feet (30 ft) to the northern line of Howard street, thence westwardly along the northern line of Howard street two hundred and fifty-five feet (255 ft) to the beginning, same being part of Lots one, two, three, four and five in Block 360.

TWENTY-THIRD TRACT: Beginning at the northwest intersection of Howard and Eighth streets, and runs thence northwardly along the western line of Eighth street two hundred and forty feet (240 ft), more or less, to the line of the right of way of the Railroad Company, thence northwestwardly along the line of the right of way of the Railroad Company three hundred and forty feet (340 ft), more or less, to the eastern line of Seventh street at a point about thirty-nine feet (39 ft) south from the southeastern intersection of Smith and Seventh streets, thence southwardly along the eastern line of seventh street about two hundred and thirty-one feet (231 ft) to a point sixty feet (60 ft) north of the northeastern intersection of Howard and Seventh streets, thence eastwardly and parallel with the northern line of Howard street one hundred and fifty feet (150 ft), thence southwardly and parallel with the eastern line of Seventh street sixty feet (60 ft) to the northern line of Howard street, thence eastwardly along the northern line of Howard street one hundred and eighty feet (180 ft) to the beginning, the same being parts of Lots one, two and five and all of three and four in Block 361.

TWENTY-FOURTH TRACT: Beginning at the northwestern intersection of Howard and Ninth streets, and runs thence northwardly along the western line of Ninth street one hundred and ninety-two feet and five inches (192 ft. 5 in), more or less, to the line of the right of way of the Railroad Company, thence northwestwardly along the line of the said right of way three hundred and forty feet (340 ft), more or less, to the eastern line of Eighth street at a point where the line of the right of way of the Railroad Company crosses the eastern line of Eighth street, which is about ninety-three feet and five inches (93 ft. 5 in), more or less, southwardly from the southeastern intersection of Eighth and Smith streets, thence southwardly along the eastern line of Eighth street two hundred and thirty-six feet and five inches (236 ft. 5 in.), more or less, to the northern line of Howard street, thence eastwardly along the northern line of Howard street three hundred and thirty (330 ft) to the beginning, the same being part of Lots two and three and all of four and five in Block 362.

TWENTY-FIFTH TRACT: Beginning at the southeastern intersection of Fifth and Ashe streets, and runs thence eastwardly along the southern line of Ashe street three hundred and thirty feet (330 ft) to the western line of Sixth street, thence southwardly along the western line of Sixth street two hundred and seventy-six feet (276 ft), more or less, to the line of the right of way of the Railroad Company, thence southwestwardly along the line of the said right of way to where it intersects with the northern line of Smith street, which is at a point about seventy feet (70 ft) west of the western line of Sixth street, thence westwardly along the northern line of Smith street two hundred and sixty feet (260 ft), more or less, to the eastern line of Fifth street, thence northwardly along the eastern line of Fifth street three hundred and thirty feet (330 ft) to the beginning, the same being all of Lots one, two, three and four and part of Lot five in Block 368.

TWENTY-SIXTH TRACT: Beginning at the southeastern intersection of Ashe and Lucas streets, and runs thence southwardly along the eastern line of Sixth street about two hundred and twelve feet (212 ft) to the line of the right of way of the Railroad Company, thence northeastwardly along the line of the right of way of the Railroad Company to the southern line of Ashe street at a point about one hundred and sixty feet (160 ft) east of Sixth street, thence westwardly along the southern line of Ashe street one hundred and sixty feet (160 ft), more or less, to the eastern line of Sixth street, the beginning, the same being part of Lots one, two, three and four in Block 369.

TWENTY-SEVENTH TRACT: Beginning at low water mark on the eastern branch of the northeast Cape Fear river at a point which is two hundred and ten feet (210 ft) in a direct line southwardly from where the line of the right of way of the Railroad Company intersects said river, which beginning point is at the third corner of the tract of land sold by Graffin to Edward Kidder by deed duly recorded in Book Q. Q. Q. at pg. 579, and runs thence southwardly along low water mark of the Cape Fear river to a point where the northern line of Cape Fear street, were the same continued to the river, would intersect said river at low water mark, thence eastwardly and along the line of Cape Fear street, were the same continued to the river, to the southwest corner of a tract of land sold by Graffin to Chas. A. Lieb and Bernard F. O'Connor, thence northwardly along the western line of the said tract to the line of the tract of land sold by Graffin to Kidder, now known as the Water Works line, thence westwardly along the Water Works line to the beginning, part of said land being in the corporate limits and part being without the corporate limits of the City of Wilmington.

TWENTY-EIGHTH TRACT: Beginning at low water mark on the Cape Fear river at a point where the northern line of Cape Fear street would intersect the said river, were the same laid out according to the plan of the City of Wilmington, runs thence southwardly along low water mark of the Cape Fear river to the line of a tract of land known as the Parsley tract, same being a part of the Hilton tract, and being the northern line of the said Parsley tract as conveyed from the deed from Jas. F. McRee to Geo. W. Graffin, and runs thence eastwardly and a little southwardly to the northeast corner of said tract, thence southeastwardly along the line of the said tract with its various courses to the southern line of Ashe street, thence along the southern line of Ashe street eastwardly to the western line of the right of way of the Railroad Companies, as described in a deed from Graffin to the Railroads, which point is about one hundred and sixty-five feet (165 ft) westwardly from the western line of Seventh street, thence northeastwardly, and thence northwestwardly along the said right of way to what would be the southern line of Hilton street, were the same laid out and established according to the official plan of the City of Wilmington, and which said point is the beginning corner of a tract of land sold by Graffin to Chas. A. Lieb and Bernard F. O'Connor, thence westwardly along the line of the said tract of land to what would be the western line of Sixth street, were the same continued according to the official plan of the City of Wilmington, to the southern line of Hilton street, thence along what would be the southern line of Sixth street southwardly three hundred and thirty feet (330 ft) to what would be Interesting Study in River Navigation; Building Lakes in the Ohio River

Creating fifty-four lakes in the Ohio river.

Increasing the number of days on which boats of 8 1-2 feet draft can leave Pittsburg from 79 days to 365 days a year.

Increasing the number of days on which boats can operate out of Cincinnati from approximately 150 days to 365 days a year.

Increasing the number of days on which boats of 8 1-2 feet draft can operate past Louisville from 97 days to 365 days a year.

Saving between $6,000,000 and $8,000,000 annually in freight rates for shippers on either local business or long hauls.

Inducing industrial concerns to locate on the Ohio river and its immediate tributaries by reason of the low freight rates and uninterrupted freight service that will be established.

These are some of the important conditions which are being created by the United States government in the construction of a series of dams and locks in the Ohio river between Pittsburg and Cairo, a distance of 967 miles.

This work of establishing a 9-foot stage of water the year round from the source to the mouth of the Ohio was started years ago, with the building of the Portland canal at Louisville and the construction of the Davis Island dam, just below Pittsburg, although at the time these great helps to navigation were not figured on as a part of a gigantic system that should eventually make steamboat transportation possible on the Ohio every day in the year and on every mile of that beautiful stream.

It is only within the past eight years that the actual work of bringing out this great system of waterways improvement has received official cognizance, President Roosevelt making his first public utterance in favor of the project in a speech at the Cincinnati Music Hall in the Fall of 1902, pledging his aid to the enterprise and promising to use all his influence to have Congress enter actively into the scheme. And it is fitting that in Cincinnati, where nearly eight years ago, this conservation movement was officially launched, should be celebrated this Fall, through the Ohio Valley Exposition, the completion of one of the links in this vast chain of inland lakes —54 in all—which eventually will form the most perfect inland waterway in the United States, if not in the world. The link referred to is the Fernbank Dam,, known officially as Dam No. 37, and located 13 miles below Cincinnati.

The work on this dam was begun in 1905 and has been pushed as steadily as conditions would permit ever since. According to the contract entered into by the contractors and the government, the dam was to be completed in 350 working days, no work to be done between December 1 and June 1 because of the unfavorable conditions existing during that period. To carry on this work the sum of $1,150,000 was appropriated by Congress; and so far has it progressed that it is estimated that it will not take more than six weeks of actual working time to complete every detail of the scheme, thus placing it in perfect condition for demonstrations during the time of the Ohio Valley Exposition.

The Fernbank dam is designed to harness the Ohio river, as it were, in front of Cincinnati. With its completion the city is assured continuous navigation for a distance of at least 23 miles, the dam establishing an inland lake that will never have less than nine feet of water at its lowest point, with a much greater maximum depth. The dam is built on what is known as the Chanoine movable wicket plan. When the stage of the river is sufficiently high to allow of navigation under ordinary conditions, the dam is lowered to practically the bottom of the river, lying flat on a concrete surface prepared for it and operated into place with the aid of compressed air and easily handled supports, the water, with its traffic, passing naturally over the "folded" dam. When the stage of the river is low, necessitating the forming of this slack water lake, the dam is raised in sections or "wickets", each 16 feet, 11 inches in length and 3 feet 9 inches in width. It requires 225 of these "wickets" to make up the dam between its two extremes. The "wickets" form a continuous wall, arranged at an angle with the top slanting in the direction that the water flows, and supported on the lower side by movable braces which slip into place when the "wickets" are raised, or lie flat on the bottom of the specially constructed river bed when the "wickets" are lowered.

Of the dams constructed in the Ohio river, or now under construction, the Fernbank dam is by far the largest—in fact, it has the distinction of being the largest movable dam in the world, the nearest approach to it being Dam No. 2, located just below Pittsburg, which is not as wide by 200 feet as the Fernbank dam. The navigable width of the Fernbank dam is 900 feet, with three bear-trap dams on the Kentucky side, each 80 feet wide, to regulate the flow of water to the dam proper and into the lock on the Ohio side. This lock, which will be used for the passage of boats and barges during the time the dam is in position, is 100 feet wide and 600 feet long, with approaches of a length of about 600 feet at either end, giving the lock a total length of about 1,800 feet and a depth sufficient to easily accommodate the most heavily laden vessels that navigate the Ohio.

Up to date Dams No. 1 to 6 have been completed, except in minor particulars, furnishing slack-water navigation the year 'round for the first 30 miles below Pittsburg, that portion in its natural condition being the worst section of the river. At present there are under construction seven other dams, namely: No. 8, near East Liverpool, O.; No. 11, at Welsburg, W. Va.; No. 13, just below Wheeling; No. 18, just below Marietta, O.; No. 19, below the mouth of the Little Kanawha; No. 26, below the mouth of the Great Kanawha, and No. 37, a short distance below Cincinnati. It is expected that Nos. 8, 11, 13, 18 and 37 will be completed during the present year.

In order to complete the improvement of the river to a nine-foot depth, there will be required 41 locks and dams, in addition to those at present completed or under construction. The number (41) includes the dam at Louisville, which, with the Portland canal, will have to be reconstructed in order to fit properly into the general 9-foot stage scheme. The amount necessary to carry this plan to completion is estimated at $57,566,800. In order to complete the locks and dams now under construction there will be required $3,213,800 in addition to the amounts already authorized, making a total of $60,780,600 to perfect the 9-foot project from Pittsburg to Cairo.

The improvement of the Ohio river is of great commercial and industrial importance, and has been specially recommended by President Taft. Congress has thought proper to provide that this stupendous work should be prosecuted at a rate which will insure its completion within a period of 12 years. In order to accomplish this it will be necessary to appropriate approximately $5,000,000 per year.

An idea of the importance of the commerce of the Ohio river, as compared to that of the Mississippi river, and the strongest argument that could possibly be advanced in favor of this improvement, is to be found in the report of the National Waterways Commission, published in 1906. This shows, according to the census report, that out of the 19,531,000 tons carried on the entire Mississippi river system, more than 15,000,000 tons came out of the Ohio river from Pittsburg to Cairo.

In summing up the benefits of this canalization of the Ohio river, it should be borne in mind that an extremely low possible downstream freight cost should have a material bearing on the ability of the manufacturers in such valley to export and sell their iron, steel and other products in the world's markets, the ability to sell abroad being dependent not only on the ability to bring together cheaply the raw material essential to manufacture but on the ability to cheaply place the manufactured article in the world's markets.

Fleets, similar to those now in use, if navigable depths existed at all times, would frequently and regularly pass a given point and would be available for manufacturers and shippers for the movement of any barges that might be loaded and ready to start for points of destination, whether for short or long distances, there being nearly always long-distance coal traffic which would keep the boats employed the year 'round under the new water conservation plan. Smaller producers of merchandise would therefore not be called upon to build and operate expensive steamboats in order to share in the advantages of towboat transportation, although no doubt large producers in some cases would elect to do their own towing.

Because of the establishing of this slack-water system near the headwaters of the Ohio, manufacturing sites have been purchased along both banks of the river for a distance of thirty miles below Pittsburg, and it is expected that this acquiring of advantageous locations for the establishing of various industries that can utilize the river for securing their raw materials as well as for the shipping of their finished products will be even more active from now on with the certainty that there soon will be uninterrupted navigation from one end of the year to the other between all points of the Ohio-Mississippi system from Pittsburg to New Orleans. And with the completion of the Panama Canal this inland water highway will take on even greater importance, as a large percentage of the commerce now carried overland by rail will take the river route to New Orleans, whence it will be transported via ocean-going vessels to the Pacific and Asiatic or South American points.

Have You An Employee Who Drinks?

A brilliant man perhaps who was once your most trusted emplcyee? Maybe he is still all right—as brilliant as ever—when he is sober. But you can't keep him in the same responsible position because you never can trust him any more. And so you have to cut his wages and finally when all patience is exhausted and all hope seems gone—you have to discharge him and set him adrift.

Yet in spite of everything you hate to do it. You hate to see a good man go like that—for you have spent so many years in training him and good men are so hard to get. You know you can't train up another man as good in four months or even in four years. But did you know that in from four to six weeks you could bring your trusted employee back to his old self? A credit to himself—a joy to his family—and a money-making investment to you?

Too good to be true you say! Not a bit of it. We have cured 6500 patients here at the Greensboro Keeley Institute the past eighteen years since I've been president of it and the great majority of them are happy and prosperous men today. We can do just as much for your old employee. For his sake, for his family's sake, for your own sake, write today for our descriptive booklet.

WORLD MISSION CONFERENCE

Begins in Edinburgh June 14th—Interesting and Remarkable Gathering, Widely Representative of Christian Faith.

(The Edinburgh Scotsman.)

The World Missionary Conference, which begins in Edinburgh on the 14th June next, will in all respects be an interesting and remarkable gathering. It is claimed for it that it will be perhaps the most widely representative gathering of Christians that has ever been held. Of the official delegates, who will number in all about 1,200, nearly 500 will be from Great Britain, and about the same number from America; 170 will come from the Continent of Europe, and about 30 from the British colonies. Japan will be represented by several of its leading Christian educators and by the Bishop of the Japanese Methodist Church. From Korea will come the Hon. T. H. Yun, who until the Japanese occupation was Minister for Foreign Affairs. There will also be representatives of the Christian churches in Africa, China, Burma, and India. Among those from the latter country will be the Rev. K. C. Chatterji, who was the first Indian Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in India. The delegates will include the two Archbishops and nine of the leading Bishops of the Church of England, the present Moderators and the Moderators-Elect of the Church of Scotland, and the United Free Church, and leading men from every important Protestant Christian Church in the world. Among those who will take part in the deliberations of the Conference will be men prominent in public life.

The cost of preparing for and carrying through the Conference will amount to £7,000. This sum has been already nearly raised, but over £1,000 still requires to be provided. The expenditure of this sum has been necessary for the maintenance for a period of nearly two years of a large staff and extensive offices in Edinburgh, for correspondence with hundreds of missionary workers in every part of the world, and for the investigations carried out by the eight Commissions, the work of any one of which is regarded by itself, a great undertaking. These Commissions, as has been already explained, have been dealing with various aspects of mission work, especially in the non-Christian world, and particularly with the contact of Christianity with Oriental peoples and their beliefs—a dominant fact in the world's history at the opening of the present century. The reports which they will submit to the Conference will, it is claimed, give to a large number of people an entirely new conception of the magnitude, complexity, and dignity of the foreign missionary work of the Christian Church. Correspondence has been carried on with hundreds of missionary workers throughout the world. The mass of information received from this body of men, who possess a knowledge of the beliefs, customs, and life of the people among whom they are working, has been carefully sifted and prepared for presentation in print to the Conference. Since the Commissions have been divided into two sections having their headquarters in Great Britain and America respectively, a considerable number of visits from one side of the Atlantic to the other have had to be made by responsible members of the Commissions. The reports of the Commissions which have been issued to delegates in proof form will, when finally published, consist each of from 300 to 500 pages.

The official Conference will be held in the Assembly Hall of the United Free Church of Scotland, and during the ten days that the Conference meets, simultaneous meetings will be held in the Synod Hall. The demand for admission to the meetings has been enormously in excess of the space available, and it has been necessary to disappoint hundreds of those who desired to attend the Conference. In order to meet this difficulty, the Committee has arranged that a series of meetings should be held each evening in the Church of Scotland Assembly Hall. These meetings will be addressed by the most distinguished speakers at the Conference, and will be open to the public.

Before the opening of the Conference, a representative and international Business Committee will meet all day on Saturday, June 11th, and Monday, June 13th. Only one day can be allotted at the Conference to the consideration of the report of each Commission, while each report furnishes matter for several days' discussion. In order to secure that the most effective use is made of the limited time at the disposal of each Commission, delegates to the Conference have been invited to send in advance a note of the matters which they specially desire to have discussed, and in the light of the suggestions thus received, the Business Committee will prepare an agenda for each day's proceedings.

On Monday evening, June 13th, a reception to the delegates wil be given in the Museum of Science and Art by the Lord Provost and Corporation of Edinburgh. The first meeting of the Conference will take place on the following Tuesday afternoon at 3 P. M., when the Conference will be constituted and certain necessary matters of business will be dealt with. At the evening meeting on the same day, Lord Balfour, of Burleigh, will preside, and addresses will be delivered by the Archbishop of Canterbury and Mr. Robert E. Speer, of New York.

Annual Senior Ball—Entertained by Dr. Hill—Battalion Affairs.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., May 26.—The annual senior ball will be given Saturday night in Pullen Hall. No undergraduates will be allowed to attend this year on account of final examinations not being over until Monday.

The last meeting of the Y. M. C. A. for this year was addressed by President Hill in Chapel last Sunday afternoon, who made a very thoughtful address.

Last Saturday night President Hill entertained the Senior Class at his hospitable home on Hillsboro Road. The Senior Classes of St. Mary's Peace and Meredith were also present.

Vice President W. C. Riddick, head of the Department of Civil Engineering, gave a banquet at Giersch's Cafe Tuesday night to the Seniors, who graduate in civil engineering this year.

Last night Dr. F. L. Stevens, of the Department of Agriculture, and Mrs. Stevens entertained the Senior in Agriculture at their home on Hillsboro Road. Quite a number of young ladies from Raleigh were also present.

The Sophomore class has elected officers for next year as follows: President, D. W. Seifert, of Newbern; vice president, T. H. Stofford; secretary and treasurer, C. M. Taylor; historian, B. M. Potter; poet, H. P. Whitted.

First Lieutenant John S. E. Young, commandant, made a farewell talk to the battalion in Pullen Hall Saturday afternoon, as he will not return next year, having served as commandant and Professor of Military Service and Tactics for the past four years. Some of the battalion officers for next year are as follows: Staff Major, John T. Peden, Jr.; Lieutenant and Adjutant, J. H. Brown; Lieutenant and Quartermaster, J. L. Martin; Sergeant Major, O. W.
